A full house for track opener

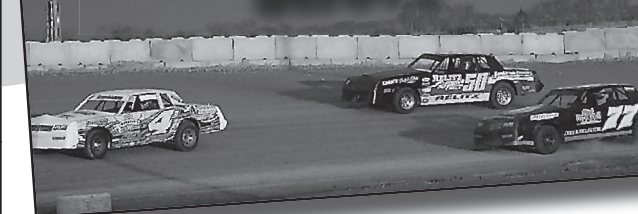

Johnson takes track's first feature win

Wilkinson takes Stock Car victory

Weather cuts racing action short

First night's action sets the stage

Off Road Speedway may have had an abbreviated night for weather, but fans got a good look at what was to come this season.

Tonight, the Late Models and SportMods will run double features, as the Hobby Stock division will finish their feature that started last week.

In last week's Hobby Stock feature, Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk led all eight laps before a tire, that lines the inside of the track, was kicked up onto the track and brought out the yellow flag. The red flag was then brought out as the weather arrived.

Bittner started on the outside of the front row and quickly pulled away from the field and had a straightaway lead when the cars were sent to the pits.

Jim Johnson (36) out ran the field in his Late Model heat race to take the win.

Chris Johnson (7J) won the second heat race.

Chad Jensen (73) won the first heat race.

Cameron Meyer (21) won the first SportMod heat race.

Justin Bertschinger (90) was third in his heat race and placed seventh in the feature.

Chad Bruns (11) takes the checkered flag in his heat race. He later finished fourth in the feature.

Jason Wilkinson (52) led the final nine laps in the feature to take the victory last week.

Wilkinson victorious

With lightning flashing in the background, Neligh's Jason Wilkinson started his season winning the Stock Car main event.

Ron Pettitt and Shawn Primrose, both of Norfolk, drew front row starting positions for the feature. They ran side-by-side for several laps with Wilkinson tagging along behind.

Primrose led the first six laps and pulled a slight advantage when Wilkinson challenged Pettitt for second.

Wilkinson and Pettitt went door handle-to-door handle for four laps before Wilkinson completed the pass.

A half lap later, Wilkinson got a run out of turn four and edged to the inside of Primrose going into turn one. Primrose tried the crossover move, but Wilkinson shut the door going into turn three.

In the meantime, Norfolk's Kyle Prauner was working his way through the field and by lap seven he passed Pettitt for third.

Three laps later he went to the outside of Primrose to make the pass. Prauner reeled in Wilkinson, but time ran out.

Wilkinson won, Prauner was second and Primrose was third. Pettitt dropped to fifth when Chad Bruns of Wayne made the pass for fourth.

Johnson captures feature victory

Sioux City's Drew Johnson waited for the door to open and when it did, he drove through it to take the first feature win at the newly opened track.

The feature started with two quick cautions, as Tanner Uehling led them to the green each time.

Ramsey Meyer of Pierce got a jump on Uehling on the third restart, as Johnson followed through on the inside.

Meyer led Johnson for the first six laps before Johnson got a good run out of turn four and drove to the inside of Meyer

Johnson completed the pass out of turn two and never looked back to take the win. Meyer finished second.

Aaron Edwardson of Sioux City held off Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk in the final laps. Earlier, Pospisil had made the pass, but a late caution erased the pass.

Pospisil was not able to contend for the third place, as Edwardson took third and Pospisil was fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Colby Kaspar of Norfolk.

Codie Mielke of Norfolk, Pospisil and Johnson each won their heat races.

Colton Haase (45) and Codie Mielke (77) race their heat race. Mielke won the race and later finished eight in the feature.

Right, Ramsey Meyer (21r) led six laps before finishing second place in the feature. He also won his heat race.

Left, Colby Kaspar (39) tries to stay ahead of Tanner Uehling (58T) during their heat race. Kaspar finished fifth in the feature, as Uehling placed sixth.

Shannon Pospisil (00) tries to pass Aaron Edwardson (16E) on the inside during the feature. Edwardson finished third and Pospisil placed fourth.

Kandie Smidt (K2) was injured when her car collided with the wall.
