Jim Johnson (36) won the Late Model feature last week. He led the final 23 laps.

Johnson dominates Late Model field

Plainview's Jim Johnson took full advantage of his feature starting position and walked away from the field to win his first feature at Off Road Speedway.

Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids jumped to the early lead from his pole position and had half-straightaway lead when Johnson moved into second around Travis Birkley of Wakefield.

As Zentner ran the middle of the turns, Johnson ran the bottom and slowly closed the gap and by lap eight, Johnson had moved out front.

A debris caution came out a couple laps later to bunch the field.

On the restart, Johnson moved away from the field and on lap 17 he caught the back of the field. Johnson at the time had opened up a straightaway lead on Zentner.

As Johnson picked his way through slower traffic, Zentner managed to maintain the same distance apart.

The feature was increased to 30 laps his season and Johnson led the final 23 and lapped cars up to the eighth position before taking the checkered flag.

Zentner was second. Chase Osborne of Norfolk finished third passing Birkley on lap 23 for the position. Chris Johnson of Bloomfield was fourth and Robert Osborne of Norfolk rounded out the top five.

Prauner captures victory

Defending SportMods track champion caught a break and a caution on lap eight that gave him a second wind and a chance to catch race leader Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton.

Vollbrecht opened up a straightway lead over the field and had the car on cruise when a rash of three cautions kept the field bunched up.

Vollbrecht was leading, Derik Sehi of Neligh was second and Prauner was sitting third. On the third restart on lap 11, Vollbrecht and Prauner were locked in a battle for the lead.

Vollbrecht held off Prauner for a couple laps, before Prauner led the final seven laps.

Prauner took his first win, Vollbrecht was second and Tyler Afrank of Norfolk passed Sehi with three laps remaining for third.

Dylan Pospisil, who brought out the first caution, recovered and finished fourth.

Rounding out the top 5 was Sehi.

Tyler Afrank (11A) makes it three wide with Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) and Colby Langenberg (1J) in their heat race. Afrank later finished third in the main feature.

Chase Osborne (14) gets to the inside of Travis Birkley (78) in the feature. Osborne later finished third and Birkley placed sixth.

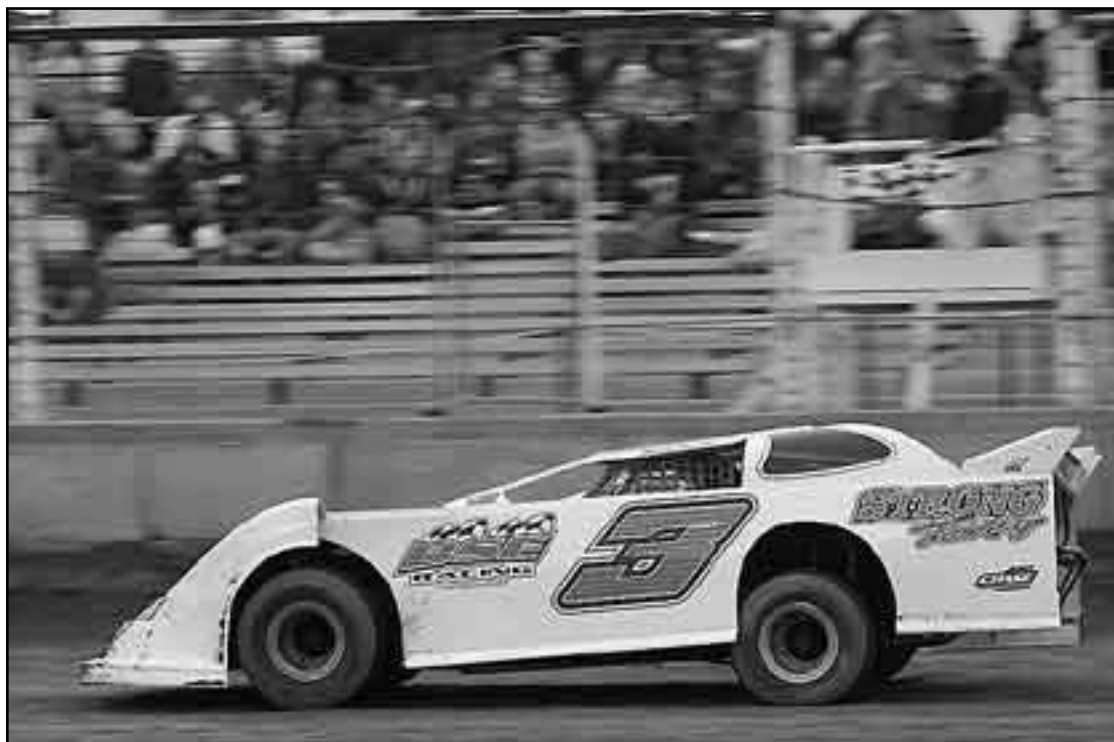

Robert Osborne (35) won his heat race and later finished with a top 5 in the feature.

Eric Haase (20) won the "B" feature to advance to the main event.

Bob Milander (77B) and Eric Vanosdall (9) exit turn four during their heat race. Vanosdall finished seventh and Milander placed 11th.

Doug Tomka (3) won his heat race and later finished 14th in the feature.

Jeremy Hoskinson (26) leads Brent Jochum (4J) in the feature. Hoskinson picked up the first Hobby Stock feature win of the season.

Hoskinson blasts away from field for first win

From his starting position on the pole, Jeremy Hoskinson would lead all 15 laps to win the first Hobby Stock feature of the season.

Hoskinson ran smooth and consistent laps and endured four cautions, including two green-white-checkered.

On each restart, Hoskinson slowly pulled away from second as the runner-up position went side-by-side for most of the race.

Hoskinson won by two-car lengths over defending track champion TeJay Mielke, who went from fourth to second as three cars went three wide to take the white flag.

Brent Jochum of Norfolk, who ran in the top 3 for most of the race, finished third. Jim Kimmel of Norfolk placed fourth and Wes Hochstein of Randolph placed fifth.

Jim Kimmel (17K) tries to hold off TeJay Mielke (77) in the feature race.

Meyer continues winning ways

Who knows how the finish of the Sport Compacts would have gone if the red flag had not come out when Luke Jackson of South Sioux City flipped his car.

During the first five laps, Tanner Uehling of Norfolk, Pierce's Ramsey Meyer and Columbus' Brooke Fluckiger banged bumpers and fenders battling for the lead.

Uehling led the first five laps, before Meyer and Fluckiger darted to the lead. On lap seven the red was thrown.

On the restart, Meyer checked out, winning by half a straightaway. Fluckiger was second and Colby Kaspar of Norfolk took third passing Uehling with three laps left.

Ramsey Meyer (21r) and Brooke Fluckiger (2B) battle in the feature race. Meyer pulled off the win as Fluckiger finished second.

Kandie Smidt hooks a rut in turn three and flips her stock car. She then lands on Luke Jackson's car before bringing out the red flag.

the season as Jochum placed third.
