Ben Sukup (07) captured his third win of the season.

Sukup wins feature, Johnson claims title

Starting on the pole and leading every lap, Norfolk's Ben Sukup went on to win the Late Model main event, but it was the up and down battle for the track title that kept people on the edge of their seats.

Jim Johnson of Plainview came into the night with a two-point lead over Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids and for Johnson to keep the lead he had to finish ahead or only one position behind Zentner.

Throughout most of the first half of the 25-lap feature, Johnson was several positions behind Zentner.

However, that changed when several quick cautions bunched the field. It was the third restart when Johnson moved in behind Zentner putting himself into position to win the title.

Lap after lap, Johnson held onto Zentner's bumper.

With four laps remaining another caution was thrown. On the restart, Zentner managed to challenge Sukup for the lead a couple laps, as Johnson struggled.

But again, another caution was thrown.

when he spun out before the race could restart. Zentner got his position back.

On the final restart of the night with three laps remaining, Zentner got a good restart, as Johnson continued to fade to the ninth position

Johnson said he saw the title slip away until he saw Zentner spin out yards away from the finish line. Johnson passed the spun-out driver to finish eighth, as Zentner pulled in 10th.

That gave Johnson his second title at that track. His first title came in 2016. Zentner remained second in the points, Sukup finished third in the standings.

As far as the final feature of the season, Sukup took his third win of the season followed by Travis Birkley of Wakefield for second.

It was Birkley's second straight runner-up finish, after he said he had a up and down season.

Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton grabbed third place for his fifth top 5. Robert Osborne of Norfolk crossed the line fourth as Cory Haase of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Travis Birkley (78) took second last week, his second straight week at that position.

Shannon Pospisil (00) and Ramsey Meyer (21R) battle for the lead in the feature. Meyer took his 11th win of the season and Pospisil took third.

Meyer wins feature, title

Ramsey Meyer was back to doing what he does – winning.

The Pierce driver had nine straight wins and for the most part won by large margins.

In the last three weeks, however, he was beat twice and barely edged out Parker Vollbrecht of Stanton for a win.

Meyer was back in form last week and won by half-a-straightaway.

Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk, who beat Meyer twice this season, led the first two laps, before Meyer jumped out front.

Meyer took the victory as Pospisil crossed the line second for the fourth time this season.

Vollbrecht placed third, which was his seventh time this season. He also has four runner-ups and his worse finish was fourth, twice.

Tanner Uehling of Norfolk took home fourth for the fifth time this season.

Rounding out the top 5 was Mark Benedict of Norfolk.

With the 11th victory, Meyer won the championship for the third time in four years. Meyer has titles in 2015, 2017 and now 2018.

Lance Mielke of Norfolk won the title in 2016.

Colby Langenberg (1J) competes with Tim Swartz (22) and Eric Haase (45) in their heat race. Langenberg won his third win of the season. The most wins in the division.

Langenberg wins race, Joey Haase takes title

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk led the final 4 laps to pick up his third win of the season last week, as Joey Haase of Norfolk took the title finishing third.

Michael Wolfe of Hartington led the first 14 laps and had pulled away from the field, until the cautions started coming out.

Langenberg jumped out front on the second of four cautions.

In the title hunt, Haase had a four-point lead over Cameron Meyer of Pierce. Haase ran in the front of Meyer for most of the race as they worked their way through the field.

Meyer passed Haase for second with four laps remaining. Meyer looked to pass Langenberg for the win on the final lap but came up a car-length short.

Meyer finished second in the feature, as Haase finished third, enough to win the title by three points.

Robbie Thome of Spalding placed fourth and rounding out the top 5 was Eric Haase of Norfolk.

Above, Cameron Meyer (21) did what he could in the feature and title hunt as he finished second in both. Below, Joey Haase (2) was third in the feature which was enough to win the title.

Joe Rosberg (3j) races with Jared Relitz (50) in their heat race. Rosberg later won the feature.

Rosberg first victory, Wilkinson wins title

Joe Rosberg kept his right foot down and turned left last week to win his first feature at the track.

The Norfolk driver led all 15 laps and endured three cautions.

Rosberg started on the inside of the second row and edged out Trent Johnson of Dwight to lead the first lap. After the first caution on lap four, Rosberg checked out at the restart and left the battle for second between Johnson, Kyle Shutt of Atkinson, Gage Koch of Norfolk and Mark Arduser of Battle Creek.

Koch had just cleared the group and moved in to second when the second caution came out, putting him back to fourth.

With six laps remaining, Rosberg took off again on the restart. This time the names changed in the battle for second as Shutt and Arduser battled with Lance Mielke, Wyatt Lehman and Jeremy Hoskinson, all of Norfolk.

By the time second place was sorted out the drivers were taking the white flag, with Mielke second and Lehman third.

Mielke closed the gap on Rosberg, who was struggling out of turn two. Mielke made a last attempt in turn three but could not get the grip he needed on the exit of turn four.

Rosberg took the victory. Mielke was penalized two positions, giving Lehman second and Arduser third. Mielke was fourth and Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk placed fifth.

Shutt was running fourth when he was taken out in the final turn. He finished 10th.

Cameron Wilkinson finished sixth. He had the track title wrapped up and was protecting his car for Boone Nationals.

Above, Wyatt Lehman (6) finished second in the feature last week. Right, Cameron Wilkinson (52) finished sixth in the feature to win the track title.

Ron Pettitt (12) and Shawn Primrose (1) battle for the lead in the feature. Pettitt took his first win of the season, as Primrose took second.

Pettitt takes feature, Wilkinson wins title

Having had a win in each of the three previous years, Ron Pettitt picked up his win on the last points night.

The Pierce driver had three wins in 2016 and one win in each year of 2015 and 2017.

Pettitt outraced his nephew, Norfolk's Shawn Primrose, in the final laps to pick up his first win of the season.

But it was not an easy task.

John Hadcock of Wayne led the first three laps from the bottom of the track. When the top side came in, Fred DeSive of O'Neill jumped out front with Pettitt in tow.

DeSive led eight laps before he had a light bobble in turn one, but Pettitt was ready to pounce, as Primrose was all over Pettitt's bumper.

The final caution came out with five laps to go. Pettitt continued to run out front, but Primrose took advantage of the restart to get the jump on DeSive.

With the high side a lot faster, Primrose tried several times to get inside his uncle, but could not get the run off the corner.

As the two exited turn four to take the checkered flag, Primrose made a last attempt to get inside Pettitt. The two touched. Pettitt crossed first and Primrose was second.

Jason Wilkinson of Neligh took third to grab his second-straight track title. He was four points ahead of two-time track champion Chad Bruns of Wayne, who finished seventh.

Fourth went to Pettitt's son, Tanner Pettitt of Pierce. Rounding out the top 5 was Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk.

Jason Wilkinson (5) took third in the feature which was enough to claim his second straight track title.
