Robert Osborne (35) holds a four-point lead on Eric Vanosdall (9) going into tonight's championship race.

Eric Vanosdall (9) could take the first Late Model track title if he finishes five places ahead of Robert Osborne (35).

Kyle Prauner (5K) can capture the SportMod track title.

Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) led the SportMods title hunt for most of the season. He can regain and capture the track title if he finishes eight positions in front of Kyle Prauner (5K).

Track titles decided tonight

A couple of track titles will be decided tonight, while others will be a long shot.

Pierce's Ramsey Meyer won the track title in the Sport Compact, as he leads by 61 points over Tanner Uehling of Norfolk.

There are two divisions right on the edge of locking out the rest of the field for their titles.

Chad Bruns of Wayne has a 17-point lead in the Stock Car division and TeJay Mielke has a 16-point lead in the Hobby Stocks division.

Each class would have to field more than 17 cars to set up a worse case scenario. If 17 cars do show up, the point leaders would have to finish last and the second place driver would have to win.

The SportMods division race is close. Kyle Prauner of Norfolk has an eight-point lead over Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton. Vollbrecht will have to finish nine positions in front of Prauner to take the title.

Lance Mielke (7m) goes three wide with Bo Cleveland (3x) and Colby Kaspar (39) during their heat race.

Mielke adds another victory

With cars bouncing in all directions, Lance Mielke pulled off his fourth win of the season.

Bristol Arneson of Norfolk led the first two laps, before Dustin Jackson of O'Neill led the third lap.

Mielke moved his machine out front after a restart to lead the fourth lap.

Ramsey Meyer of Pierce and Mielke put on a good show for four laps leading to the final lap. It was shaping up to be a close finish, but a caution came out just after the two drivers took the white flag.

On the restart, Mielke got away from Meyer and easily took his fourth win. Meyer finished second and Jackson placed third. Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk took home fourth and Max Anderson rounded out the top 5.

Dustin Jackson (22x) won his heat race and later finished third in the feature for his fifth top 5.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) lead a group down the backstretch during their heat race. Meyer finished second in the feature.

Chad Bruns (11) captures his first track title by pulling onto the track tonight.

The closest title hunt is in the Late Model division, as Eric Vanosdall of Winside has chiselled away at Robert Osborne's lead.

Norfolk's Osborne has won numerous track titles with a lot of wins and some with a few wins. Osborne has been shutout of wins this season, but finished most of the season between third and seventh.

On the other side, Vanosdall has had two wins and one more top 5 then Osborne. However, Vanosdall did not qualify for the main event once this season, which could cost him the title.

Vanosdall will have to finish five positions in front of Osborne to take the title away.

TeJay Milke (77) takes the track title in the Hobby Stock division. He holds a 16-point lead over the second place car of Jeremy Hoskinson (26).

John Hadcock (75) runs inside of Jason Wilkinson (52) during their heat race. Hadcock won the heat race.

Primrose wins on final lap

They got together early in the feature, but after a caution, the two were back at it again.

Shawn Primrose took the win over Ron Pettitt, in a race to the finish.

As the Norfolk drivers battled for the lead, Pettitt and Primrose got together on lap eight. Pettitt, the uncle, maintained the lead but Primrose, the nephew, fell back to fourth.

However, a caution flag came out and bunched the field with eight laps remaining.

Primrose made quick work of second and third on the restart and again was back on Pettitt's bumper.

Primrose made his first attempt at the lead on lap 12 when he got a good run through turns one and two, but he struggled through turns three and four.

For two laps, Pettitt led on the front stretch while Primrose led on the backstretch.

Finally with two laps left, Primrose took his uncle's line through three and four and kept the lead for good.

It was Primrose's third win at the track. Pettitt was second and Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids took third.

Fourth went to Chad Bruns of Wayne and rounding out the top 5 was Ryan Rohde of Carroll.

Ron Pettitt won his heat and was one lap away from winning the feature. He took second to his nephew.

Dale Primrose (4) and Zach Zentner (49) race in their heat race.

Gage Koch (96) finished seventh in the feature last week.

John Bruegman (64) keeps Brent Jochum (4J) behind in their heat race. Bruegman won the heat race, as Jochum was second.

Nate DeSive (31K) competes in his heat race.

Mark Arduser (4) races with Jared Relitz (50) during their heat race. In the feature, Relitz led 13 laps, but it was Arduser leading the final two laps to win his first feature of the season.

Arduser captures first win

Another caution period ended the hopes of one driver, but for another it was a break he has been looking for.

Emerson's Jared Relitz looked to have won the feature after taking the white flag, but a caution ended his hopes a half-a-lap to the checkered flag.

On the restart, Relitz got sideways into the first turn and Battle Creek's Mark Arduser put his stock car out front and held off a charge from Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk to win his first feature at the track.

Tracy Buck of Neligh brought out a red flag when another driver put his car into the backstretch wall on the third lap. Buck's car rolled onto its lid, but Buck managed to walk away.

Relitz had led the first two laps and went back to work after the red flag. He managed to maintain a couple car lengths lead over Arduser for most of the middle 11 laps. Then the caution came out, erasing a straightaway lead.

On the restart of the green-white-checkered flag finish, Relitz lost it in turn one and Arduser jumped out front with Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk on his tail.

Hoskinson led briefly on the backstretch on the final lap, but Arduser stuck his car into turn three and four and came out of the corner back out front to capture his first feature.

Hoskinson finished second and TeJay Mielke of Norfolk placed third. Fourth went to Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk and Jim Kimmel of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Above, Jeremy Hoskinson (26), Jim Kimmel (17K) and TeJay Mielke (77) race in their heat race. Hoskinson later finished second in the feature as Kimmel was fifth and Mielke was third. Right, Tiffany Bittner was fourth in the feature which was her 11th top 5.

Brad Vogt (11) led 17 laps to win his first feature at the track last week.

Vogt captures first track feature victory

He said he had to get a bit more aggressive before last week's feature and when the checkered flag flew, Late Model driver Brad Vogt was the first to cross the line.

But the road was not easy for the Pierce driver, as Eric Vanosdall of Winside was hot on his tail at the end.

However, it was Cory Haase of Norfolk challenging Vogt first. Haase led the first two laps and later led lap nine when he got back alongside.

Vogt pulled the cross over move and regained the top spot when he drove hard into turn three.

Later after the final caution period, Vogt and Vanosdall went at it. Vanosdall caught Vogt with four laps left and when the two took the white flag, Vanosdall pulled inside of Vogt.

But when they entered turn three, Vanosdall got out of the groove and lost the back end. Vogt kept it straight and won his first feature at the track. Vanosdall was second and Robert Osborne of Norfolk finished third. Chad Jensen of Norfolk placed fourth and Haase rounded out the top 5.

SPORTMODS

Kyle Prauner picked up his ninth feature last week's nine laps of the shortened feature.

Prauner started on the inside of the eighth row and was second by lap two.

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk led the first two laps when he raced hard into turn three. It stuck and he flew to the front. A caution came out a little later and on the restart, Langenberg led lap three before Prauner got a good run out four to take the lead.

The red was thrown a few laps later when Wes Hochstein of Randolph rolled his car in turn three. He was able to walk away.

Prauner went on to win. Troy Bruns of Wayne recovered from a heat race crash to finish second in the feature.

Langenberg settled for third, as Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton was fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Rod Bronson of Hooper.

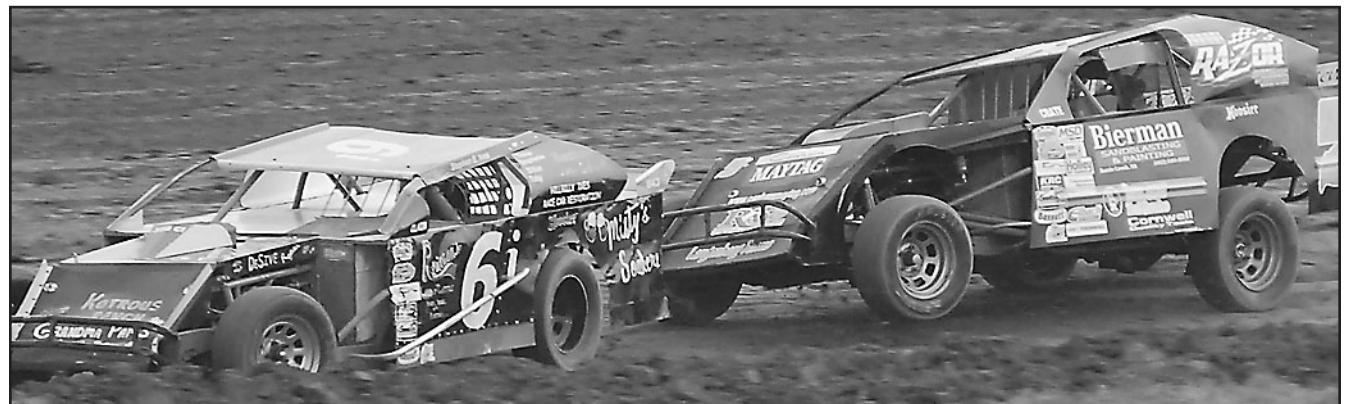

After Dylan Pospisil (04) spins, Troy Bruns (75) collides with him and goes airborne. He made the repairs and later finished second in the feature.

Eric Vanosdall (9) and Robert Osborne (35) compete in their heat race. Vanosdall finished second in the feature as Osborne placed third.

Wes Hochstein is pulled from his car after he flipped during the feature.

Stephen Ives (6i) leads Kyle Prauner (5K) in their heat race. Prauner came back in the feature to win for the ninth time.
