Cameron Meyer (21) challenges Kyle Prauner (5K) for the lead. Prauner took the win and Meyer was second.

Prauner grabs fifth win

Three cautions in the first three laps helped Norfolk Kyle Prauner move from his 10th place starting position to the fourth position and eventually he picked up his fifth win of the season.

Jeremy Gnat of Battle Creek led the first four laps, as Cameron Meyer of Pierce was nipping at his heels.

Finally on lap 5, Meyer made the pass, but he led only three laps before Prauner moved out front to lead the final 13 laps.

Meyer did maintain his second place finish for his best finish so far this season.

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk finished third when he passed Gnat on lap 11. It was his fifth top of the season.

Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton had his eighth top 5 when he finished fourth. And rounding out the top 5 was Eric Haase of Norfolk. It was his first top 5.

Eric Haase (20) took home fourth in the feature.

Colby Langenberg (1J) and Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) took third and fourth, respectively.

Fourth win for Bittner

Patently waiting for doors to open, Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk won her fourth feature of the season.

Wes Hochstein of Randolph led the first eight laps, as Bittner waited for holes to open in front of her.

By lap six, she was running second and by lap eight she was leading the field.

The race did come down to a green-white-checkered finish. TeJay Mielke and Jeremy Hoskinson, both of Norfolk, got side-by-side for second on the restart and allowed Bittner to pull away.

Hoskinson made an attempt on the final lap in turn three, but was not able to make the car turn.

Bittner took her fourth win of the season and her sixth at the track. Hoskinson was second and Mielke finished third.

Hochstein placed fourth and Austin Brauner of St. Edward rounded out the top 5.

Chad Bruns (11) took the checkered first the feature. It was his third win of the season.

Bruns wins third feature

Wayne's Chad Bruns picked up his third feature win, but he had to hold off Shawn Primrose of Norfolk to do it.

Tanner Pettitt of Pierce led the first five laps, as Bruns worked the middle of the track. But once Bruns got to the bottom he went from fourth to first in a half of a lap.

Once out front, he put cruise on and settled back. However, he got a wake up call when Primrose stuck his nose on the inside and passed him for the lead.

Bruns got back up on the wheel and made the pass back after a caution and managed to outrace Primrose in the final four laps for the win.

Primrose took second. Pettitt crossed the line third for his second third-place finish of the season.

Jason Hames of Crofton finished fourth and Ron Pettitt of Pierce rounded out the top 5.

Zach Zentner (22z) leads a group in his heat race. He later won his first Late Model feature at the track.

Zentner takes first Late Model victory

It looked like it was going to come down to a shootout with Norfolk's Ben Sukup and Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids in the feature.

But a pop under Sukup's hood ended his chance; as Zentner went on to win his first Late Model feature.

Zentner started on the outside of the fifth row and was working his way through the field, as Sukup was pacing the field.

Zentner got by Bob Milander of Pierce on lap 12 for the third spot and got by Doug Tomka of Stanton a few laps later for the second position. By this time, Sukup had built up a half-lap lead.

However after completing 16 laps a caution came out and bunched the field.

On the restart, Sukup stayed on the bottom as Zentner ran the top side. After completing one lap, Sukup started slowing and after a pop came from under the hood on the backstretch, Sukup's night was done.

Milander was the only car to challenge Zentner in the final seven laps, but Zentner pulled a slight advantage and took the win.

Milander was second and Tomka was third.

Fourth went to Chris Johnson of Bloomfield and Chase Osborne of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Chris Johnson (7J) took his fifth top 5 finish, placing fourth in the feature.

Doug Tomka (3) brakes hard to avoid Junior Coover (10), who nearly spun out in their heat race. Tomka later finished third in the feature for his second top 5.
