Zach Zentner (22z) won his second career feature leading the final six laps.

Zentner returns to winning ways

For Eric Vanosdall of Norfolk and Jim Johnson of Plainview, a late caution was not what they wanted to see.

For Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids, the caution was what he needed to pick up his first feature win of the season.

Vanosdall lead 18 of the first 19 laps with Johnson right on his bumper waiting for an opening to make the pass for the lead.

However, when the field was bunched up for the final seven laps following the yellow flag, Zentner found himself going from third to first in two laps and leading the final six laps for the victory.

It was Zentner's second career win at the track in the Late Model division. He is also the only driver to finish in the top 5 all four nights this season.

Vanosdall went onto finish second by several car lengths to the winner. It was Vanosdall's first top 5 of the season.

Ben Sukup of Norfolk made a late race pass on Johnson to take third place. Johnson rolled in behind Sukup for fourth.

Chase Osborne of Norfolk rounded out the top 5 at fifth for his first top 5.

Chase Osborne (14) grabbed a fifth place finish in the feature.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) leads a group out of turn four in his heat race. He later won his fifth feature of the season.

Bo Koenig (3B) led one lap in the feature last week before dropping out of the race.

Left, Mark Benedict (79) races in his heat race. He posted a top 5 in the feature finishing fifth.

Meyer takes No. five

It came down to a battle for second in the Sport Compact division as Ramsey Meyer of Pierce won his fifth straight feature this season.

Meyer passed both Bo Koenig of Pilger and Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk on the second lap. Once out front he went on to stretch his lead to nearly a half a lap.

In the battle for second was Pospisil, Tanner Uehling of Norfolk and Parker Vollbrecht of Stanton.

Pospisil ran second the entire time holding off Uehling first. Vollbrecht then challenged Uehling for third. With two laps remaining Vollbrecht cleared Uehling and as the cars took the checkered flag, Vollbrecht was alongside Pospisil.

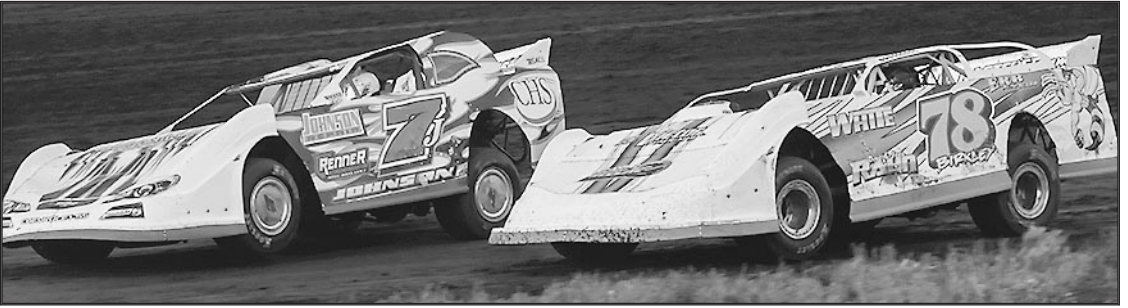

It was Pospisil's third runner-up finish, as well as Vollbrecht's third third-place finish.

Fourth went to Uehling who has not been out of the top 4 this season.

Mark Benedict of Norfolk rounded out the top 5. His second top 5 of the season.

Eric Haase (45) won his heat race before winning his first career feature at the track.

Haase takes feature win

Norfolk's Eric Haase has led 64 laps in the four years at the Off Road Speedway but none of them have been the final lap.

Last week Haase led the final lap to pick up his first career win at the track.

Haase came up one position short the previous week, finishing second to Austin Svoboda of David City.

Last week, the 15-lap feature went without a caution. Haase started on the outside of the third row and quickly moved into the fourth position. With all the front runners running higher on the track, Haase hugged the tires on the inside and slowly marched to the front.

By lap five, Haase was pacing the field and on his way to the victory. It was his second top 5 of the season.

Robbie Thome of Spalding and Tyler Afrank of Norfolk battled a few laps for the second position before Thome settled in to take the runner-up finish. Thome managed to close the gap to Haase, but still came up a couple car lengths short.

Afrank took home third for his first top 5 finish this season. Fourth went to Wes Hochstein of Randolph, who started the furthest back in the field for the front runners. It was his second top 5.

Rounding out the top 5 was Joey Haase of Norfolk. It was his third top 5.

Tyler Afrank (11A) exits turn four in his heat race. Afrank later finished third in the feature.

Hernandez took the checkered flag first in his heat race and the feature.

Hernandez victorious

Sal Hernandez has raced 12 times over two seasons at the track and in those 12 nights he has posted eight top 3 finishes.

Two of those top 3s have been victories including the victory last week. The Columbus driver has nine top 5s.

Leading the final 11 laps, he found the way to the front from his 12th place starting position.

After two laps he was running seventh, two more laps he was fighting for the second position. One lap later, he was leading the field.

Three more cautions slowed the field, but after each restart, Hernandez pulled away.

On the final restart with three laps remaining, Cameron

Wilkinson of Neligh looked to steal a win. Wilkinson, who had won the three previous nights made several attempts but could not get the grip he needed on exit.

Hernandez won, and Wilkinson was second. It was Wilkinson's fourth top 2 for the season.

Kaleb Jasperson of Pierce, who led one lap, finished third. It Jasperson's best finish at the track.

Fourth went to Lance Mielke, his third top 5 of the season. Rounding out the top 5 was Mark Arduser of Battle Creek. It was his first top 5 this season.

Kaleb Jasperson (4x) finished third in the feature.

Tiffany Bittner (95B) led the final three laps in the feature to win her first Stock Car career feature at the track, last week.

Doug Adamy led the first 10 laps and finished third in the feature.

Steven Sanderford (7) won the first of three heat races.

Austin Brauner (10A) led a couple laps and finished second in the feature.

Bittner tops the field

Before the field could finish one lap, Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk was involved in two incidents at the start of the feature last week. But it did not stop her from winning her first Stock Car Division feature. Bittner started in the Hobby Stock division in the four years at Off Road Speedway, where she has six wins. She ran SportMods along with her Hobby Stock car for a couple years and last season, she ran three cars (Late Model, SportMod and Stock Car) at various times through the 2017 season. She had no wins. So far this season, she has entered in the Stock Car division and in the four nights she has run she has finished in the top 5 twice. In last weeks feature, Bittner had the car in front of her get sideways. She stopped but the car behind her did not, sending her through the in-field mud. The race was restarted and before the they finished the first lap again, a car in front of her spun out causing cars to wreck including her. Because the caution was thrown after the leaders completed the first lap, Bittner, who was stopped on the track at one point, fell back to 10th. Doug Adamy of Columbus led the first 10 laps in the feature before Austin Brauner of Platte Center stuck his nose out front for a couple laps. While Brauner was passing Adamy, Bittner was side-by-side with Brauner. Brauner led two laps, but Bittner had the inside line working and passed both Adamy and Brauner to lead the final three laps for the win. Brauner was second and Adamy finished third. Shawn Primrose placed fourth and Damon Richards took home fifth.

Shawn Primrose posted a third top 5 finishing fourth in the feature.

Damon Richards (67) took a fifth place finish last week.
