Eric Vanosdall (9) and Justin Kay (15K) battle for the lead in the feature. Vanosdall took the win.

Vanosdall takes win

After two quick cautions, the Late Model "A" feature went straight to the end with Eric Vanosdall of Hoskins winning by inches over Justin Kay of Wheatland, IA.

Devin Johnson of Bloomfield led the first seven laps, before Vanosdall zipped by to take over the top spot.

Vanosdall used the high side to gain the lead. Kay worked his way through the field. He was eighth after the final caution on lap five.

Kay used every line possible and on lap 13 moved into second. A whole straightaway behind Vanosdall, it took Kay four laps to catch the leader.

Kay got good runs out of turn two and tried several slide jobs to gain the lead in turns three and four, but Vanosdall pulled the cross over and regained the lead on the front stretch.

After several attempts, Kay fell in behind Vanosdall. Kay tried six times in the final 10 laps to pull off a slide job with the last one coming on the final lap.

Vanosdall regained the lead each time and on the final lap appeared to have won by inches, despite the electronic scoring showing Kay with the victory.

During post-race inspections, Kay's scoring device was found to be in the wrong spot giving Vanosdall the win.

It was Vanosdall's first win this season at the track and his second top 5.

Blake Andersen of Omaha took home third place. Fourth went to Johnson. Rounding out the top 5 was Dylan Schmer of Aurora, his third top 5.

Hochstein victorious

With consistent laps, Wes Hochstein led 18 of the 20 laps to win the SportMod division feature, last week.

The Randolph driver started on the inside of the second row. He slipped into second after one lap and was pacing the field after three laps.

Once out front, Hochstein put his right rear on the cushion and clicked off the laps.

David Johnson of Columbus and Robbie Thome of Spalding worked their way through the field and battled for the second spot as they ran down Hochstein.

Once they caught Hochstein, they still ran side-by-side and could not get past Hochstein.

After 15 laps, a caution was thrown bunching the field.

On the restart, Hochstein went back pacing the field, as Thome and Johnson locked horns again.

This time, James Roebuck of Genoa got into the mix. Roebuck started putting pressure on Johnson, allowing Thome to run down Hochstein.

On the final lap Thome tried running hard into three and passed Hochstein but slid up the track in turn four allowing Hochstein to dive below and take the win by half a car.

It was Hochstein's first win of the season. Thome finished second with Roebuck completing the pass on Johnson for third.

TeJay Mielke (77) won his heat race and later finished third in the feature.

Bittner takes check

Starting on the outside pole, Tiffany Bittner led all 18 laps on her way to her first win of the season at the track.

The Hampton driver used the high side to fend off several challengers throughout the race that had three cautions.

On the final restart with eight laps left, Bittner had her first side-by-side challenge when TeJay Mielke of Norfolk managed to get along side. Bittner had the better line and two laps later was pulling away.

Austin Brauner of Platte Center shadowed Bittner throughout most of the feature and on the final lap, Brauner drove low into three and four, but could not hold the line.

Bittner took the checkered flag. Brauner was second. Mielke was third. Three other drivers finished in the top 5.

Chad Bruns of Norfolk took home four points for second top 5. The top 5 was TeJay Mielke of Norfolk. It was a close race.

The top two drivers, Jason Wilkinson and Kyle Wilkinson, both of Norfolk, had their night cut short when Jason Wilkinson tripped a spinning car while sideways on the track with nowhere to go. Kyle Wilkinson drove off and Jason Wilkinson was off.

Kyle Wilkinson (52) runs into Jason Wilkinson (5) after a chain reaction incident in the feature. Both Wilkinsons retired from the race.
