Justin Addison (26J) continues his top 5 streak with second place finish. It was his fourth second place.

Cameron Meyer (21) won the first heat race and later finished third in the feature.

Haase wins second feature

Waiting for the door to open, Norfolk's Justin Addison never got his chance to pass for the lead, as Joey Haase of Norfolk won his second feature of the season.

Cameron Meyer of Pierce led the first eight laps before Haase dove into turn three and made the pass for the lead, a lap before the second of three cautions came out.

On the restart, Addison quickly moved into second behind leader Haase. Haase ran a consistent line, as Addison tried several times to make a pass.

The final caution came out with two laps remaining, but even after a single file restart, Addison could not find a way around Haase.

Haase picked up his second win of the season and his third career win at the track.

Addison had to settle for second, for the fourth time this season. He has finished in the top 5 all eight races this season.

Meyer made an attempt at Addison in the final laps but could not get a good run off the high side. It was Meyer's first top 5 in the three nights he has been at the track.

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk took fourth for his seventh top 5 of the season.

Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton overcame a first lap incident to finish fifth. Starting at the tail of the 11-car field, he worked his way to seventh by the ninth lap and was running fifth on the final restart.

Shannon Pospisil (00) and Ramsey Meyer (21R) race their heat race. Meyer won the heat race and later won his seventh feature of the season. Pospisil finished fifth.

Seven straight for Meyer

Another quick win for Ramsey Meyer.

The Pierce driver watched Charles Hall of Norfolk led the first lap, but nudged between two cars to led the second lap. Once out front, he left the field behind until a caution bunched the field.

On the restart, Meyer jumped out to a healthy lead, but Tanner Uehling of Norfolk was not going to let him cruise. Uehling ran down Meyer and got to his rear bumper at the checkered flag.

It was Meyer's eighth straight win. Uehling took home second for his sixth top 5.

Dustin Jackson of O'Neill took third for his eighth top 5, while Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus fourth, her sixth top 5.

Shannon Pospisil rounded out the top 5 after a rough start to the feature. It was his seventh top 5.

Wilkinsons go 1-2-4

It was the Wilkinsons night at the track as three of the four top spots were filled with the Neligh-Oakdale drivers.

Dean Wilkinson led the first four laps before his son Jason Wilkinson got by after the only caution period.

As Dean Wilkinson watched his son pull away, he had to deal with his grandson Kyle Wilkinson for several laps.

Kyle made the pass on lap nine. Kyle could not run down his dad, Jason. Jason took his third win of the season and his seventh top 5. It also was his sixth career win at the track.

Kyle finished second for his fourth top 5.

Norfolk's Shawn Primrose broke up the Wilkinson trio. Primrose passed Dean Wilkinson with four laps left to take his seventh top 5.

Dean Wilkinson finished fourth for his third top 5. Rounding out the top 5 was Fred DeSive of O'Neill for his first top 5 of the season.

Fred DeSive (31K) took his first top 5 of the season. He finished fifth in the feature.

Shawn Primrose (1) tallied his seventh top 5 in seven tries in the feature.

Dean Wilkinson (52) won his second heat race of the season. He later finished fourth in the feature.

Jim Kimmel (17K) leads Brent Jochum (4J) in their heat race. Kimmel won the heat race. Jochum was second.

Wyatt Lehman (6) won the third heat race. He later finished seventh in the feature.

Jeremy Hoskinson (26) won his second feature of the season and his seventh at the track.

Two wins for Hoskinson

Having to pass Neligh's Tracy Buck once is tough enough, but Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk did it twice to pick up his second feature win of the season.

Buck, who led nine laps, caught a break after Hoskinson made the first pass for the lead on lap seven, but because the lap was not completed Buck got his spot out front back.

Back under green, Buck got a good restart, Hoskinson tried to run high but the grip was not there. Hoskinson then moved to the low side and quickly got back to Buck's bumper.

Hoskinson dove to the inside of Buck on lap 10 to move out front. Once out front Hoskinson opened a small gap, as Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh passed Buck.

Wilkinson tried to pass Hoskinson a few laps later, however, Hoskinson managed to pull away and take the win by half-a-straightaway.

Wilkinson crossed the line second. Sal Hernandez of Columbus got by Buck with four laps left to finish third. It was his second top 5 and his second night at the track.

After a few wild nights, including a night on his lid, Buck took his first top 5 – finishing fourth.

Rounding out the top 5 was Austin Brauner of St. Edward to continue his perfect top 5 run for the season.

Cameron Wilkinson (52) took his sixth top 5 finishing second in the feature.

Sal Hernandez (04) keeps ahead of Tracy Buck in their heat race. Hernandez finished third in the feature, as Buck took fourth.

Chris Johnson (73) flies into turn one in his heat race. He won the feature.

Johnson grabs first vic

It took passing a slower car to show a faster path around the track, as Chris Johnson picked up his first win of the season.

The Bloomfield driver ran the high side for most of the 25-lap feature and was slowly getting caught by the second and third place cars, who were running the low side.

When Johnson caught lapped traffic, he was forced to go low and ended up staying on the low side and started extending his lead.

However, a caution came out after Johnson took the white flag and set up a two-lap shoot out.

The only problem was Johnson was a bit slow.

On the final restart, Johnson went low and pulled away for the win.

As Johnson ran out front, he had a battle for second between the second and third place cars for most of the race.

Robert Osborne of Norfolk ran the first three laps of the feature on the high side, dropping to second. Chase Osborne of Norfolk was unable to get by his dad, Robert, and they came to a lapped car. Robert went to go around on the high side, but Chase just opened the door for Chase.

As the slow car drifted up in the race, Robert, Chase passed both his son was the lapped car to take over second. For the next several laps, Chase closed the gap until Johnson slipped down to the low side.

Chase finished second for his fifth top five.

On the final restart, Robert Osborne had a bad restart and both Ben Sukup of Norfolk and Bob Milander of Pierce slipped by for third and fourth, respectively.

It was Sukup's fifth top 5. It was Milander's first top 5 in the four nights he has raced at the track.

Robert Osborne took fifth for his third top 5.
