Devin Johnson (7J) leads uncle Jim Johnson (36) out of turn two on his way to winning the feature on opening night.

Younger Johnson takes first victory

Devin Johnson led all 25 laps in the feature last week to win his second career feature at the track.

Starting on the outside pole, Johnson blasted away from the field using the lower side of the track. Five laps in, a caution bunched the field. On the restart, he inched away again, but this time former track champion and his uncle, Jim Johnson, was hot on his trail.

It would be on lap 15 when the excitement happened for Devin Johnson as he caught slower traffic. Just as he caught the first car, the slower car slid side ways and when Devin Johnson hit the brakes to avoid the car, his own car flipped sideways.

The caution came out and officials gave Devin Johnson his spot back at the front of the field. On the restart, Jim Johnson settled back in behind Devin Johnson and for several laps, the older Johnson waited for an opening.

On lap 19, the older Johnson saw Devin move up the track a little in turns three and four and he saw a chance.

The two got together several times coming out of turn four, but the younger Johnson grabbed the steering wheel and kept the lead.

Jim Johnson made several more runs at Devin but he was not able to get the grip he needed.

Devin Johnson took the win, Jim Johnson was second. Cedar Rapids' Zach Zentner watched the battle and stuck his nose in for second but took home third.

Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton finished fourth and Ben Sukup of Norfolk placed fifth.

Devin Johnson captured his second feature win of his career.

Top, Zach Zentner (22z) finished third in the feature, as (below) Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) took home fourth.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) won the first A feature as he led all 12 laps.

Meyer continues winning

Starting on the pole position, defending track champion Ramsey Meyer of Pierce picked up where he left off last year – the winner's circle.

Meyer led from start to finish and was challenged late in the race by Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk.

Tanner Uehling of Norfolk started on the outside pole and finished second in the feature.

Parker Vollbrecht of Stanton captured third, as Jeremy Shell of Columbus was fourth.

Rounding out the top 5 was Jule Haller of Norfolk.

Mielke wins three-wide battle to the finish line

Lance Mielke had cars all over his bumper, but the Norfolk driver never wavered from his line to pick up his first career Hobby Stock feature at the track.

Mielke was the track champion in the Sport Compact back in 2016 and was third in points last season in the Hobby Stocks.

Mielke started last week from the outside pole position and was quickly leading with Nate DeSive of Verdigre banging at this door.

Several cautions later, Mielke was still leading with DeSive stuck on the high side going nowhere, so Hal Hernandez of Columbus decided he would challenge for the lead.

Lap after lap, Hernandez tried high, then tried low, then back to the high side. Each time Hernandez could have taken the leader out, but he remained patient.

His patience cost him when he tried high and DeSive, who had raced back to the front, drove under him for the pass.

DeSive managed to get by Hernandez as then took the white flag. DeSive ran down Mielke and in the final corner managed to get alongside.

The two lost momentum as they banged off each other to the finish line. Mielke edged out DeSive by a couple of feet for the win.

Hernandez slipped back into the picture and took third by a half-a-car length.

Jim Kimmel of Norfolk cruised through in fourth and Lee Kracht of Scribner rounded out the top 5.

Lance Mielke (7) captured his first Hobby Stock feature win at the track.

Robbie Thome (1T) took the SportMod opening feature win, as David Johnson (97) finished fourth and Joey Haase (2) placed second.

Thome takes first victory

With 11 starts at the track, Robbie Thome's 12th visit took him to his first top 5 and first victory.

The Spalding driver did not race last season at the track, but he will remember his return this season.

Thome stuck his car along the inside of the track and slowly inched his way to the front. He started on the inside of the second row and slipped into second by the first lap.

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk started on the outside pole and used the high line to break-away from the field in the early part of the race, until a caution on lap six bunched the field.

On the restart, Langenberg went back up top and Thome stayed near the infield. Langenberg pulled a slight lead over Thome, who was under pressure from Joey Haase of Norfolk.

As the high side went away, Thome slowly chewed into the lead. By lap 11, Thome was out front pacing the field.

By this time, the leaders had caught slower traffic. Thome's line was clear, but Langenberg had to deal with lapped traffic on the high side.

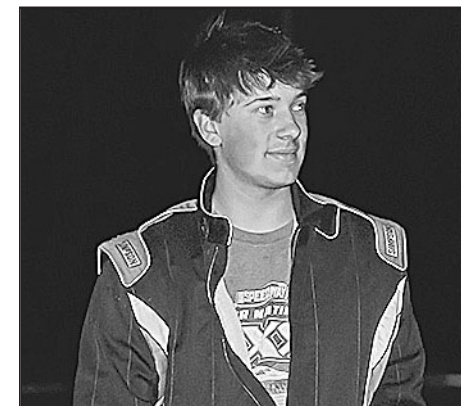

Haase used this and took second on lap 14. Haase could get to the rear bumper of the leader but was unable to make the pass.

Thome took the win, Haase was second and Langenberg crossed third. David Johnson of Monroe finished fourth and rounding out the top 5 was Cameron Meyer of Pierce.

Damon Richards (67) captured his first feature at the track last week.

Richards victorious

David City's Damon Richards grabbed the lead eight laps from the end and paced the field to the checkered flag for his first feature win at the track.

Doug Adamy of Columbus led the first four laps, before Pierce's Ron Pettitt slipped by on the inside. Pettitt led three laps before Richards used the high side to grab the lead.

Richards started on the outside of the second row and slipped into the fourth position. Six laps into the feature, a caution for debris bunched the field and Richards remained fourth.

On the restart, Richards got beside Adamy for third and another caution came out.

Richards again used the restart and challenged Pettitt for the lead. By lap nine Richards was out front.

Richards moved out to a two-car length lead and maintain it to the checkered flag. Adamy slipped back to third during the middle of the race, however, came back after the final caution to pass Pettitt for second.

Adamy could not close the gap on the leader and settled for second. Pettitt was challenged by Neligh's Jason Wilkinson for third following the final caution, but he managed to keep Wilkinson behind him.

Pettitt finished third. Wilkinson took fourth and son, Kyle, rounded out the top 5.

Damon Richards (67) celebrates after winning his first feature.

Doug Adamy (93) took second in the feature after leading the first four laps.

Shawn Primrose (1) goes to the inside of Ron Pettitt (12) during their heat race. Pettitt later took third place in the feature after leading three laps.

Jason Wilkinson (5) follows son Kyle Wilkinson (525) in their heat race. Jason placed fourth in the feature, as Kyle rounded out the top 5.

TeJay Mielke (77) and Tiffany Bittner (95B) spin during their heat race.

John Hadcock (45) gets into the air after hitting a tractor tire bordering the track.
