Johnson's first victory; Osborne's first title

With only three points separating the top two drivers in the Late Model class, all attention, however, went to Devin Johnson of Bloomfield, who picked up his first career feature win at the track.

Johnson, who is the son of veteran Chris Johnson, led 24 of the 25-lap feature.

Johnson had to hold off his uncle, defending track champion Jim Johnson of Plainview, for most of the second half of the race.

As the two Johnsons took the white flag, the older Johnson managed to get out front of the younger one, but Devin came back on the backstretch.

Jim made one last effort into three but washed up the track and Devin had a clean shot to the checkered flag. It was Devin's second top 5 of the season.

Jim finished second just ahead of Travis Birkley of Wakefield, who had earlier won the Stock Car division feature.

As this battle went on, points leader Chase Osborne of Norfolk and Chris Johnson were battling for the track title.

Johnson held the points lead until his car started drifting back. Osborne passed Johnson to secure his first title at the track. Osborne, who is the son of the 2015 track champion, Robert Osborne of Norfolk, finished sixth as Chris Johnson placed seventh.

Above, next generation drivers, Devin Johnson (7J) won his first career feature at the track last week, as Chase Osborne (14) won his first track title.

Below, Devin Johnson celebrates after taking the feature victory.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) won his 13th feature for the season to win his second track championship.

Meyer dominates to the end

Losing only to Stanton's Parker Vollbrecht, Ramsey Meyer of Pierce won his 13th feature of the season and his second track title in three years.

Last week's feature had five different drivers lead the race with Meyer leading the final four.

Kyle Shutt of Atkinson led

two laps, Mark Benedict paced one lap and Tanner Uehling led one.

Dustin Jackson of O'Neill was out front for four laps, while Meyer led four.

But it was not an easy win for Meyer. Uehling was looking to take the final victory of the season and pushed Meyer all the way to the checkered flag.

Meyer was declared the winner after a photo finish.

Third went to Dustin Jackson of O'Neill who watched the finish just off the leaders' back bumper. Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk placed fourth as Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus rounded out the top 5.

Justin Addison (26J) had 13 top 5s through the season to help him claim his first track title.

Prauner wins feature; Addison takes title

Norfolk's Kyle Prauner won his third feature of the season in the SportMod division.

Justin Addison of Norfolk locked up the track title, when second in the points, Colby Langenberg of Norfolk, did not race.

Addison had a 10-point lead going into the night and if he had a DNF, Langenberg had an outside chance of stealing the title.

However, Addison did not have a bad night and raced his way to a second-place finish behind Prauner.

Prauner took over the top spot on lap five from Jeremy Gnat of Battle Creek.

Addison broke into the top 3 following the final caution on lap eight of the 15-lap feature. One lap later, he was running second to Prauner.

Addison closed the gap to half-a-straightaway.

It was Prauner's fifth top 5 at the track this season in his sixth appearance. Addison took second for his 13th top 5.

Third went to Eric Haase of Norfolk, who finished the season strong.

Karl Brewer of Vermillion, SD took fourth on his first night at the track. Norfolk's Joey Haase used a different car to round out the top 5.

Kyle Prauner (5k) talks with announcer Brian Larson after Prauner won his third feature.

Kyle Prauner (5K) races with Jeremy Gnat (38) in the feature. Prauner won his third feature of the season.

Austin Brauner (10A) won the first two feature of the season which helped give him the track title. He tied with Cameron Wilkinson, however, Brauner had the most feature win to give him the title.

DeSive wins fourth feature; Brauner takes track title

With Nate DeSive well on his way to winning his fourth feature of the season, Austin Brauner of St. Edward watched as his title hopes were fading through the first part of last week's feature.

Brauner won the first two features of the season and led the points from week one. He racked up another eight top 5s, but bad luck nearly ended his hopes of a title.

The previous week a flat tire during a caution period with two laps remaining cut his lead to two points going into the final night.

All Brauner had to do last week was keep on the bumper of the second-place car of Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh. However, on lap five, Brauner lost four positions when a car spun out in front of him.

Wilkinson had worked his way to third while Brauner was running eighth. Wilkinson then faded back before the final caution came out.

On the restart, Wilkinson was fourth and Brauner was sixth.

For the final seven laps, Brauner managed to keep only one car between him and Wilkinson as they worked their way to the front.

As DeSive took the win, Wilkinson placed second and Brauner finished fourth. That put the points tied between the two drivers. The tie break was feature wins, which Brauner had two and Wilkinson had only one.

Brauner was crowned the champion.

Jay Poesnecker of Ames took third as Lance Mielke of Norfolk recovered from an earlier spin to take fifth.

Jason Wilkinson (5) used Dean Wilkinson's car to score enough points to win the Stock Car title.

Birkley victorious in feature; Wilkinson claims track title

Despite a point scoring issue from the first night of the season, Jason Wilkinson of Neligh still had enough points going into championship night to take his first title at the track.

The issue was who was in which car the first night. Once the scoring was corrected, Kyle Wilkinson of Neligh jumped to second in the points going into the final points race.

The feature race last week proved one of the exciting ones of the night, as the lead in the final laps were two-wide and even sometimes three-wide.

Travis Birkley of Wakefield picked up his second win of the season, as he led the final two laps.

John Bruegman of Elkhorn led 12 of the 15-lap feature and Doug Adamy of Columbus led one.

On the final restart with eight laps remaining, Bruegman controlled the field until Adamy stuck his nose out front, but as those two battled Birkley worked his way up on the inside.

On lap 11, the three drivers were side-by-side. Birkley backed out, but came back a couple laps later to take the lead on lap 14.

Birkley took the win, Bruegman hung on to second with Adamy settling for third.

While the three-up front were battling, Shawn Primrose of Norfolk was hooked on their bumpers but nothing opened up and he took fourth. Kyle Wilkinson of Neligh rounded out the top 5.
