Cameron Meyer (21) picked up his second feature win of the season as Tyler Afrank (11A) finished second.

Meyer does it again

In a side-by-side battle for 11 laps, Pierce's Cameron Meyer and Jonathan Jensen of Phoenix, AZ put on a show.

When the dust settled, Meyer picked up his second win of the season.

But some of the heavy hitters in the class found themselves on the hook before completing the first lap.

Two-time winner David Johnson of Columbus, Colby Langenberg of Norfolk and James Roebuck of Genoa all ended their night in an incident off turn four on the first lap. Langenberg and Johnson had to be towed off, as Roebuck drove off. Also involved was Aaron Wahrman of Scribner.

When the race was finally restarted, the outside row only had two cars left, so Jensen went from starting fifth row to starting outside the front row.

Jensen led the first five laps before the final caution was thrown which set up the wild race between Jensen and Meyer.

It took Meyer a few laps to catch Jensen, but for the final 11 laps, the lead changed hands four times.

Whenever it looked like one driver was pulling away, a slight bobble brought the other driver back into the mix.

Jensen led to take the white flag, however, he appeared to break on the backstretch.

Meyer went onto win. Jensen could not get his car to turn in and Tyler Afrank of Norfolk, who watched the show from the third position, managed to edge out Jensen at the finish line for second. Jensen was third.

Jeremy Gnat of Battle Creek finished fourth and Tim Swartz of Lincoln finished fifth.

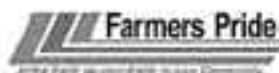

Jonathan Jensen (25) battles with Aaron French (10F) in their heat race. Jensen made his return to the track. He led 11 laps, battled with Cameron Meyer for the lead and broke on the final lap to finish third.

Rusty Glosser (2R) and Tim Swartz (22) exit turn four in their heat race. Swartz took his second top 5, placing fifth in the feature.

Jeremy Gnat (38) picked up his third top 5 finishing fourth in the feature.

David Johnson (97) was involved in an incident on the frontstretch which ended his night.

A fuel spill on the frontstretch warmed the crowd after an incident that left David Johnson, Colby Langenberg and Aaron Wahrman disabled.

Kyle Wilkinson (52) posted his second straight feature win.

Wilkinson goes back-to-back

It was a good fight for most of the Stock Car division's feature and Kyle Wilkinson pulled off his second straight feature win.

The Neligh driver led the final 13 laps, as Ron Pettitt of Norfolk, Justin Addison of Meadow Grove and Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh battled for the top spot for most of the race.

A late caution setup a green-white-checked finish. Kyle Wilkinson was pacing the field, Pettitt was second, Addison third and Cameron Wilkinson was fourth at the final restart.

Trying to get everything he could to get alongside the leader, Pettitt slide sideways on the front stretch and tagged the wall.

Smoke rolled out of the rear of the car as Addison and Cameron Wilkinson slipped by.

Kyle Wilkinson now had a clean run to the checkered flag for the win. His second of the season. Addison finished second and Cameron Wilkinson was third.

With a trail of smoke, Pettitt finished fourth. Rounding out the top five was Fred DeSive of O'Neill.

Fred DeSive (31K) picked up his third top 5 finishing fifth in the feature.

The top 3 finishers in Stock Car division were Cameron Wilkinson (3rd), Kyle Wilkinson (1st) and Justin Addison (2nd).

Ryan Cech (mr2) leads Dean Wilkinson (52) into turn three. Cech went on to win the feature as Wilkinson was second.

Bill Rombach (7) took third in the feature.

Branden Proskocil (12p) took home fourth.

Top 3 in the Midwest Classic class were Bill Rombach (3rd), Ryan Cech (1st) and Dean Wilkinson (2nd).

Anthony Bruhn (55) leads a group in their heat race. Bruhn led the field to victory in the feature later.

Bruhn takes first win

Running fast consistent laps was what it took for Anthony Bruhn to pick up his first feature victory.

The Creston driver kept his nose clean and simply pulled away from the field to win by half a straightaway.

The race was only stopped once for a fire on Scribner's Shaughn Hendrix's machine.

On the restart, the new driver slowly pulled away.

Nate Buck of Neligh got to a couple car lengths before dropping back. Buck finished second.

Norfolk's Jim Kimmel held off Albion's Travis Landauer and Norfolk's Wyatt Lehman in the final laps.

Kimmel was driving his son's, Nic Kimmel, k17 machine to the third-place finish. It was Kimmel's first top 5 of the season.

Landauer edged out Lehman for fourth and Lehman rounded out the top 5.

Top 3 in the Hobby Stocks were Jim Kimmel (3rd), Nate Buck (2nd) and Anthony Bruhn (1st).
