Robert Osborne (35) won his first feature at the track last week.

Osborne outruns Osborne

Norfolk's Robert Osborne won his first race at Off Road Speedway.

Osborne is the 2015 track champion, however he never crossed the line first.

Leading the final 21 laps, Osborne grabbed the lead after completing the fourth lap. A couple laps after moving out front, Osborne watched as his son, Chase Osborne of Norfolk, got to the inside of him to make the pass for the lead.

However, a caution came out and the older Osborne regained the lead. This time for good.

The low part of the track was the quickest and smoothest way around and Osborne hugged the inside the rest of the way.

Seven cautions slowed the field and after the final one on lap 16, Osborne slowly left the field behind.

Doug Tomka of Stanton led the first lap before Cory Haase of Norfolk did a slide job to lead the next lap. Haase led three laps before Osborne worked the inside for the lead and took the win by three-car lengths.

Chase Osborne maneuvered through the field and broke into the top 3 on lap five. He challenged his dad on lap nine after the first caution.

Chase Osborne followed his dad to finish second, his second top 5 of the season.

Ben Sukup of Norfolk took home third. He started on the inside of the fourth row and was running third after 14 laps of the 25-lap feature.

Sukup got stuck on the high side after the final restart and could not find the grip to make the pass on Chase Osborne.

He finished third by half-a-straightaway.

Jim Johnson of Plainview took his second top 5 finishing fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Chris Johnson of Bloomfield.

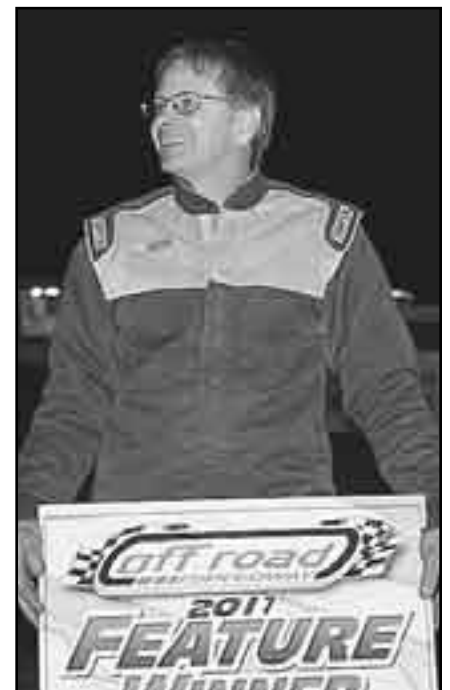

Ben Sukup (07) exits turn four during his heat race. Sukup took his second top 5 of the season later when he finished third in the feature.

Dustin Jackson (22x) tries to keep Ramsey Meyer (21R) behind him during the feature. Meyer won his second feature of the season, as Jackson placed second for the second straight time.

Meyer does it again

It took Pierce's Ramsey Meyer four laps to move out front to win his second feature of the season last week.

Dustin Jackson of O'Neill led the first three laps with Tanner Uehling on his tail.

Meyer started on the outside of the third row and was running third after the second lap.

He passed Uehling for second on lap three and set out for Jackson.

Using the high side Meyer out-cornered Jackson through turns three and four to take the top spot.

The race was caution free and Meyer won by half-a-straightaway. It was his second of the season and his 12th career win at the track.

Jackson was second for his second top 5 of the season. Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk crossed the line third for his second top 5. Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus finished fourth and Parker Vollbrecht of Stanton rounded out the top 5.

First win for Bruns

In an uninterrupted Stock Car division feature, Wayne's Chad Bruns' patience paid off, as the two-time defending champion picked up his first win of the season.

Jason Wilkinson of Neligh used his pole position to move out front. Bruns made a quick challenge for the first couple laps but fell back to run second.

Brun's when made another challenge on lap 10 of the 18-lap feature. But again, Wilkinson fought back and maintained the lead.

However, on the final attempt with three laps remaining, Bruns managed to get alongside Wilkinson and for most of the final laps the two drivers were side-by-side.

Brun's finished the pass to take the white then the checkered flag. It was his first win of the season and his 11th win at the track.

After Bruns got by, Wilkinson then had to hold off Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk on the final lap.

Wilkinson was second for his second top 5 of the season. Bittner finished third. Doug Adamy of Columbus captured fourth for his second top 5. Rounding out the top 5 was Kyle Wilkinson of Oakdale.

Austin Brauner (10A) took his second-straight feature win of the season.

Second victory for Brauner

St. Edward's Austin Brauner picked up his second win of the season, as he battled Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk for most of the 18-lap feature.

Hoskinson jumped through the middle of the field and was leading after the first lap with Brauner following him through traffic.

Once out front, the two battled for the lead. Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh stuck his nose into the bid for the lead following the second caution flag on lap six.

Hoskinson led the first nine laps before Brauner got around for the lead. It would be after the third caution when Wilkinson slid by Hoskinson for the second position.

Two laps later the caution came out for Hoskinson with a flat tire.

On the two-lap shoot out, Brauner moved out front as Wilkinson tried high and low, but was unable to find his way around.

It was Brauner second win of the season. Wilkinson followed through at second.

Lee Kracht of Scribner recovered after spinning out the second lap to finish third. He moved into the third spot after Hoskinson's tire went down.

Fourth went to Brent Jochum of Norfolk and Lance Mielke of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Colby Langenberg (1J) led all 20-laps to win his first feature at the track last week.

Colby Langenberg (1J) celebrates after winning the feature.

Langenberg r

There was still a high line to run in the SportMods feature and Norfolk's Colby Langenberg used it to pull away for his first feature win at the track.

Langenberg started on the outside front row and never looked back as he led all 20 laps. He took the win by nearly a straightaway.

The real battle came for the second position. Dylan Pospisil of Norfolk held the spot 16 laps, but had several challenges from Justin Addison of Norfolk.

Addison first attempt was following a caution on lap 10. On the restart, Addison and Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton made it three wide with Pospisil going into turn three, but Pospisil had the line out of turn four to keep the
