Young Haase takes checkered flag first

Norfolk's Joey Haase did not quite have the best start the second time the 16-car field took the green, but his patience paid off for his first win of the season and his second career win at the track.

Haase inherited the lead when Dylan Pospisil and Colby Langenberg, both of Norfolk, got together battling for the lead and spun out.

Haase, who was nipping at their heels, took over the top spot and win.

Polesitter Tyler Iverson of Albion finished second as he ran in the top 3 for most of the race. Iverson held off Justin Addison of Norfolk in the final laps.

Addison started on the outside of the fourth row and moved into the top 3 by lap 12. He tried to get by Iverson after the seventh and final caution.

Fourth went to Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton. Pospisil recovered and finished fifth.

Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) leads Justin Addison (26J) and Tyler Iverson (98T) through turn four in their heat race. Iverson later took second in the feature, as Addison placed third and Vollbrecht took fourth Dylan Pospisil (04) took fifth in the feature.

Colby Langenberg (1J) won his heat race.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) runs outside of Kyle Shutt (12s) and Shannon Pospisil (00) during their heat race. Meyer won the heat and later won the feature, as Pospisil finished fourth and Shutt was fifth in the feature.

Meyer wins first feature

The Sport Compacts were the only class to go green-white-checked last week as Ramsey Meyer of Pierce took the first win of the season.

Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk led the first lap just before Meyer took the lead.

Meyer held an advantage over the field to win by a half straightaway. Dustin Jackson of O'Neill finished second with Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus taking third.

Pospisil grabbed fourth and Kyle Shutt of Atkinson rounding out the top 5.

Above, Dustin Jackson (22x) cruised to a second place finish in the feature last week. Right, Brooke Fluckiger (2B) edges Tanner Uehling (58T) to win her feature. She later placed third in the feature.

Bo Koenig (3B) takes a ride in his heat race after striking a perimeter tire last week.

Austin Brauner (10A) won both his heat race and feature.

Brauner victorious

St. Edward's Austin Brauner was the only driver in any class last week to lead every lap.

Brauner started on the pole and had little to worry about. The caution flag flown twice in the 15 laps, but on each restart Brauner pulled away.

It was his first win at the track in eight starts.

Second went to Jay Poessnecker of North

Bend. Poessnecker battle with Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh until Poessnecker took over second for good on lap eight.

Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk also got by Wilkinson with five laps remaining to take third. Wilkinson was fourth and Brent Jochum of Norfolk rounding out the top 5.

Jay Poessnecker (20P) runs the inside of Tracy Buck (28) and Brent Jochum (4J) during their heat race. Poessnecker later took second in the feature. Jochum took fifth in the feature.

Shawn Primrose (1) led the final seven laps to win the feature last week.

Primrose works for win

It was one of the stronger car counts in the Stock Car division and it was one of the tighter races of the night.

Shawn Primrose of Norfolk started on the pole with Columbus' Doug Adamy right behind him.

Primrose led the first lap, before Adamy moved out front. The two ran nose to tail for the next nine laps with Primrose looking to the inside occasionally.

It would be on lap 12 when Primrose got a good run out of two to make the pass for the lead. Adamy tried to come back, but Primrose shut the door.

Adamy tried high and low, but was unable to contend for the lead, as the two caught slower traffic.

Primrose took the win for his fifth career feature win at the track. Adamy finished second.

Dean Wilkinson of Oakdale placed third and Jason Wilkinson of Neligh finished fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Ron Pettitt of Norfolk.

Dean Wilkinson (52) cruised to a third place finish in the feature.

Ron Pettitt (12) raced to a fifth place finish in the feature.

Doug Adamy (93) goes to the inside of Jason Wilkinson (525) in their heat race. Adamy later finished second in the feature, as Wilkinson placed fourth.

Chase Osborne (14) led 21 laps in the feature pick up the victory last week, his fourth career win at the track.

Young Osborne takes opening night win

There were some proud dads and even granddads last Saturday as the next generation took to the stage in the Late Model division.

Chase Osborne of Norfolk picked up the feature win, as he passed his dad, multi-track champion Robert Osborne, for the lead. Robert Osborne started on the pole and led four laps before the younger Osborne made the pass.

The 25-lap race had two cautions and on each restart, Chase Osborne pulled away to eventually win his first feature of the season and his fourth career win at the track.

Chris Johnson of Bloomfield worked his way through the field after starting 10th in the 16-car field. He broke into the top 3 on lap 19 and moved into second with three laps remaining.

He finished second. He too saw his son in the race. Devon Johnson of Bloomfield finished second in the "B" feature to advance to the "A," where he finished 10th.

Ben Sukup of Norfolk took third after starting on the outside of the third row. It would be after the second caution when he broke into the top 3. A lap later he took over the second position, but Chris Johnson got by in the closing laps.

Legend Raymond Haase and his son, Jeff Haase, both former Late Model drivers, watched as the next generation take the track by storm. Youngest son of Jeff Haase, Joey Haase won the SportMods division just before Matt Haase took to the track in his first Late Model appearance.

Matt Haase piloted his late model to a fourth-place finish, after running as high second.

The older of the two brothers started on the inside of the third row and was running third after 11 laps. He challenged Plainview's Jim Johnson for second after both restarts, but fell back to fourth on the final stretch to the finish.

Jim Johnson ran second for most of the first half of the race, but fell back after the final caution to take home fifth.
