Colby Langenberg (center) picked up his second of the season.

Langenberg victorious a second time

There were only three cautions in the first two laps to slow the start of the SportMods feature, but, once the race got going it went straight through.

Colby Langenberg wasted little time to get out front as he led 19 of the 20 laps to pick up his second win of the season.

Langenberg started on the second row outside and watched Michael Wolfe of Hartington lead the first lap.

Langenberg used the high side to get by Wolfe. Jeremy Gnat of Battle Creek put some early pressure on Langenberg before falling back.

He then made a surge to the front just past halfway. With five laps remaining, Gnat managed to get alongside Langenberg, but again Langenberg stretched the lead out.

Langenberg took the win, Gnat was second and Tyler Afrank rolled through for third.

Keegan Nordquist of Beresford, SD was involved in an early incident but recovered to finish fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Cameron Meyer of Pierce, his seventh out seven top 5

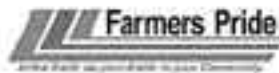

Doug Hilkemann (21H) won the first of two heat races.

The top 3 were: Tyler Afrank (3rd), Colby Langenberg (1st) and Jeremy Gnat (2nd).

Tyler Afrank (11A) races with AJ Boulware (14) in their heat race. Afrank collected his fourth top 3 when he finished third.

Jeremy Gnat (38) posted his best effort this season finishing second. It was his fourth top 5 of the season.

Cameron Meyer (21) and Keegan Nordquist (10N) compete in their heat race. Nordquist took home fourth and Meyer finished fifth. Meyer has placed in the top 5 each night this season.

Addison wins a second time

Justin Addison soaked in all of his second victory last week leading the final nine circuits of the 18-lap feature.

The Meadow Grove driver slowly worked his way through the field and on the first restart he zipped into second.

Kole Nordquist of Beresford SD led the first nine laps which were riddled with cautions.

On lap nine, Addison resorted to the “slide job.” The first attempt he had to bail on, the second one Nordquist did the crossover to regain the lead, but on the third attempt, Nordquist had to give way.

Once out front Addison maintained a slight advantage over second. Nordquist ran second for several laps before Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh slipped by.

Wilkinson could not close the gap and Addison went on to win by half a straightway.

Wilkinson took second and Nordquist finished third. Fourth went to Tanner Pettitt of Norfolk.

Rounding out the top 5 was Neil Bruns of Norfolk.

Justin Addison won his third heat race and later won his second feature of the season.

Neil Bruns leads a pack in the heat race. Bruns took his second top 5 finishing fifth in the feature.

The top 3 were: Cameron Wilkinson (2nd), Justin Addison (1st) and Kole Nordquist (3rd).

Mike Merrill (55) captured the win in the Midwest Classic Stock Car division.

Dean Wilkinson (52) finished second in the feature.

Right, Branden Proskocil (12P) took home a third place finish in the feature.

The top 3 were: Jason Wilkinson (1st), Mark Arduser (2nd) and Lance Mielke (33rd).

Midwest Classic winner - Mike Merrill and Bristol Bruns

Jason Wilkinson (52) and Nic Kimmel (k17) mix it up in their heat race. Kimmel won the heat race, while Wilkinson came back in the feature to win his third main event. Kimmel finished fifth in the feature.

Wilkinson grabs third victory

Five cautions plagued the 15-lap feature in the Hobby Stocks as Jason Wilkinson of Neligh picked up his third win of the season.

And it did not take long for Wilkinson to pace the field. The defending champion started on the outside of the sixth row and was running 10th after one lap.

After two laps, which already had three cautions, he was running sixth. By lap five he was leading, passing both Mark Arduser of Battle Creek and Nate Buck of Neligh in turn two.

Wilkinson did what he does and went on to win by four car lengths over Arduser, who finished second for his third top 5.

Third went to Lance Mielke of Norfolk. Fourth was Wyatt Lehman, who came from the B-feature. Norfolk's Nic Kimmel, who spun on the first lap, recovered to place fifth.

Wyatt Lehman (6) came through the B feature to finish fourth in the feature.

Four cars stack up in the first of three heat races.

Kole Nordquist (10N) finished third in the feature.

Tanner Pettitt (2T) placed fourth in the feature.

Cameron Wilkinson (5) finished second in the feature.

Eric Haase (20) and Tanner Cunningham (55) get together in their heat race. Haase later finished 11th in the feature and Cunningham was 14th.

Zach Zentner (22z) leads a group out at the start of his heat race. Zentner picked up his first feature victory since the 20

Travis Birkley (78) takes the checkered flag to win his heat race. He later finished fourth in the feature.

Zentner wins big

The first time Zach Zentner raced at the track he finished 17th in a field of 17. The second time he left the field behind and claimed a feature victory.

The Cedar Rapids driver started on the pole and led all the laps to give him his first win since the 2018 season.

The race was only stopped once when Joey Haase took a trip over the backstretch wall. Haase was able to walk away from the incident.

A battle for second place heated up after the red-flag period. Kyle Prauner and Chase Osborne, both of Norfolk, battled for the runner-up position.

Prauner held the spot as Osborne tried to get to the inside for the pass. Unable to make the pass, Prauner took second and Osborne was third.

Travis Birkley of Wakefield finished fourth and Devin Johnson taking fifth.
