Kyle Prauner (5K) took his first career Late Model feature win at the track last week

Prauner grabs first victory

Kyle Prauner marked his first Late Model win at the track last week, nearly 18 years after his first win in Norfolk on July 12, 2003 in his rookie season in the Street Stock division.

He moved up to the SportMod division and had a successful career. This season, as a “rookie” again, the Norfolk driver posted his first Late Model win at the track.

Prauner inherited a front row starting position when Ben Sukup of Norfolk spun out on the first lap.

Robert Osborne of Norfolk led the first eight laps before Prauner moved out front. Seventeen laps later he picked up his first win.

Osborne cruised in second, Joey Haase of Norfolk picked up his first top 5 finish, placing third.

Devin Johnson of Bloomfield was docked a position and was given fourth, as Sukup recovered from his first lap situation to round out the top 5.

Kyle Prauner's first win in Norfolk, July 12, 2003.

Joey Haase (2x) was credited with third in the feature.

Following his trophy dash win, Robert Osborne was welcomed to victory lane by his young son Chase.

Robert Osborne (35) races son, Chase Osborne (14), in their heat race. Robert Osborne later finished second in the feature, as Chase finished sixth.

Devin Johnson (7J) was given a fifth place finish.

Jim Johnson (36) had a eighth place finish.

Ben Sukup (07) captured a fifth place finish after a mishap on the first lap of the first.

Chad Bruns (11) flies into turn three during his heat race. Bruns later won the main event.

Bruns led start to finish for win

No late caution was going to deny Chad Bruns a feature win last week.

The Wakefield driver had the feature won several weeks ago, but a late caution allowed Justin Addison of Meadow Grove to get by for the win.

Bruns led all 18 laps last week to win the feature by nearly a straightaway.

Fred DeSive of O'Neill continued his top finishes

when he held off Ron Pettitt to take home second, his second top 5 of the season.

Ron Pettitt ran third behind DeSive making several attempts to move into second. At the finish, Pettitt lead a group of five across the line for a third-place finish.

Addison placed fourth with Ryan Harris of Homer rounding out the top 5.

Ron Pettitt (12) exits turn four during his heat race. Pettitt would finish third in the feature.

Jim Kimmel (17K) won the fourth heat race.

Anthony Bruhn (55) won the fourth heat race.

Kimmel victorious

It did not take long for Nic Kimmel to pick up his first win at the track.

The Hoskins driver watched his dad, Jim Kimmel, race the Norfolk track for decades, as he raced at other tracks.

In his first full time ride in Norfolk, it took three weeks to pull off the victory. His second top 5 of the season.

Kimmel led from the drop of the green flag and pulled away from the field, but when a caution was thrown it bunched the field. On the restart, Nate Buck of Neligh challenged Kimmel for the lead.

Buck led for two laps before Kimmel regrouped and moved back out front for good.

Kimmel took the win, Buck was second and Dylan Fitzpatrick of Magnolia, MN finished third.

Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk added another top 5 placing fourth and the previous week's winner Lance Mielke rounded out the top 5.

Nic Kimmel (K17) leads Stephanie Reynolds (96R) and Tanner Uehling (58T) on his way to winning the heat race and later the feature.

Nate Buck (56) and Shannon Pospisil (00) race in their heat race. Buck finished second in the feature, as Pospisil placed fourth.

Top three in the Hobby Stocks were Nic Kimmel, Nate Buck and Dylan Fitzpatrick.

Cameron Meyer (21) took his first victory of the season and his third top 5.

Meyer takes third top with victory

There are only two drivers so far this season that have finished in the top 5 each week in any class and SportMod winner Cameron Meyer is one of them.

In fact, the Pierce native has finished all three nights in the top 3. (Justin Addison in the Stock Cars is the other driver.)

Last week, a late caution when James Roebuck of Genoa broke down on the backstretch brought out the third and final caution, changed the outcome of the race which only had three laps of the 20-lap feature left.

At the start, Tim Swartz of Lincoln led the first seven laps before Tyler Afrank made the pass just before the second caution.

On the restart, Afrank was leading, Swartz was second and Jeremy Gnat was third. For the next 10 laps, Afrank paced the field, with Gnat and Meyer trying to run him down.

Afrank had a four-car length lead when the caution came out for Roebuck.

It would be on the restart that Meyer launched into the lead and quickly moved out front. Gnat was close behind, challenging Meyer.

Meyer went on to win the feature. Gnat tried too hard in the final turns and gave up the second position to Afrank. Gnat was third.

Swartz cruised in fourth, as the previous week's winner, David Johnson of Columbus rounded out the top 5.

Top three in the SportMods Afrank and Jeremy Gnat.
