Sixth one for Prauner

If you are a driver with a fast car and starting in the back, you need cautions to help your progress to the front.

Norfolk's Kyle Prauner needed a caution after Eric Haase of Norfolk created a huge lead in the feature.

Ten laps into the 18-lap feature the caution came out.

Haase led from the drop of the green and had pulled a straightaway lead, as Prauner was working his way through from his 12th place starting position.

Prauner has just got in to the third position when a caution came out, bunching the field.

On the restart, Haase led two more laps before Prauner got by to lead lap 13.

Prauner led the final six laps through two more cautions to win his six feature of the season.

Haase held on to the second position, holding off points leader Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton. It was Haase's first top 5.

Vollbrecht placed third for his fifth top 5 finish this season. Fourth went to Dean Wilkinson of Oakdale for his third top 5.

Rounding out the top 5 was Matt Haase of Norfolk. It was his fifth top 5.

Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) captured his fifth top 5 and continues to lead the points standing.

Above, Dean Wilkinson (52) took fourth place last week in the feature. Left, Eric Haase (20) won his heat race and finished second in the feature after leading 12 laps.

Tanner Uehling (58T) won his heat race and later finished fourth in the feature.

Above, Shannon Pospisil (00) suffered a flat tire in his heat race. Pospisil took fifth in the feature. Below, Bristol Arneson (51B) finished sixth in the feature.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) won his second feature and had his seventh top 5.

Meyer grabs second victory

He only led the field for a quarter-lap, but it was enough to win his second feature of the season.

Pierce driver Ramsey Meyer battled with Lance Mielke of Norfolk in a three-lap shoot out following the only caution period of the race.

On the restart, Mielke could only manage to hold off Meyer for a couple laps, as Meyer drove into the inside going down the backstretch on the white-flag lap. Meyer edged ahead of Mielke through three and four to pick up the win.

It was Meyer's seventh top 5. Mielke would lead nine laps and finish second for his fifth top 5.

Max Anderson of Norfolk, who led the first two laps, took home third for his second top 5.

Tanner Uehling of Norfolk placed fourth for his third top 5.

Rounding out the top 5 was Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk. It was his sixth top 5.

Jason Wilkinson (52) won his third feature to move him into a tie for second in the points standings.

Wilkinson takes third victory

Starting on the outside of the front row, Neligh's Jason Wilkinson took his third victory of the season leading all 18 laps.

Wilkinson had pulled a straight lead before the first caution came. Bunching the field back up gave Chad Brunson of Wayne the first shot at getting by Wilkinson.

However, Kyle Prauner of Norfolk distracted Brunson when he pulled alongside and made the pass for second.

Prauner managed to get to Wilkinson's bumper, but Brunson came back and challenged Prauner for the second position.

The two apparently touched and each lost air in a rear tire, Prauner a left rear tire and Brunson a right rear tire. Ultimately, the caution was thrown setting up a three lap shoot out.

Wilkinson was leading; Ron Pettitt of Norfolk was running second and Erie, Colorado driver Gregg Gutt was third.

Pettitt bobbled in the first turn which allowed Gutt to pull alongside and eventually make the pass for second.

But as the two went side-by-side for the position, Wilkinson pulled away for the victory. Gutt closed the gap but came up a couple car lengths short. Pettitt took third. Brunson recovered to finish fourth and Travis Birkley of Wakefield finished fifth.

Above, Chad Brunson (11) finished fourth in the feature as twin car, Travis Birkley (11B), below, finished fifth.

Ron Pettitt (12) and Gregg Gutt (620) battled in their heat race and again in the feature. Gutt finished second in the feature and Pettitt was third.

Jeremy Hoskinson (26) won his first feature at the track last week.

Hoskinson victorious

A battle for second allowed Norfolk's Jeremy Hoskinson to pull far enough away to pick up his first win at the track.

Hoskinson started on the outside of the third row and broke into the top 3 by lap four, picking his way through the field.

On the second of five restarts, Hoskinson got alongside race leader Nate DeSive of Verdigre. For two laps, the two went side-by-side, until DeSive slowed after smoke bellowed from his car.

It was on the final restart with six laps remaining, when Tiffany Bittner and Brent Jochum, both of Norfolk, went door-handle-to-door-handle allowing Hoskinson to get away.

It would be the last two laps when Bittner cleared Jochum and went after Hoskinson. Bittner closed to his bumper, but needed a couple more laps to work the pass.

Hoskinson took the win, Bittner finished second and Jochum placed third.

Jim Kimmel of Norfolk took home fourth and Jared Relitz of Emerson had his first top 5 finish.

Brent Jochum (4J) took third in the feature. He also took over the points lead.

Chase Osborne (14) leads Chris Johnson (7J) into turn three. Osborne won his first feature at the track, as Johnson finished fourth.

Osborne takes victory for first time at track

Chase Osborne may have been knocked around the first few laps of the feature, but that was fine, as the Norfolk driver got faster towards the end of the race to pickup his first feature win at the track. Mike Babcock of Creighton paced the field for the first six laps when Doug Tomka of Stanton got by and led for 11 laps.

For Osborne, he started on the inside of the third row and was running in the top 3 by the first lap. Two laps later, he got caught up in someone else's spin. That was the last time the caution came out, leaving the last 22 laps caution free. Osborne battled with Tomka following the restart, however, Tomka was much faster and pulled away from Osborne by more than half a straightaway. Slowly, Osborne reeled Tomka back in and with eight laps left Osborne made the pass for the lead. Like his dad, Robert Osborne, Chase Osborne pulled away from the field and won by nearly a straightaway. It was his third top 5 of the season.

Mike Babcock (83) finished third in the feature.

Tomka held off Babcock for second as it was Tomka's second top 5. Babcock took his first top 5 at third place. Chris Johnson of Bloomfield crossed the finish line fourth, as Cory Haase of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Right, Cory Haase (02) grabbed his second top 5 when he finished fifth last week.

Left, Doug Tomka (3) leads a group out of turn four. Tomka placed second in the feature after leading 11 laps.
