Prauner wins again

With a good draw for the main event, Kyle Prauner won his second feature of the season.

The Norfolk driver drew the outside of the second row and by lap three he was pacing the field.

Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk led the first two laps before Prauner grabbed the lead and make it a race for second.

Derek Sehi of Neligh slipped by Bittner first and held the position for seven laps, before Dylan Pospisil of Norfolk maneuvered by on lap 12 of 18.

Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton challenged Pospisil, but then had to protect the position from James Roebuck of Genoa.

Prauner took the win for his 11th career feature win at the track.

Pospisil finished second for his second top 5. Roebuck crossed the line third, but was disqualified after post-race inspection. Vollbrecht was given third, as Troy Bruns of Wayne placed fourth.

Rounding out the top 5 was Bittner for her first career SportMod top 5 at the track.

Kyle Prauner (5K) passes Tiffany Bittner (95) for the lead in the feature. Prauner won his second feature of the season. Bittner took her first top 5.

Troy Bruns (75) took his first top 5 when he finished fourth in the feature.

Ramsey Meyer (21B) tries to get to the inside of Brooke Fluckiger (2B) in their heat race. Meyer later won the feature as Fluckiger took home third.

Meyer victorious for a second time

In similar fashion as the Hobby Stock division, the defending champion drew the pole position for the feature.

And like a champion, Ramsey Meyer drove away from the field in a feature that saw no cautions.

The Pierce driver tussled with lap traffic in the closing laps and still won by half-straightaway. It was his second win of the season and his seventh career track win.

Lance Mielke of Norfolk was second after locking horns with Columbus' Brooke Fluckiger for several laps.

Mielke finally got by on lap seven to take second place for his third top 5 this year.

Fluckiger cruised in third for her second top 5, as Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk grabbed a fourth place finish. His second top 5 of the season.

Rounding out the top 5 was Randy Nelson of Albion. His second top 5 of the season.

Ron Pettitt (12) gets sandwiched between Jeremy Gibbs (42) and John Hadcock (45) during their heat race. Pettitt went on to win the feature as Hadcock was second.

Pettitt runs away from 12-car field

Norfolk's Ron Pettitt had the car to beat last week and no one did as he won his first feature of the season.

Pettitt started on the inside of the fourth row and broke into the top three on the fourth lap.

By lap seven, he had passed Hans Houfek of Emerson for second and three laps later he drove to the inside of John Hadcock of Wayne, who led the first nine laps.

Pettitt was never challenged as he won his second career win at the track.

Hadcock managed to hold off the defending track title holder, Chad Bruns of Wayne to place second. It was his highest career finish at the track.

Bruns finished third, his second top 5 finish.

Fourth went to Greg Taylor of Sioux City and rounding out the top 5 was Ryan Harris of Homer.

TeJay Mielke (77) races with Nate DeSive (31K). Mielke won the feature after finishing second twice.

Mielke finally takes top spot

When you give the defending track champion the pole position to start the feature, there is a good chance they are going to win.

That is what TeJay Mielke did. After a couple of restarts, the second place car had one corner to keep up with him, but after that he was gone.

Mielke won by half-a-straightaway over Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk. It was Mielke's first win of the season and his third top 5. It was also his sixth career track win. It was Hoskinson's second top 5 of the season. Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk was third after getting by Jim Kimmel of Norfolk with two laps remaining. It was her second top 5 of the season.

Kimmel placed fourth for his third top 5 finish of the season. Kimmel and Mielke are the only drivers to have top 5 finishes in each of the first three races of the season for the division.

Rounding out the top 5 was Jared Relitz of Emerson. It was his first of the season.

Chase Osborne (14) holds off Jim Johnson (36) in the feature. Osborne won the feature and Johnson took second.

Osborne, Johnson put on a show

Picking up his first win of the season, Chase Osborne had to outrace Plainview's Jim Johnson in the closing laps.

The Norfolk teenager started on the outside of the fourth row and quickly broke into the top 3 by lap three.

Brad Vogt of Pierce led the first seven laps from his outside front row starting position.

As Osborne picked his way through the field, Vogt had a straightaway lead before the third of six cautions came out, bunching the field.

Vogt was leading, Osborne second and Chad Jensen of Norfolk third.

It took Osborne three laps to make the pass on Vogt, but once he moved past Vogt on the low side, he quickly moved up the track and put his right rear tire on the dirt berm and took off.

In the final 17 laps, three more yellow flags slowed the field, and on the final return it was Osborne and Johnson pacing the field – Osborne up high and Johnson trying to get the bottom to work.

For most of the final nine laps, Johnson stuck his car under Osborne through turns one, two and three, but lost everything on the exit of turn four.

It was Osborne's first win of the season and his third win at the track.

Johnson picked up second for his third top 5 of the season. Jensen finished third for his first top 5 this year. Chris Johnson of Bloomfield placed fourth and Robert Osborne of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.
