James Roebuck (75) won his fifth feature of the season and his fourth-straight.

Roebuck adds another victory

It was a 15-lap shootout for the nine cars in the SportMods last week and James Roebuck took home his fifth win of the season and his fourth straight.

Roebuck started eighth in the field. After one lap he was fifth and after four laps he broke into the top three.

Aaron French of Norfolk led the first 12 laps, before Roebuck caught the leader.

Roebuck made the pass for the lead, however, French fought back on the backstretch. Going into turns three and four the drivers were side-by-side. French pushed in turns three and four and slid Roebuck up the hill to regain the top spot.

The incident brought Afrank into the mix, however, French then got loose in turns one and two French and Afrank touched allowing Roebuck to get back by.

Roebuck quickly pulled away and led the final three laps. Afrank finished second for the fourth time this season.

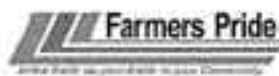

Tim Swartz of Lincoln managed to get by French for the third place. It was his best finish of the season. French grabbed his first top 5 of the season, taking home fourth.

Rounding out the top 5 was points leader Cameron Meyer of Pierce. Meyer has a 17-point lead in the standings going into championship night. Jeremy Gnat of Battle Creek is second in the standings, three points ahead of Afrank.

Tim Swartz (22) and Rick Pendergast (49) races their heat race. Swartz won the heat race and later finished third in the feature.

Hobby Stock winner - Nate Buck and Clint Thurston

Aaron French (10F) and Jeremy Gnat (38) race into turn three during their heat race. French later finished fourth in the feature.

The SportMods top three in the feature were: Tim Swartz (3rd), James Roebuck (1st) and Tyler Afrank (2nd).

Tyler Afrank (11A) takes the checkered flag to win his heat race. He later finished second in the feature.

Pettitts go 1-2 in feature

Ron Pettitt pulled into the victory lane for the second time this season, this time with his son Tanner Pettitt of Norfolk taking second.

The Norfolk driver led all 20 laps in a race that saw six cautions, four of which the drivers were never able to complete a lap.

Pettitt's only challenge came from Cameron Wilkinson of Neligh, however, Wilkinson lost a drive shaft in the process of trying to take the lead.

On the restart, Pettitt led the way with Tanner Pettitt in second and Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk in tow.

Ron Pettitt ran consistent laps, as Tanner Pettitt and Hoskinson ran side-by-side for most of the closing laps.

It was Ron Pettitt's second victory and his fourth top 5. Tanner Pettitt's second place finish gave him his fourth top 5.

Hoskinson crossed the line third. Points leader Chad Bruns of Wakefield finished fourth and Derek Sehi of Neligh rounded out the top 5.

With Wilkinson's troubles in the last two weeks, Bruns now has a 20-point lead in the standings going into championship night.

The top 3 in the Stock Car division were: Jeremy Hoskinson (3rd), Ron Pettitt (1st) and Tanner Pettitt (2nd).

Jim Kimmel (17K) takes the checkered flag in his heat race. He won the heat and later finished second in the feature.

Left, Shannon Pospisil (00) placed fourth in the feature. Right, Nic Kimmel (K17) took fifth in the feature.

Mark Arduser (4) picked up his fourth top 5 of the season when he finished third in the feature.

Nate Buck claimed his second win of the season.

Buck grabs second win

Nate Buck picked up another victory last week just two weeks after winning his first career feature win.

But it was not an easy trip to the front as he had to dodge slow cars and even bounced off the wall when he got together with another car.

He also would have had to chase down Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk, who had blasted away from the field. Lehman's motor started popping and cracking during a caution period.

On the next restart, he lost power and had to pull out of the groove after leading seven laps.

It was on the final restart when Buck found the way to the front. Jumping between leader Jim Kimmel and Shannon Pospisil, both of Norfolk, down the backstretch.

By the time they exited turn four, Buck was leading with four laps remaining. Buck slowly pulled away to pick up the victory.

Kimmel and Pospisil battled for second until Pospisil slowed. Kimmel took second for his best effort this season.

Mark Arduser of Battle Creek also got by Pospisil for third. Pospisil rolled through fourth and Nic Kimmel of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

In the point standings, the Hobby Stock class has the closest battle for the championship. Defending points champion, Jason Wilkinson of Neligh leads Lance Mielke of Norfolk by four points.

Nate Buck celebrates after winning his second feature of the season.

The top 3 in the Hobby Stocks were: Mark Arduser (3rd), Jim Kimmel (2nd) and Nate Buck (1st)

Jeremy Hoskinson (26), Allen Zimmerman (83z) and Tanner Pettitt (2T) race in their heat race. Pettitt later finished second in the feature as Hoskinson took third.

Chad Bruns (11) finished fourth in the feature.

Derek Sehi (16s) placed fifth in the feature.

Tanner Cunningham (55) nearly flips after cars stack up in their heat race.

Ben Sukup (07) races with Devin Johnson (7J) in their heat race. Sukup later won his third feature of the season as Johnson finished second.

Two straight for Sukup

With eight laps remaining in the feature, Norfolk's Ben Sukup looked to have kicked it into another gear and picked up his third win of the season and his second straight victory.

The defending champion was wrestling with Travis Banks for the third spot for nearly five laps, but Sukup took off for the front of the field.

In one lap, Sukup went from fourth to second, overtaking both Banks and Devin Johnson of Bloomington.

A couple laps later he was challenging Travis Banks of Wakefield for the lead. Once out front, Sukup moved away from the field and won by a straightaway.

Banks crossed the line second, as Birkley finished third. Birkley led 13 laps after inheriting the lead from Cory Dumpert of York, who ran over debris causing major damage to his car.

Chase Osborne of Norfolk crossed the line fourth and Johnson finished fifth.

In the points battle, Kyle Prauner of Norfolk had a worse finish of the season last week. Osborne, who is second in the standings, gained points to close the gap to 10 points going into the champions night. Johnson sits third in the standings, two points behind Osborne.

Alex Banks (12B) finished second in the feature.

Travis Birkley won his heat race and he later led 13 laps in the feature where he finished third.

Kyle Prauner (5K) leaves the track on the hook. Prauner's points lead drops to 10 over Chase Osborne.
