Justin Addison (26J) looks to the outside of Jeremy Gnat (38) in their heat race. Addison won the heat race and later won his second feature of the season. Gnat was second in the feature and third in the feature.

Addison does it again

After getting his first win at the track the previous week, Justin Addison rolls back into victory lane.

The Norfolk driver drew the outside pole and led all 18 laps to pick up his second straight win.

The race had two caution periods and after the first one Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton got by Gnat for second.

The second caution came out with four laps remaining. On the restart, Vollbrecht managed to move away from a three-way battle for third.

He took second by a few car lengths.

Following the final caution, Lane Cornwell of Albion, Colby Langenberg of Norfolk and Jeremy Gnat of Battle Creek battled for third.

Cornwell dropped back after suffering a flat tire when he tangled with Langenberg.

Gnat settled into the second position and it was his second top 5 of the season. Langenberg took fourth edging out Joey Haase of Norfolk.

Haase broke his front suspension and was sent to the pits with 11 laps remaining. He drove back on to the track with his left front dangling uncontrollably.

He restarted at the back of the field that had 12 cars remaining. After the final caution came out the young Haase was running ninth.

In the final four laps, he picked off another four drivers to finish fifth.

Colby Langenberg (1J) won his heat race and finished fourth in the feature.

Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) slips by Brandon Poesnecker (52P) during their heat race. Vollbrecht was second in his heat race and later finished second in the feature.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) cruises to the front for his sixth feature win.

Ramsey stays perfect

Pierce's Ramsey Meyer continued his string of wins, taking it to six-straight wins in as many nights.

Starting on the inside of the third row, Meyer slipped to the inside of three other cars in turn one and was just a bumper short of the leading the first lap. Jule Haller of Norfolk was credited for leading the first lap.

But the rest of the race was Meyers'. Dustin Jackson of O'Neill stayed at Meyer's heels, but could not get any closer than a few car lengths.

It was Meyer's sixth win of the season and his 16th career win at the track.

Jackson finished second for the fourth time this season and only trails in the points standings by 10 points.

Third went to Tanner Uehling of Norfolk which was his fourth top 5 of the season.

Kyle Shutt of Atkinson was fourth for his fourth top 5 of the season.

Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus rounded out the top 5. It was her fourth top 5.

Cameron Wilkinson (52) took his first feature win at the track last week.

Cameron Wilkinson takes first victory

Cameron Wilkinson was not going to be left out. The Neligh driver watched his brother Kyle win the previous week and his dad win earlier this season.

Last week Cameron won his first feature at the track.

Wilkinson started on the outside pole and had current points leader Austin Brauner of St. Edward sitting on the pole.

As the race started, Wilkinson managed to keep the high side from Brauner and simply pulled away.

The race had two caution periods and each time, Wilkinson distanced himself from the field and took the win by nearly a half a straightaway.

Two new comers held the next two spots. Sal Hernandez of Columbus finished second and Ryan Fajman of Albion took home third.

Brauner fell to fourth for this sixth top 5 of the season. Rounding out the top 5 was Lance Mielke of Norfolk. His third top 5 so far this season.

Sal Hernandez (04) took second in the feature.

Ryan Fajman (3) leads Lance Mielke (7m) and Austin Brauner (10A) during the feature. On his first appearance at the track, Fajman took third. Brauner took fourth and Mielke was fifth.

Chad Bruns (11) took his second win of the season. His third top 5.

Bruns takes another win

You can't ask for a better draw.

Current points leader Jason Wilkinson drew the pole and after 13 laps of the 15-lap feature, it looked like another win for the Neligh driver.

However, after Wilkinson completed lap 13, the driver pulled to the side with a flat tire.

Now the battle for second turned into a battle for the win.

The battle for the win came down to a green-white-checkered between Wayne's Chad Bruns and Columbus' Doug Adamy.

Bruns, who broke a left rear shock, held the edge over

Adamy. Bruns picked up his second win of the season, the only driver to repeat so far this season. That puts him at 12 career wins at the track.

Adamy tried high and low, but could not gamble too much to protect his position from the third-place car of Ron Pettitt of Pierce.

It was Adamy's fourth top 5 of the season.

Pettitt crossed third for his third top 5. Shawn Primrose of Norfolk grabbed fourth place. His fifth top 5. Kyle Wilkinson of Oakdale backed up his win the previous week with a fifth-place finish.

Chase Osb

The last 13 laps in the Late Model feature went caution free and for race Chase Osborne he went all out.

The Norfolk driver said he did not know how big his lead was in the closing laps and was grabbing as much as he could.

He won by close to half a lap.

Matt Haase of Norfolk led the first 13 laps after starting on the outside front row. Osborne, who started on pole, grabbed the lead just before the second of six cautions were thrown.

In the next seven laps, four caution flags flew. On the final restart, Osborne took off from the field using the cushion to quickly move away from the rest of the field.

In four laps, he had a straightaway advantage. Osborne said he kept his car on the high side until he started lapping cars. On the final lap, he was closing in on lapping the 10th place car.

Travis B

of the feature. Haase led the first five laps before Osborne took over and led the final 20 laps for the feature win.

It was Osborne's second win of the season and his fifth career win at the track.

Wakefield's Travis Birkley took home second after he started on the outside of the second row.

He fell into the third position and then slipped in to the second position on lap seven after the second caution.

Birkley was then able to get to the high side and maintain that position until the fifth restart he fell back to fourth. Luckily another caution came out and he quickly was back in second.

It was his second top 5 of the season.

The third place came down to a battle with Doug Tomka of Stanton and Ben Sukup of Norfolk. Tomka held the position for more than 12 laps. Sukup tried several times to do a slide job, but Tomka would cross over to regain the position.

Finally on lap 19, Sukup took the spot for good. It was his fourth top 5 of the season. Tomka was fourth which was his first top 5 of the season.

Rounding out the top 5 was Haase, his third top 5.

Birkley (78) and Ben Sukup (07) battle in the feature. Birkley took second and Sukup placed third.
