Kyle Prauner (5K) won his heat race and the feature.

Prauner captures victory

It was starting to feel like an early 1900s game of basketball when after a team scored a basket, the ball was taken to center court for a jump ball.

In the SportMods feature, it seemed like there was a restart after ever lap. There were six cautions in the first eight laps and a total of eight cautions by the time the checkered flag dropped.

Kyle Prauner of Norfolk came from the inside of the fifth row to win his first feature of the season at the track.

Tim Swartz of Lincoln led the first six laps before Wes Hochstein of Randolph made the pass for the lead. Hochstein led the next six.

On the fourth restart, Prauner caught a break, when Hochstein and Colby Langenberg of Norfolk drifted up the track.

Langenberg was working the outside of Hochstein, when Hochstein could not keep his car on the bottom.

With Hochstein and Langenberg near the wall, Prauner and Tyler Afrank blasted by on the inside.

Prauner and Afrank battled for a couple of laps before Prauner secured the lead.

It was Prauner's 25th win in 46 feature starts. Langenberg and Hochstein each got back by Afrank. Langenberg moved into second on lap 16 to finish second.

Hochstein made a last lap pass to finish third by a nose Afrank was fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Joey Haase of Norfolk.

Tim Swartz (22) led six laps in the feature.

Tyler Afrank posted at fourth place finish.

Brauner holds off Wilkinson for win

The defending champion in the Stock Car division picked up his first win of the season outracing the Hobby Stock champion from last season.

Platte Center's Austin Brauner, the 2019 Stock Car champion, got to the inside line quickly at the drop of the green flag, as Neligh's Cameron Wilkinson, the 2018 and 2019 Hobby Stock champion, dropped in behind him.

The two drivers cruised to the front and by lap four, the duo was pulling away in first and second.

Brauner maintained the lead with Wilkinson using his chrome horn a couple times and was able to pull alongside a couple of other times. However, Wilkinson could not complete the pass.

Brauner, who also was the 2017 Hobby Stock Champion, took his second career victory in the Stock Car class. Wilkinson finished second.

Norfolk's TeJay Mielke finished third when he passed Dusty Poesnecker of Atkinson with six laps left. Poesnecker finished fourth.

Rounding out the top 5 was Derek Sehi of Neligh.

Kyle Wilkinson of Neligh won the B feature. Mielke, Poesnecker and Cameron Wilkinson each won their heat race.

Cameron Wilkinson (5) took second in the feature. He also won the first heat race.

Smooth and steady

Vollbrecht wins first career feature

Walking away with his first career win at the track last week, Stanton's Nelson Vollbrecht ran a flawless race to do it.

Vollbrecht started on the pole for the feature and led all 25 laps. From the drop of the green flag, Vollbrecht ran just off the bottom of a slick track.

Norfolk's Ben Sukup jumped into the second position by the second lap. Sukup tried different lines but found himself losing ground whenever he tried something new.

A caution came out after the completion of the 14th lap. On the restart, Vollbrecht went back to clicking off the laps with Sukup in tow. Vollbrecht picked up his first career win at the track and his 8th top 5 in the division. Vollbrecht jumped into the Late Model class in 2018 from the SportMods class.

Sukup crossed the finish line second for his second top 2 finish of the season.

Travis Birkley of Wakefield finished third. He moved into the position after the caution. Fourth went to Cory Dumpert of York.

Rounding out the top 5 was Devin Johnson of Bloomfield.

Jim Johnson of Plainview, Dumpert and Sukup each won their heat race.

Devin Johnson (7J) finished fifth in the feature.

ps.

Ben Sukup (07) grabbed his second top 5 of the season when he finished second.
