Jim Kimmel (17K) won his fourth heat race and later finished sixth in the feature.

Wilkinson captures third victory of season

Not even two caution periods could help the field compete with Cameron Wilkinson, not even his brother.

The Neligh driver easily won his third feature of the season leading all 18 laps.

Wilkinson started on the outside of the second row and raced the first lap three-wide with Tanner Pettitt and Eric Haase, both of Norfolk.

Once out front Wilkinson slowly pulled away until a red flag was thrown for fires in two different cars on either ends of the track.

After another quick yellow, the race finished with Wilkinson moving away from the field again. By this time his brother, Kyle Wilkinson of Neligh, was running second, but on the final restart, Cameron Wilkinson pulled away again for the win.

Kyle Wilkinson took second, as the brothers have finished one-two, three times this season.

Pettitt was the third car to cross the line, however he was disqualified for switching drivers.

Haase inherited the third-place finish after getting passed in the final lap for the position.

Fourth went to Derek Sehi of Neligh. It was his second top 5. Rounding out the top 5 was Ryan Harris of Homer.

Kyle Wilkinson (52) picked up his fifth top 5 finishing second in the feature.

Derek Sehi (16s) finished fourth in the feature.

Ryan Harris (49) finished fifth in the feature.

Dumpert dumps the field

The first time Cory Dumpert came to the track his luck was not so good, however, the second time around resulted in a victory.

On opening night, the York driver had trouble in his heat race sending him into the wall ending his night. Last Saturday, his luck changed as he drew outside pole for the main event.

Dumpert lead all 18 laps in the weather-shortened event that went without interruption.

Norfolk's Chase Osborne finished second to Dumpert. He started on the pole. It was his sixth top 5 of the season.

Starting on the outside of the third row, points leader Kyle Prauner of Norfolk finished third. It was his seventh top 5.

Fourth went to Alex Banks of Newman Grove, who drew the second row outside.

Rounding out the top 5 was Matt Haase of Norfolk. It was his second top 5 after starting from the eighth position.

Allen Zimmerman (83z) pulls out of turn four

Ron Pettitt (12) races his heat race with broke suspension .

Cameron Meyer (21) and Tyler Afrank cruise down the backstretch in their heat race. Meyer later won his third feature of the season.

Jeremy Gnat (38) finished fifth in the feature, his sixth top 5 of the season.

Colby Langenberg (11) finished second after leading 14 laps in the feature.

Meyer does it again

It came down to the defending champion and the current points leader last week with points leader Cameron Meyer picking up his third win of the season.

The Pierce driver battled with champion Colby Langenberg of Norfolk for the final five laps swapping the lead several times.

The final caution came halfway through the 18-lap feature which gave Meyer a break as he was racing side-by-side with Tyler Afrank of Norfolk.

Meyer could not complete the pass on Afrank allowing leader Langenberg to slip away from the two drivers.

On the restart, Langenberg got a good start and pulled a slight advantage as it took a lap for Meyer to clear Afrank.

Three laps later Meyer pulled alongside Langenberg and the final five laps the duo ran door-handle-to-door-handle.

Meyer took the win for his eighth top 5 of the season. Langenberg was second. Afrank finished third for his sixth top 3 finish of the season.

Jonathan Jensen of Norfolk, who overcame an early race incident that started a small fire, to finish fourth.

Jeremy Gnat of Battle rounded out the top 5 for sixth top 5.

of the season as Afrank finished third.
