Ben Sukup on his second feature of the season and his third heat race last week.

Sukup takes second victory

Even a late caution was not enough to stop Ben Sukup from winning his second feature of the season.

The Norfolk driver lead the final 12 laps to pick up the victory.

It was, however, a caution midway through the 25-lap feature that helped Sukup get the lead.

Norfolk's Matt Haase blasted away from the field from the drop of the green flag and opened up nearly a straight-away lead over second when the caution came out erasing his lead.

At the time, Sukup was battling for second with Jon Haase of Plainview.

On the restart, Sukup quickly got by to take over the top spot. Before the final caution, Sukup had a half lap lead over Matt Haase.

After the final restart, Sukup quickly separated from the field to win by a straightaway.

Second came down to a battle of cousins. Matt Haase and Jon Haase restarted second and third, respectively.

Matt held a slight advantage over Jon to take the white flag. Jon got a good drive off turn two as Matt slipped up high.

Jon Haase finished second, as Matt Haase closed the gap back to finish a close third.

Fourth went to Chase Osborne of Norfolk and Devin Johnson of Bloomfield placed fifth.

Top 3 in the Late Models were Ben Sukup, Jon Haase and Matt Haase.

Dean Wilkinson (52) finished second in his heat race.

Langenberg wins his second

Colby Langenberg slipped in to pick up his second win of the season.

The Norfolk driver first battled with Tyler Afrank and then Kyle Prauner, both of Norfolk.

Afrank jumped out front from his outside pole position. He managed a small advantage, as Langenberg raced side-by-side with Cole Haddix of Elgin.

After Langenberg cleared Haddix for second, he took the next two laps to run down Afrank.

Langenberg worked on the inside of Afrank for several laps before getting alongside. Two more laps went by as the two drivers battled side-by-side.

Langenberg cleared Afrank with six laps remaining. As the two battled, Prauner closed the gap and started work on the inside of Afrank after Langenberg got by.

Afrank managed to keep Prauner behind him, but a caution lined the two cars side-by-side on the restart.

Prauner made the high side work to make the pass on Afrank, but lost ground to Langenberg.

Prauner switched to the inside lane and closed the gap but ran out of laps to challenge Langenberg.

Langenberg took the win by a car length for his eighth top 5. Prauner finished second, his seventh top 5.

Afrank had his best finish of the season at third, his second top 5.

Jeremy Gnat of Battle Creek salvaged a fourth-place finish as Tim Swartz of Lincoln grabbed his first top 5 of the season at fifth place.

Above, Kyle Prauner (5K) finished second in the feature. Right, Tim Swartz (22) took his first top 5 of the season finishing fifth.

Three wins for Brauner

It started out slow for Austin Brauner in the feature, but once the green flag stayed out, he went to the front of the pack to win his third feature of the season.

The Platte Center driver started 14th in the 18-car field and was running 10th after five laps.

With all the cautions out of the way, Brauner went to work. First up, was a pack of six cars battling for the second position.

In one lap, he managed to get by five of them using the inside line to make it to the third position.

He then started working on Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk, who was also running the low side.

Brauner managed to get a nose alongside Hoskinson, who then moved up to the high side.

Taking the low line, Brauner moved into to second with only the leader to go.

John Hadcock of Wayne, who led the first 15 laps, tried to hold off Brauner, but with three laps remaining, Brauner was pacing the field.

It was Brauner's fourth top 5 of the season with three coming in victories.

Pospisil captures victory

ing out front in six laps, Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk won his first feature race of the season last week. Rosberg led the first five laps, holding a three or four-car length lead in the battle for second. Pospisil had just moved into second place, closing the gap to the leader, when a caution came out. At the restart, Pospisil jumped out and managed a healthy lead, but a caution bunched the field again. In the final four laps remaining, the battle was on between Jason Wilkinson and Anthony Nelson of Norfolk. Pospisil had time to build up a lead. Pospisil, who has five wins and 10 top 5s in seven nights of racing, cleared Nelson and went after Pospisil with three laps to go.

Wilkinson closed the gap, but Pospisil's lead was too great. It was Pospisil's second career Stock Car division victory at the track.

Wilkinson added to his top 2s with another runner-up finish. It was the eighth time finishing second or better.

Nelson crossed the line third for his second top 5.

Nate DeSive continued his top 5 finishes at fourth. It was his sixth top 5 and his third fourth-place finish.

Rounding out the top 5 was Dustin Jackson of O'Neill, who has two top 5s this season.

Mielke (7) was forced into the wall during his heat race. He later finished fourth in the B feature to advance into the A feature.
