Johnson and Johnson, Jim Johnson (36) took first and brother, Chris Johnson (73), finished second in the feature.

Brothers battle to the finish line

Johnson vs Johnson vs Johnson was the setup last week in the Late Model feature with a Johnson pulling off the win.

Following the final caution of the night with 15 laps remaining, Jim Johnson of Plainview was leading, brother, Chris Johnson of Bloomfield was second and Chris' son, Devin Johnson of Bloomfield was third.

It was the defending track champion, Jim Johnson who pulled off the victory. However, Chris did not make it easy.

Jim pulled away on the restart as he ran the high side. Chris worked the low side and slowly made gains on the leader.

By lap 17 Chris made his first attempt at passing for lead. For three laps the brothers battled side-by-side until Chris slipped back.

Slow traffic hindered Chris and Jim opened a gap to his brother. However, Jim jumped the cushion the next two laps in turn one and two, allowing Jim to close the gap.

With two laps remaining, Chris had the lead on the exit of turn two. Jim fought back to take the white flag first.

Chris made one last attempt on the final lap, but Jim's momentum on the high side paid off.

Jim won his second feature of the season. Chris was second. Eric Vanosdall of Hoskins took home third.

Matt Haase of Norfolk finished fourth. Travis Birkley of Wakefield brought an early caution, however, recovered to take fifth.

Below, Matt Haase (94) took his fourth top 5 finishing fourth in the feature.

Meyer does it again

It was another hard-fought battle between gladiators in the Sport Compact division, this time Ramsey Meyer of Pierce took home the top prize.

Parker Vollbrecht of Stanton was sent to the rear of the field after an incident on lap four.

Coming from a straightaway behind, Vollbrecht came back to battle Meyer for the lead on the final two laps of the 10-lap feature.

As the two exited turn four the final time, Meyer edged out Vollbrecht to the checkered flag.

Meyer took his seventh victory of the season. Vollbrecht was disqualified after officials said he did not stop after the race for claiming purposes and did not go to tech inspection.

Mark Benedict of Norfolk inherited the runner-up finish and Bo Cleveland finished third.

Tom Meyer of Pierce finished fourth and Evan Harrod of Norfolk took fifth.
