Hernandez, Hoskinson take feature victories

Columbus' Sal Hernandez led seven laps on Aug. 12 before the night was called and with half the laps completed the race was called giving Hernandez his first win at the track.

Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk won last week's feature, giving him his third victory of the season.

Hernandez used the high line to go from his 10th place starting position fourth in one lap. He continued the momentum and as the drivers completed the second lap, Hernandez was three-wide for the lead with Jim Kimmel and Colby Kaspar of Norfolk.

Hernandez and Kimmel went side-by-side down the back stretch, but Hernandez pulled away on the exit of turn four to take the top spot.

Seven laps later a caution was thrown and then red came out ending the feature.

Hernandez took the win for his third top 5 (at the time) of the season. Kaspar took his career best finish at second. Hoskinson finished third with Kimmel taking fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh.

In last week's feature, Hoskinson followed Jay Poessnecker of Ames on the first laps, however, he would lead the next 14 laps to take his third win of the season.

Hernandez took home second to give him four top 5s in six starts at the track. Points leader Austin Brauner of St. Edward finished third, making the pass for the position with four laps remaining.

Wilkinson took another top 5 finishing fourth. Poessnecker fell back to fifth for his third top 5 in five starts at the track.

Sal Hernandez (04) won the rain-shortened feature from Aug. 12.

Brent Jochum (4J) takes on a large tire during his heat race a couple of weeks ago.
