Hobby Stock Winner

Jason Wilkinson (5) races for the lead with Chuck Sands (74x) during the feature. Wilkinson picked up his first win of the season. Sands finished fifth after leading the race.

Defending champ takes first season win

After having his worst night at the five-year-old track, Stock Car two-time defending champion Jason Wilkinson picked up his first victory of the season.

The Neligh driver got caught up in an incident after a car spun in front of him. The damage was enough he had to retire from the race and he finished 14th – his lowest finish in the five years at the track.

Wilkinson finished 12th in 2017 but has finished in the top 10 all other times. The win last week was his 13th career win at the track.

In the feature last week, John Hadcock of Wayne led the first five laps. Chuck Sands of Neligh led the one lap before the caution was thrown.

On the restart, Wilkinson jumped out front and led the final nine laps for his first victory of the season and his third top 5.

Austin Brauner finished second for the second time this season. Brauner climbed into second on lap eight of the 15-lap feature.

Third went to Norfolk's Shawn Primrose after finding a fast line late. Fourth went to TeJay Mielke of Norfolk and rounding out the top 5 was Sands.

Above, Shawn Primrose (1) competes with Nate DeSive (31K) in their heat race. Primrose won the heat and later finished third in the feature. Below, TeJay Mielke (77) and Dusty Poesnecker (22P) cruise in their heat race. Mielke later finished fourth in the feature.

John Hadcock (45) led five laps in the feature and finished 11th in the race.

Austin Brauner (10A) finished second in the feature for the second time this season. He also takes over the points lead.

The top three in the Hobby Stocks were Shannon Pospisil (winner), Travis Coover and Jay Poesnecker.

Cameron Wilkinson (52), Jeremy Hoskinson (26) and Trent Johnson (19) compete in the feature. Wilkinson had the highest finish of the three at ninth.

Hobbies

Travis Coover of Neligh finished second. He jumped into the top 3 on lap six. He was second for one lap before Jay Poesnecker of Ames passed him for the position.

On the final lap, Coover found traction on the high side and made a last lap pass for the second position. It was his second top 5 of the season.

Poesnecker took third after running nearly every lap in the top 3. It was his first top 5.

Fourth went to Lance Mielke, his fourth top 5. Rounding out the fifth position was Reynolds. It was her first top 5 of the season.

Tanner Uehling (58T) clipped a spinning car tearing a side of his car off. He finished 12th in the feature.

Shannon Pospisil (00) picked up his first career feature at the track. He also won his second heat race.

Pospisil captures first Hobby Stock win

Shannon Pospisil started his racing career in go-karts and moved into front-wheel drive four-cylinder cars.

This season, the Norfolk driver jumped into the Hobby Stock division and last week he posted his first career win.

At the start of the feature, Pospisil first tried to run the high side to pass the leader Stephanie Reynolds of Norfolk.

Pospisil fell to third and was about to slip to fourth when the only caution of the night came out. After the restart, Pospisil was able to get to the inside line. He then tried to work to the inside of Reynolds. On lap eight, Reynolds pushed high in three and four and Pospisil drove to the inside to make the pass.

Once out front, he pulled a slight advantage and led the final eight laps to victory. It was also his first top 5 of the season.

Hobbies

Ryan Fajman (3) won his second heat race of the season. Gage Koch (96) finished second in the race.

Right, Travis Coover (711) battles for the second position with Jay Poesnecker (20P) in the feature. Coover took second and Poesnecker placed third. Poesnecker earlier won his heat race.

Deal tops SLMR field

The Super Late Model Racing series made its annual stop of the season and it was a rookie taking top honors this season.

Nick Deal of Harlan, IA made a pass on Norfolk's Tad Pospisil on lap 16 to take home the top prize.

Deal started on the outside of the third row just behind Pospisil. Outside pole sitter Jason O'Brien of Atlantic, IA led the first two laps before Pospisil got his car hooked up on the cushion.

Pospisil made the pass for the lead and looked to have the race in hand as he pulled away from the field, leading the next 13 laps. However, after the third caution, Pospisil started to fade giving up the lead to Deal.

Deal then ran the high side to pull away to pick up the victory.

Ben Schaller of Omaha was second after passing Andrew Kosiski of La Vista on the final lap.

Schaller broke into the top three on lap 20 passing Pospisil for the spot.

Gary Brown, Jr. of Brandon, SD finished fourth and Bill Leighton of La Vista rounded out the top 5.

The top Off Road Speedway regular was Chris Johnson of Bloomfield. He finished seventh after winning the first of two "B" features. Eighth went to Chase Osborne of Norfolk, who had the fastest qualifying time of the regulars at 15.105 seconds.

Schaller had the quickest lap 14.826 seconds. The race winner had a lap of 15.077 seconds.

Off Road regulars Eric Vanosdall of Hoskins and Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton each won their heat race.
