Cory Dumpert (77) takes the checkered flag in his heat race. He won the race and later won the feature.

Dumpert takes July 4 feature win

He came from the outside of the fifth row at the start of the feature and on the final restart, Cory Dumpert grabbed the lead to win the feature.

The York driver drove under race leader Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids on the restart and was able to get enough of his car in front of Zentner to capture the lead.

Once out front, Dumpert pulled away from the field and won by half-a-lap.

Zentner led the first 15 laps after starting on the outside pole. Zentner increased his lead to a straightaway lead as second was contested.

Dumpert jumped into the second position on lap seven and managed to close the gap in eight laps as he was in the process of passing Zentner when the final caution came out.

It was Dumpert's second start at the track this season. It was his first top 5.

Zentner finished second after first holding off Chase Osborne of Norfolk and then Travis Dickes of Madison.

Dickes finished third. Eric Vanosdall of Hoskins took fourth as Osborne rounded out the top 5.

Zach Zentner (22z) was victorious in his heat race. He led 15 laps in the feature, however, had to settle for second in his first appearance at the track this season.

Bristol Arneson (left) and Andrew Norton won again in the cruiser class.

Six for Meyer

Two caution periods slowed the Sport Compacts and it was Ramsey Meyer grabbing his sixth win of the season.

The win was his 40th victory at the track.

Meyer started on the inside of the second row and was leading by the exit of turn one.

It was Parker Vollbrecht of Stanton who gave Meyer a run for his money.

Vollbrecht caught Meyer on lap 6 of the 12-lap feature. Several times Vollbrecht pulled alongside and on the final circuit Vollbrecht and Meyer were side-by-side.

Meyer pulled the advantage out of turn four and won by half-a-car. Third went to Bo Cleveland of Norfolk.

Brian Long of South Sioux City finished fourth and Jeremy Shell of Columbus placed fifth.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) won his sixth heat race and his sixth feature Wednesday night.

Kyle Prauner (5K) won his first feature of the season and his 24th victory at the track.

Prauner takes first win of season

Drawing for starting spot was kind to Kyle Prauner of Norfolk, as he started on the pole and led every lap to win the feature last Wednesday.

It was his 24th victory at the track and his first win since 2017. It was also his sixth top 5 finish of the season.

The race was slowed six times and officials reduced the number of laps to keep the night's program running.

Brian Osantowski of Columbus jumped into the top

3 on lap six and was running second after lap 8.

Osantowski managed to hold off several challenges for the spot, to take second. It was his second top 5 of the season.

Robbie Thome of Spalding and Wes Hochstein of Randolph battled late in the race for the third spot.

Hochstein took the third place finish with Thome taking fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Cameron Meyer of Pierce.

Robbie Thome (1T) placed fourth in the feature.

Jonathan Jensen (25), Eric Sloan (27), Brian Osantowski (999) and Michael Wolfe (15x) race in their heat race. Osantowski won the heat race and later finished second in the feature.

Lance Mielke (7) races with Dustin Jackson (22x) in their heat race. Mielke won the heat race and feature. Jackson was second in the heat and fourth in the feature.

Mielke victorious

Twenty-six cars showed up for the Hobby Stock class Wednesday and Lance Mielke outraced them all for the main event win.

Race officials reduced the lap count to nine as there were six cautions during those nine laps.

Defending points champion and points leader going into the night, Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh, drew a front row starting spot.

Wilkinson took off to lead the first two laps before a suspension failure left him running on three tires.

The fourth tire ended up being run over by Jay Poessecker of Ames. The impact lifted Poessecker into the air and all four tires left the ground.

Wilkinson, for the second night in a row, was done for the evening, as Poessecker was able to finish the feature.

After Wilkinson was towed from the track, Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk paced the field on the restart.

He led four laps before Mielke moved out front.

The race had several green-white-checked attempts until finally Mielke took the checkered flag. It was his first win of the season.

Pospisil took home second. Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk posted another top 5 at third place.

Fourth went to Dustin Jackson of O'Neill. It was his first top of the season. Rounding out the top 5 was Mark Arduser of Battle Creek.

Mark Arduser (4) took his fifth top 5 taking home fifth in the feature.

Jay Poessecker (20P) runs over the Cameron Wilkinson's (52) loose tire during the feature. Wilkinson retired from the race, as Poessecker finished sixth.
