Devin Johnson (7J) took the checkered flag first in both his heat race and the feature.

Johnson takes season opener win

Taking full advantage of his starting position, Bloomfield's Devin Johnson led the entire race to take the season-opening win.

Johnson consistently pulled away from the field on each restart. It was Johnson's third win at the track, winning the last night in 2017 and the first night in 2018.

Last week's feature race was cut short when officials ended the race after the eighth caution.

The final stoppage was a red flag when Ben Sukup of Norfolk nearly flipped his vehicle. Sukup was restarting from the second position when he tagged the front stretch wall. His car continued into turn one before hitting a barrier on the exit of the track.

The car then climbed the wall putting the car on its side. It came to rest back on all four tires.

The second position was contested most of the night. Robert Osborne of Norfolk held the position first before Kyle Prauner got by. Sukup had just taken the position when the incident occurred.

After the race was called, Prauner was second, Osborne third. Chase Osborne of Norfolk took fourth and rounding out the top 5 was Todd Cooney of Des Moines, IA.

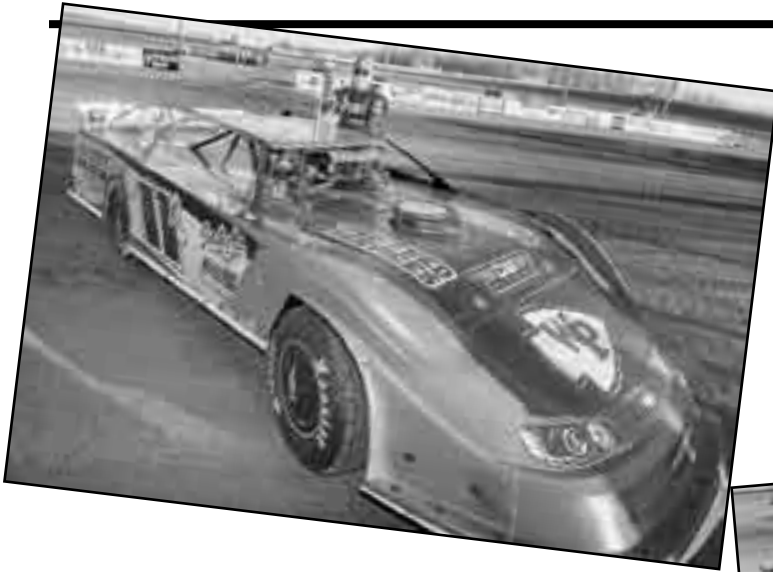

Kyle Prauner (5K) picked up second place in his first start in the Late Model division at the track.

James Roebuck (75) led the final two laps of the 20-lap feature to pick up the first win of the season.

Roebuck victorious

Only leading the final two laps in the 20-lap SportMod feature, Genoa's James Roebuck captured his sixth feature win at the track.

The race started with Robbie Thome of Spalding leading the first 15-laps as he held off Colby Langenberg of Norfolk for most of those laps.

With only one caution early in the feature, Roebuck had to work his way through the field, as did Cameron Meyer of Pierce.

The two drivers were sixth and seventh when the caution came out. On the restart, Roebuck got held up, as Meyer continued his charge forward.

Meyer led for three laps getting by Thome on lap 16. Roebuck was close behind and finally cut under Meyer for the top spot on lap 18 just before taking the white flag.

Roebuck added another win to his resume, which include three feature wins last season and one each in 2016 and 2019.

Meyer finished second as Thome placed third. Langenberg dropped to fourth as Justin Svoboda of David City rounded out the top 5.

Meyer finished second as Thome placed third. Langenberg dropped to fourth as Justin Svoboda of David City rounded out the top 5.

Robbie Thome (1T) races with Brandon Baker (7B) in their heat race. Thome later finished third in the feature.

Cameron Meyer (21) top home second after leading three laps.

Justin Addison (26J) won both his heat race and the feature last week.

Addison dominates feature

After the passing of his dad, Larry, Justin Addison dominated the Stock Car A-feature, leading all but one lap last week.

The Meadow Grove driver drew the second row starting position and after a couple of quick cautions, he passed Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh on the second lap to take over the top spot.

The race went uninterrupted until lap 15 of the 18-lap feature. On the final restart, Addison quickly got out front when the battle for second heated up between Neil Bruns of Norfolk and Kyle Wilkinson of Neligh.

Addison won by four-car lengths. It was his fourth win in the class at the track.

Bruns was the common denominator for the second position, first battling with Cameron Wilkinson and then after the late caution it was Kyle Wilkinson.

Kyle Wilkinson made a last-turn attempt to get under Bruns, but could not hold the inside line.

Bruns finished second as Kyle Wilkinson was third. Austin Brauner of Platte Center slipped by Cameron Wilkinson for fourth. Cameron Wilkinson rounded out the top 5.

Neil Bruns (74) took home a second place finish.

Kyle Wilkinson (52) finished third in the feature.

Top 3 in the Stock Cars were, left to right: Justin Addison, Neil Bruns and Kyle Wilkinson.

Jason Wilkinson (52) captured the first victory of the season.

Defending champ starts with win

A late caution and a good restart helped the defending points champion to pick up his first win of the season on opening night.

Neligh's Jason Wilkinson only led the final two laps to pick up his sixth-career victory in the class.

Nate Buck of Neligh battled with Claton Peters of Waco for the first few laps, as Peters led three laps. Buck led eight laps leading into the final caution.

On the final restart, Buck went back to leading, as Wilkinson got a jump on the second and third place cars of Peters and Dylan Fitzpatrick of Magnolia, MN.

Peters and Fitzpatrick got stuck together in turns one and two, allowing Wilkinson to get by on the inside.

A lap and a half later, Wilkinson was side-by-side with Buck for the lead. As the drivers took the white, Wilkinson moved out front.

Wilkinson took the victory and Buck finished second.

Nate DeSive of O'Neill also took advantage of Peters and Fitzpatrick, to slip into third at the time. He went on to finish third passing 12 cars from the start of the feature.

Colby Kaspar of Columbus passed six cars on the way to a fourth-place finish. Fitzpatrick ended up fifth.

Wyatt Lehman and Lance Mielke, both of Norfolk, each won a B-feature to advance to the main event.

Nate Buck (56) finished second in the feature.

Nate DeSive (31K) races with Wyatt Lehman (6) in their heat race. DeSive later finished third in the feature.
