Jim Johnson (36) finished fifth in the feature which was enough to win his first track title.

Johnson wins title; Sukup takes feature

While it was a close battle for the feature win last week, it was a closer battle in the title race.

Norfolk's Ben Sukup won his third feature of the season battling with Chris Johnson of Bloomfield in the closing laps.

A late caution broke a side-by-side battle between the two drivers and on the restart, Sukup pulled away for the win. Brad Vogt of Pierce finished third and Chad Jensen of Norfolk placed fourth.

A bigger battle came in the hunt for the track championship as this season the cars were inverted, putting the top-point getters in the back of the field.

Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids went into the night with a two-point lead over Jim Johnson of Plainview and a four-point lead over Travis Birkley of Wakefield and Robert Osborne of Norfolk.

Division rookie Zentner's title bid ended when his motor shutoff and he was pushed off the track after a mechanical failure on lap six of the 25-lap race.

With Zentner out, the attention went to Birkley who at the time had a three-point lead on Johnson.

Eleven more laps went by as Johnson tried to get by Birkley. Johnson pushed the issue and out-braked Birkley into turn one on lap 17.

Johnson

The two touched as Johnson got by and Birkley had to slow up. That allowed Cory Dumpert of York to get by.

A half lap later, Birkley tried to get back under Johnson, but Dumpert also tried for the same real estate. They touched tires and Birkley's car spun out.

Birkley was sent to the rear of the field, giving Johnson a clear path.

Johnson picked up his first title at the track, topping Osborne by five points. Johnson also took titles in Albion and Columbus this season.

Birkley was fourth, eight points back, and Zentner fell to fourth in the points.

Ben Sukup (07) won his fourth feature of the season, the most in the class.

Lance Mielke (7m) won his first track title with 15 top 5 finishes.

Mielke captures title

With only eight points separating first and second, points leader Lance Mielke just needed to have a good finish to capture his first track title.

As soon as the green flag dropped, the Norfolk driver slipped in behind Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk, who was second in the points.

As Dustin Jackson of O'Neill dashed out front, Pospisil was trying to quickly move through the field and put cars between him and Mielke.

It took until lap eight for Pospisil to move into second, but Mielke had followed him through the field. Pospisil came up a few laps short as he closed to the bumper of Jackson on the final lap.

It was Jackson's fifth victory of the season. Pospisil took second, but Mielke managed a fourth place finish to win the track title.

Mielke had three wins and 15 out of 16 top 5s. He finished fourth in the standings last season with four victories and 10 top 5s.

Mielke

Pospisil was second in the points with two victories and 12 top 5s. He was third last season with no wins and 11 top 5s.

Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus was third in the points with one win and 12 top 5s. Jackson was fourth in the standings with five wins, the most in the class. He had 11 top 5s.

The 2015 point standings runner-up, Tanner Uehling of Norfolk took fifth in the standings with this season. He had four top 5s.

Kyle Prauner (5k) took his 11th feature win of the season and also claimed the track title.

Prauner dominates class

Six cautions plagued the SportMods feature last week, but when it was over and done, Kyle Prauner of Norfolk picked up his 11th win of the season and the track title.

Eric Haase of Norfolk led the first three laps, as Prauner climbed from his sixth place starting position to second in three laps.

A caution came out and bunched the field. On the restart, Prauner drove under Haase and picked up the lead.

He won the 15-lap race by half-a-straightway. Haase followed through for second.

Third went to Dylan Pospisil of Norfolk and Derek Sehi of Neligh placed fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Troy Bruns of Wayne.

Prauner picked up his second track title with 20 career track feature wins and 28 top 5 finishes in 30 feature starts.

He finished 58 points ahead of the second-place car of Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton. Vollbrecht was second going into last week, but did not attend the championship night.

Vollbrecht had 10 top 5s this season and has 18 career top 5s. In the last two seasons, he finished second in the points.

Third in points went to Colby Langenberg of Norfolk, who also did not attend the final point night. Langenberg finished with nine top 5s. The previous season he finished fourth in the points.

Derek Fox of Stanton was fourth in the standings and Derek Sehi of Neligh moved into the top 5 when Cameron Meyer of Pierce did not attend championship night.

Prauner

Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) took his second second-place finish in the track title hunt.

TeJay Mielke (77) took second in the feature to claim his second straight track title.

Mielke's second title

It was a barn burner in the Hobby Stock class, as Norfolk's TeJay Mielke was looking for his second track title and had to fend off Jeremy Hoskinson to get it.

Norfolk's Hoskinson took the feature win, but Mielke had to keep Hoskinson in his sights to take the title.

Mielke went into the night with a fourth-point lead over Hoskinson. Hoskinson knew the best thing was to win and see how it ended up.

Hoskinson got a break when he was spun out on lap three. His car escaped any problems and got his fourth place spot back.

In the next five laps, Hoskinson looked high and low for holes in the field and it became more urgent as Mielke pulled alongside to pass him.

Hoskinson battled three-wide for the lead just before a caution came out. On the restart he battled with Gage Koch of Norfolk who had lead from the drop of the green flag.

After two laps alongside Koch, Hoskinson moved out front to pace the field, only to have Mielke follow through.

Mielke

Three laps later Hoskinson took the victory and Mielke took second to secure his second track title.

Mielke has eight career feature wins at the track and 24 top 5s in the first two seasons.

Hoskinson has finished second in the standings both seasons. He has five wins and 22 top 5s in the first two seasons of the track.

Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk took third in the standings with four victories, the most in the class. She also had 11 top 5s.

Fourth in the standings went to Jim Kimmel of Norfolk. He had seven top 5s, but did not drive into the winner's circle.

With one win, Koch was fifth in the standings. He had four top 5s.

Jeremy Hoskinson (26) won his third feature last week and finished second in the title race.

Chad Bruns (11) won his eighth feature last week as well as his second track title.

Bruns claims title

Chad Bruns had nothing to worry about in the title hunt, but he wanted another feature win to cap off his season at the track.

The Wayne native not only won the title, but won his eighth feature of the season.

Tanner Pettitt of Pierce led the first two laps before John Hadcock of Wayne took over in a race that saw no cautions.

Hadcock pulled a slight advantage over the field when the next four positions behind him battled side-by-side.

Bruns picked his way through and was in the second position and in the clear by lap nine. Three laps later, Bruns was on Hadcock's bumper and in another two circuits Bruns was out front to take the win.

Ron Pettitt of Pierce edged out Hadcock at the checkered to take second. Hadcock placed third. Shawn Primrose of Norfolk finished fourth and Neil Bruns of Wayne took home fifth.

The title was the second one for Bruns at the track. He won last season with two wins and 13 top 5s. This season he had eight wins and 14 top 5s.

Bruns

Ron Pettitt finished second to Bruns in the standings, having three wins and 12 top 5s.

Hadcock did not get a win and had 10 top 5s to take third in the standings.

Primrose, who had seven second-place finishes this season was fourth in the standings, after missing three nights of racing.

Emerson's Hans Houfek rounded out the fifth place with a win and four top 5s.
