James Roebuck (75x) won both his heat race and feature last week.

Roebuck captures first track victory

Four cautions plagued the SportMod feature, but the top two positions remained the same for the final 19 laps of the 20-lap feature.

James Roebuck of Genoa took the lead on the second lap and pulled away after each restart to pick up his first track feature win.

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk led the first lap, but settled into second for the rest of the race. Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton got by Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk after the first caution was thrown. Vollbrecht is the only driver to have two top 5s after the second night.

Cameron Meyer of Pierce finished fourth and Derek Fox of Stanton rounded out the top 5.

Winning heat races were Roebuck, Langenberg and Meyer.

Colby Langenberg (11) took his first top 5 of the season finishing second in the feature. He earlier won his heat race.

Lance Mielke (7m) won his heat race and later finished third in the feature for his second top 5.

Devon Davidson (4d) took third in the heat race and finished sixth in the feature.

Randy Nelson (18) took a top 5 finish placing fifth in the feature.

Shannon Pospisil (00) picked up his first win at the track last week.

Pospisil breaks through for his first victory

Norfolk's Shannon Pospisil said he would have not won if the field was not stopped half way through the Sport Compact feature, last week.

Pospisil took his first win at the track when he managed to get by Mark Benedict of Norfolk with three laps left.

Benedict led from the drop of the green and was on cruise control and keeping Pospisil in his dust.

However, Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus brought out the red flag when she flipped her car in turn three.

That gave Pospisil new life as he managed to work the inside of Benedict. Finally with three laps remaining, Pospisil work his way by to pick up the win.

Benedict took home his career high finish at second. Lance Mielke got by Tanner Uehling, both of Norfolk, with three laps remaining to finish third. Uehling was fourth and Randy Nelson of Albion rounded out the top 5.

Chad Bruns (11) won the Stock Cars opening night feature.

Bruns capitalizes on leader's flat tire

Norfolk's Shawn Primrose needed his tire to last a couple more laps to win the first Stock Cars division's first feature of the season.

However, Chad Bruns of Wayne got the first victory passing Primrose to take the white flag.

At the start, Primrose worked his way around his dad, Dale Primrose of Norfolk on the first lap, but once he got by and to the bottom of track, Shawn Primrose pulled away from the field.

By lap 10 of the 16-lap feature, he had increased his lead to a straightaway and caught slower traffic on lap 14.

That is when the right rear decided to lose its air and Primrose had to nurse it around the track. It took Bruns a lap to catch up to a slower Primrose and as Bruns made the pass on Primrose, he took the white flag.

Bruns, the defending champion, then took the checkered flag for the first time this season and his third career win at the track.

The racing was not over for Primrose, as he had to fight off his uncle, Ron Pettitt of Norfolk, out of turn four on the final lap.

Primrose was second, Pettitt was third, as Hans Houfek of Emerson placed fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Jeremy Gibbs of Sioux City.

Ron Pettitt (12) tries to get to the inside of John Hadcock (45) during their feature. Hadcock won the heat, as Pettitt placed third in the feature.

Left, Hans Houfek (59x) took fourth in the feature. Right, Jeremy Gibbs (42) placed fifth.

Brent Jochum (4J) won his heat race and later finished seventh in the feature.

Wes Hochstein (21B) and Matt Baker (69U) exit turn two in their heat race.

Derek Husted (01) hot laps before the night began. He finished eighth in the feature.

Dave Riley (56) races inside of Mark Arduser during their heat race.

Tiffany Bittner picked up her first win of the season and her third at the track.

Bittner victorious again

Norfolk's Tiffany Bittner overcame a bad first night, to win the Hobby Stocks feature last week.

Bittner started on the outside pole alongside Tracy Buck of Neligh.

Buck led the first five laps, keeping his car smooth through the corners. Bittner worked on trying to get to the inside of Buck, but could not get alongside.

On lap five, Buck finally washed up the track and Bittner zipped inside to take the lead. By this time TeJay Mielke of Norfolk had worked his way to third from his seventh place starting position.

On lap nine, Mielke made the pass for second and sent sail after Bittner.

Mielke caught Bittner on lap 11, but slower traffic helped Bittner keep him at bay.

On lap 13 a caution slowed the field, but on the final restart Bittner held off Mielke to take her first win of the season and her third track win.

Mielke tried high and low to get around Bittner, however had to settle for second, his second top 5 of the season.

Verdigre's Nate DeSive watched the leaders battle it out and was ready to pounce if the two would have tangled. DeSive crossed the line third, as Buck took a top 5 at fourth place.

Rounding out the top 5 was Jim Kimmel of Norfolk. He is only one of two drivers with two top 5s to start the season.

Tracy Buck (28) placed fourth in the feature.

TeJay Mielke (77) finished second in the feature for his second top 5. Nate DeSive (31k) placed third in the feature.

Stanton driver handles dry-slick track

Doug Tomka (3) took home his first feature at the track last week leading the final 16 laps.

Tomka takes first track feature victory

The quickest way around the track last week was the bottom line and once Doug Tomka stuck his nose under Norfolk's Junior Coover he took the lead and 16 laps later, he took the win.

The Stanton driver picked up his first feature victory at the track with his highest finish last season at second.

Tomka started on the outside of the front row for the feature and had Coover to his inside. Coover led the first nine laps, as Tomka got stuck on the high side.

Once he moved to the bottom, Tomka waited for the chance to get inside Coover, which came nine laps into the 25-lap feature.

Tomka was never challenged again, even after a caution came out after lap 18.

Tomka held off Bob Milander of Pierce on the restart and maintained a steady distance until Milander searched for a different way around.

Tomka took the win by half-a-car length as Milander took home second just ahead of Robert Osborne of Norfolk, who was third.

Osborne got around Coover on lap 20 and could only run down Milander at the end for his second top 5 of the season.

Jim Johnson of Plainview, who was the previous week's winner, is the only other driver in the class to score a second top 5 finish when placed fourth.

Coover rounded out the top 5 for his best finish at the track.

Bob Milander (77B) drives to the inside of Zach Zentner (22z) and Coover later finished second in the feature. Zentner missed the top 5 and placed fourth.

Cory Haase won his heat and later was 12th in the feature.
