Kyle Prauner (5K) picked up his second win of the season.

Prauner claims second win

Patiently waiting for the right opportunity, Kyle Prauner got around the leader and led the final 12 laps to win his second feature in his first year in the Late Model division.

The Norfolk driver worked the high and low side as the track continued to change throughout the 25-lap feature.

Travis Birkley of Wakefield led the first four laps before Chase Osborne of Norfolk moved out front.

However, Osborne spun out trying to hold off a charge from Joey Haase of Norfolk. Osborne and Haase were running side-by-side when Osborne tried to drive further into the corner and get back to the throttle, when the car went around.

Haase inherited the lead on the restart. Haase and Prauner battled for several laps with Prauner trying to get to the inside of Haase.

Finally, Prauner got a good exit in turn two and managed to get Haase off the bottom in turns three and four.

Once out front, Prauner pulled away and won by a straightaway. Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton moved into second on the final restart.

He also pulled away from the rest crossing a half straightaway from third. Haase was disqualified after failing post-race inspection giving Robert Osborne of Norfolk third.

Fourth went to Matt Haase of Norfolk and rounding out the top 5 was Chase Osborne.

Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) races inside Jon Haase (45) in their heat race. Vollbrecht went on to finish second in the main event and Haase finished 12th.

Above, Matt Haase (94) won his heat race last week. He later finished fourth in the feature. Right, Robert Osborne (35) dives inside Kyle Prauner (5K) in their heat race. Osborne finished third in the feature.

Martin takes sprint feature

Justin Martin ran out front for nearly the entire 25-lap feature to pick up the 360 sprint car feature last week.

The Lincoln driver inherited the lead when the race leader, Monty Ferriera of Lincoln, jumped the cushion and flipped his car off the backstretch wall.

On the restart, Martin pulled a slight advantage until he caught the back of the field on lap eight. Eric Lutz of Sioux Falls pulled alongside, but Martin managed to use the slower car as a pick.

Ryan Bickett of Ramona, SD was next to challenge Martin, however, he changed his line from the top and started running the bottom.

He again pulled away.

Lapped traffic again slowed Martin's progress allowing Bickett to challenge for the lead just before Jack Dover of Springfield roared to the bumper of Martin.

Two cautions helped Martin stay ahead of Dover and after the second caution Dover suffered a mechanical problem and slowed bringing out the final caution.

Martin won the two-lap shootout to collect the big check. Bickett finished second and former Norfolk driver Brant O'Banion of Parker, SD placed third. Wisner's Seth Brahmmer took home fourth and Chuck McGillivray of Madison, SD placed fifth.

Top left, Ryan Bickett (17B), Brant O'Banion (20) and Seth Brahmmer (13V) races three wide in their heat race. Bickett finished second in the feature, as O'Banion placed third and Brahmmer finished fourth. Bottom left, Mike Kay (7K) finished ninth in the feature. Bottom right, Rick Pendergast (29) finished 15th in the feature.

Nate Buck (56) races with Bristol Arneson (51B) and Jason Wilkinson (52) in their heat race. Buck took home his fourth second-place finish. Wilkinson finished third, his fourth top 3 of the season.

Joe Rosberg (3J) spins in his heat race and nearly flips.

Mark Arduser (4) scored his first victory of the season leading 14 of the 15 laps in the feature.

Arduser cruises to win

Mark Arduser returned to the winner's circle last week, nearly four years after having to step away.

It was 2017 when the Battle Creek driver was forced to stop racing, however, he was able to return the next season.

Arduser has been looking to add to his 2015 win and has been knocking at the door with five runner-up finishes and 23 top 5s at the track.

Arduser started last week on the outside of the second row. He followed Trent Johnson of Bloomfield for the first lap before going four-wide out of turn four to go from fourth place to leading the field going down the backstretch.

The race went uninterrupted for 15 laps. Arduser's only challenge came when he caught the back of the field to take the white flag.

Neligh's Nate Buck managed to make it three wide with Arduser and the lapped car, but backed off to avoid any serious contact.

Arduser went on to win his second career feature at the track.

Buck finished second after a battle for several laps late in the feature with Travis Landauer of Albion.

Landauer ran second for most of the race, first battling with Tanner Uehling of Norfolk and then Buck.

Landauer bobbled on lap 13 which allowed both Buck and Jason Wilkinson of Neligh to get by.

Wilkinson finished third, Landauer was fourth and Uehling took fifth.

Above, Travis Landauer (45) finished fourth in the feature.

Veteran driver Ron Pettitt (12) took the win in the feature last week, his seventh win at the track. His last victory was Sept. 1, 2018.

Veteran Norfolk driver returns to victory lane

Above, Jeremy Hoskinson (26) races with Cameron Wilkinson (5). Hoskinson finished fifth in the feature. Ryan Harris (49x) took a second place finish in the feature.

It has not been too terribly long since Ron Pettitt drove into victory lane, but for a former multi-track champion, two plus years is long enough.

The Norfolk driver led from the drop of the green flag and paced all 18 laps to pull off yet another victory in his career. His last victory at the track came on Sept. 1, 2018.

Last week during the 18 laps, Pettitt held off an early challenge from Hans Houfek of Emerson, but after that he maintained a good distance from the field to pick up his seventh win at the track.

Houfek ran second for all but the final lap. Ryan Harris of Homer stayed bumper of Houfek as he tried to work his way around.

The inside lane of the track was too slick, and Harris lost ground on an attempt on the low side. He worked the high side to get back to Houfek, but it took a bobble from Houfek to allow Harris to get by on the final lap.

Chad Bruns of Wakefield had a slight advantage and edged out Houfek by inches.

Harris was second, Bruns took third, Houfek fourth. Rounding out the top five was Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk.

Top three in the Stock Cars were Chad Bruns (3rd), Ryan Harris (2nd) and Ron Pettitt (1st).

Kyle Wilkinson (52), Jeremy Hoskinson (26), Tanner Cunningham (49) and Ryan Harris (49x) from the front.
