Jim Johnson (36) leads Chase Osborne in their heat race. Johnson won the heat race and finished third in the feature.

Jensen captures second feature

He entered turn one in third place, but on exit of turn two, Chris Johnson was pacing the field to his second feature win of the season.

The Bloomfield driver started on the outside of the second row and settled into the third position for the first three laps.

When he entered turn one for the fourth time, Johnson drove to the inside of the second-place car of Travis Birkley and made the pass.

While Johnson was moving into the second spot, the leader, Norfolk's Cory Haase, had pushed up the track giving Johnson a shot to the front of the pack.

The race was slowed two times, but Johnson pulled away at each restart to pick up his second win of the season and his fifth at the track. It was his sixth top 5 of the season. He has 21 career top 5s for the most in the class.

Johnson led 22 laps in this win giving him 44 for the season and 103 career laps led at the track, the third most for the class.

Haase slipped back to fourth at one point, but recovered to move back into the top 3 on lap 15. He took advantage of a restart to take second on lap 21. He finished second for his second top 5 of the season.

Jim Johnson of Plainview finished third, as Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids captured fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Robert Osborne of Norfolk.

Cory Haase (02) led three laps and finished second in the feature.

Parker Vollbrecht (12x) won his first feature at the track last week, leading all 12 laps.

Vollbrecht victorious

The biggest question in the Sport Compact division was who was going to tame the beast.

Pierce driver Ramsey Meyer has rolled onto the track nine times and walked away with nine wins, but last week he had to settle for second behind Parker Vollbrecht.

The Stanton driver led all 12 laps which including the green-white-checked finish that lined Meyer on his bumper.

Parker won by a car length, as Meyer battled Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus for second.

Meyer finished second by half-a-car-length. It was Fluckiger's eight top 5 of the season. Kyle Shutt of Atkinson grabbed fourth place and Dustin Jackson O'Neill rounded out the top 5.

Jay Poesnecker (20P) picked up his first win at the track. He also win his heat race.

DQ gives Poesnecker his first victory at track

Jay Poesnecker of Ames picked up his first win at the track after the winner failed post-race inspection.

Norfolk's Jeremy Hoskinson was disqualified after leading the final seven laps.

Poesnecker stuck his car into the top 3 by lap five, but slipped back in the pack until lap nine when he moved back into third. A lap later he was running second.

After a caution came out with four laps remaining, Poesnecker made a run for the lead on the restart. Hoskinson and Poesnecker were side-by-side to take the white flag, but Poesnecker nearly spun out when he tried to avoid hitting Hoskinson in turn one.

Poesnecker recovered and did not lose any positions which eventually gave him the win when Hoskinson was disqualified.

It was Poesnecker's fourth visit to the track. He has two top 5s.

Jim Kimmel of Norfolk led the first nine laps. Kimmel held off Norfolk's Lance Mielke for several laps, but on the final restart of the night, Kimmel fell back.

Second went to Mielke and third was given to Lee Kracht of Scribner. Fourth went to Brent Jochum of Norfolk after winning the "B" feature.

Rounding out the top 5 was Austin Brauner of St. Edward.

Lee Kracht (10K) placed third in the feature.

Left, Lance Mielke (7) and Jim Kimmel (17K) race in the feature. Mielke finished second.

Gage Koch and TeJay Mielke race together.

Brent Jochum (4J) brushes the wall as he took the checkered flag in his heat race. Jochum later finished fourth in the feature. He won the B feature.

Jason Wilkinson (5) races Ryan Rohde (95) in their heat race. Wilkinson won his fifth feature of the season.

Wilkinson's fourth straight

Patently waiting for an opening, Jason Wilkinson worked his way to the front to win his fourth straight feature and his fifth of the year at the track.

The Neligh driver watched his dad, Dean Wilkinson of Oakdale, and Chad Bruns of Wayne battle for the lead for five laps, before the inside opened and he passed both drivers.

Once out front, Jason Wilkinson pulled slowly away from the field. A late caution bunched the field for a green-white-checked finish. Jason Wilkinson won by a car length in the two-lap shoot out.

Shawn Primrose of Norfolk slipped into the second position after 10 laps. On the final restart, he made a run for the top spot, but nearly lost the second spot, as Doug Adamy of Columbus pulled alongside at the finish line.

Primrose was second for his third runner-up finish. Adamy finished third for his fifth top 5.

Ron Pettitt of Pierce finished fourth and Tanner Pettitt of Pierce rounded out the top 5.

Above, Allen Zimmerman (90) race Right, Tanner Pettitt (12T) took a fifth place finish for his first top 5 of the season.

Doug Adamy (93) and Shawn Primrose battle for the lead in the heat race. Primrose won the heat and finished second in the feature; Adamy was third.

Prauner returns to winner's circle

Two cautions were thrown before the first lap was completed and another three cautions in the next nine laps before the SportMod division finished the last nine laps caution free.

Kyle Prauner of Norfolk made his way back to the winner's circle after missing the first eight weeks.

Prauner started on the inside of the third row. He was running third after three laps and second after five.

Three laps after the final restart on lap 9, Prauner moved ahead of Justin Addison of Norfolk to take the lead. He won by a straightaway for his first win of the season and his 21st career win at the track.

Prauner led seven laps, eight for the season and has racked up 214 career laps at the track.

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk made a last lap pass to take second for his ninth top 5 of the season.

Addison led eight laps, but settled for third. It was his ninth top 5 of the season and his 18th-career top 5.

Joey Haase of Norfolk placed fourth and Cameron Meyer of Pierce rounded out the top 5.
