Eric Vanosdall (9) picked up his first victory last week

Rain slows the racing, but can't stop the drivers

By Randy Pospishil

Setting up a car to race on a dirt track is "a guessing game" according to Ron Pettitt, who won the IMCA Stock Car feature at the Off Road Speedway on Saturday night.

Pettitt, of Norfolk, took advantage of his front row starting position and basically sped away from the field to lead each and every lap for his first win at the new track, leaving the other drivers--primarily Norfolk's Kyle Prauner, Cedar Rapids' Zach Zeitner, and Neligh's Jason Wilkinson--to fight it out for second place.

"We had an awesome night; we had a good car. The track played into our favor because it was a fast track," Pettitt said. "We just had the right set-up. It's a guessing game, and we picked it perfectly. It was heavy, so when it's heavy you can usually drive into the corner harder than you would a dry, slick track."

Ultimately, Zeitner was able to hold on to second place, while Prauner was able to pass Wilkinson in turn three of the final lap to finish third.

The proper set-up was also a concern for Late Model winner Eric Vanosdall of Winside, whose convincing win was his first of the season--and his sixth top-five finish in nine tries so far.

"The car held up really well; I was really concerned about the set-up in the beginning, but it turned out working okay," Vanosdall said. "I think we could have gone up on the top and done what we needed to do, but I think it was smoother down on the bottom and didn't dance the car around like it did on the top, so we picked the bottom and stayed there."

Norfolk racers Chase Osborne and Chad Jensen finished second and third, respectively.

Prauner, who made some last-minute adjustments to his SportMod car after experiencing the track during his third-place Stock Car finish, returned to Victory Lane in the IMCA SportMod 'A' feature and achieved a milestone in the process--becoming the third driver to break the 100-win barrier in the IMCA's Northern SportMod Division--with his 100th win Friday night in Albion and his 101st win Saturday night at the Off Road Speedway.

This victory was complicated by consecutive 'green-white-checked flag' caution restarts that were needed to complete the race.

"I've got 129 total wins between all the classes I've driven in all my years, but 101 of those have come in the SportMod class," Prauner said. "It's a little surreal; we're third on the all-time list. I'm sure the leader is close to 130 wins by now; he's still racing. The guy in second is at 106, but he's racing A-Mods now, so we should surpass him, hopefully, by the end of the year."

"I think we all missed the set-up tonight," he said. "I guess I didn't miss it as bad as the rest of them. Running that (Stock Car) helps; we missed the set-up with that. I could gauge that car was too loose, so we made some drastic changes to this one between races."

Dudley Schroeder, Jr. of Armor, South Dakota, finished second. Dean Wilkinson, of Oakdale, edged Norfolk's Matt Haase for third place.

In the IMCA Hobby Stock division, Neligh's Kyle Wilkinson earned the checkered flag ahead of Mark Arduser of Battle Creek and TeJay Mielke of Norfolk, who finished in second and third place, respectively.

Sioux City driver Drew Johnson established a significant lead after passing Max Anderson of Norfolk midway through the 12-lap IMCA Sport Compact 'A' feature, then survived a caution and restart late in the race that closed the field, for his second Off Road Speedway win.

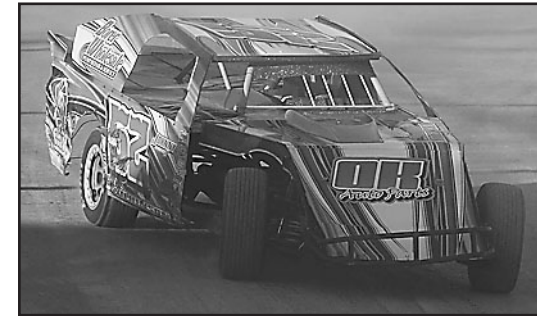

Anderson held on to second place, while Pierce's Ramsey Meyer took third.

Left, Chase Osborne (14) grabs his first top 5 after taking second last week. Right, Dudley Schroeder, Jr. (23JR) also grabbed his a second place finish.

Kyle Prauner (5K) captured his third win of the season. Matt Haase (81) placed fourth.

Dean Wilkinson (52) grabbed his second top 5 when he finished third last week.

Chad Jensen (73) finished third last week for his second top 5 of the season.

Travis Birkley (78) placed fourth in the feature.
