Colby Langenberg (1J) won his first feature of the season and his fifth career feature victory at the track.

Langenberg takes first victory of season

Three caution flags in the first six laps of the feature kept the field bunched long enough for Colby Langenberg to pick off the competition to win his first feature of the season.

Langenberg started 10th in the 16-car field and was ninth after the first caution. Three laps later the second caution was thrown and Langenberg was seventh.

On the final restart, the Norfolk driver was running fifth, but by the time they had completed a lap, he was battling for third.

Two more laps and he was side-by-side with the leader Wes Hochstein of Randolph.

By lap 10, he was pacing the field.

TJ Wallingford of Bellwood led the first five laps before Troy Bruns of Wayne led the next one.

Hochstein stuck his nose out front to lead the next three. Langenberg jumped ahead of Hochstein and pulled away from the field to win by a straightaway.

Hochstein and Joey Haase of Norfolk battled for second with Hochstein taking the runner-up position. Haase was third.

Bruns crossed fourth and Wallingford rounded out the top 5.

Wes Hochstein (21B) finished second in the feature, his third top 5 of the season.

Jason Wilkinson (5) took his second win of the season and his sixth top 5.

Second victory for Wilkinson

For the first several laps of the feature, the top eight cars were only separated by a few car lengths and flying under the radar was Jason Wilkinson, who snuck by the field to jump out front in seven laps.

The Neligh driver picked up his second win of the season holding off a late charge by Chad Bruns of Wayne.

Mike Kramer of Columbus led the first two laps before Justin Addison of Norfolk grabbed the lead. Addison pulled a slight advantage on the field. However, once Wilkinson moved into second he was able to close in on Addison.

The two drivers went side-by-side for several laps before

Wilkinson had the lead. As those two battled, Bruns caught them and started working on Addison once Wilkinson got by.

A caution bunched the field and gave Bruns a chance to challenge for the lead, but Wilkinson kept his car tight to the inside of the track, keeping the door closed for Bruns to slip in.

Wilkinson took the win, Bruns was second as Addison placed third. Kyle Wilkinson slipped in fourth and Austin Brauner of Platte Center rounded out the top 5.

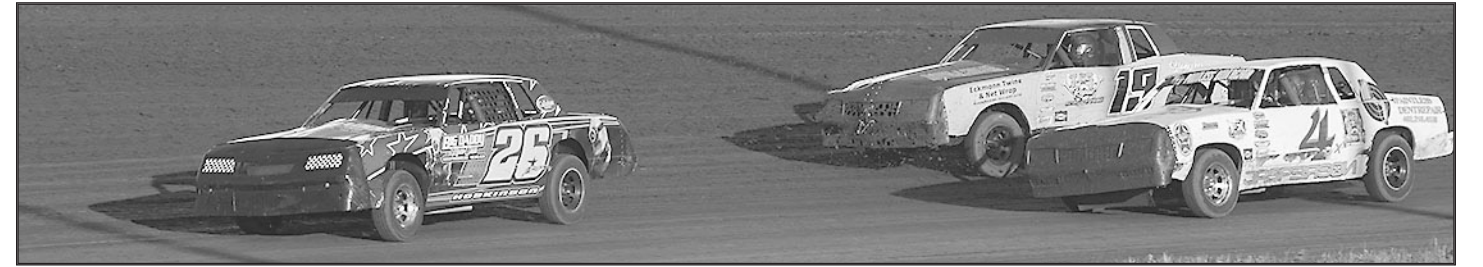

Chad Bruns (11) finished second in the feature, a second time this season. Bruns has four top 5s.

Cameron Wilkinson (52) won his fourth feature of the second leading the the final four laps.

Wilkinson captures fourth feature win

Five cautions plagued the Hobby Stocks feature, as the longest green flag period was three laps.

Coming out on top through the 12-lap race was Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh. His fourth win of the season.

Justin Morton of Howells and Nate DeSive each led laps before a red flag was thrown for Trent Johnson of Dwight, who ended up on the front stretch wall.

On the restart, the top two-point leaders Sal Hernandez of Columbus and Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh, started working for the lead.

Hernandez and Wilkinson were side-by-side for two laps until Hernandez had a tire go flat causing the fourth caution.

On the final restart with three laps remaining, Wilkinson was out front and DeSive and Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk running behind him.

Wilkinson managed to pull away as DeSive and Hoskinson got into a battle for second.

Wilkinson won by half-a-straightaway for his fourth win of the season and his fifth career at the track.

DeSive clipped Hoskinson for second. It was DeSive's third second place finish of the season. Hoskinson was third with his fourth top 3 of the season.

Lee Kracht of Scribner took fourth, his second top 5 so far. Rounding out the top 5 was Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk, his first top 5 of the season.

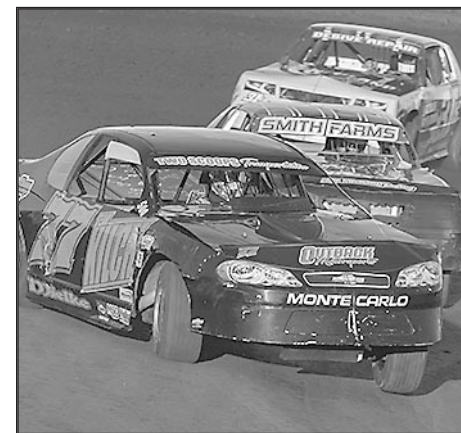

Five cars ran feet apart for nearly the entire heat race. Nate DeSive (31K) had the edge to win his second heat race of the season. He later finished second in the feature. Wyatt Lehman (6) finished fifth in the feature.

Rosenboom claims top prize in Sprint feature

In one of the most competitive sprint car races at the track, Jody Rosenboom of Rock Rapids, IA took home the top prize. It was after the second of three caution periods when Rosenboom and Jack Dover of Springview exchanged the lead eight times in three laps and 12 times after five. Rosenboom finally slipped away when they caught the back of the field and Dover was getting challenged for second by Lee Grosz of Harwood, ND. But a caution with six laps remaining in the 30-lap feature, set up a sprint to the finish.

Jack Dover (53) won his heat race and later finished second in the main event.

Rosenboom and Dover swapped the lead a couple more times before Rosenboom started pulling away. Rosenboom took the win by half-a-straightaway. Dover was second with Grosz third. Jason Martin of Lincoln took the fourth place as Cody Ledger of Omaha rounded out the top 5. The highest finishing local driver was Seth Brahmer of Norfolk at the seventh place. Brant O'Banion of Norfolk was next when he finished 11th.

Jody Rosenboom (14) and Jack Dover (53) exchanged the lead over a dozen times during the 30-lap feature.

Lee Grosz (4J) finished third in the feature.
