Welcome SLMR drivers

Kyle Prauner (5k) and Ben Sukup (07) compete in their heat race. Sukup won the feature. Prauner finished 10th to tie for the championship. He won the tie breaker with the more wins.

Sukup wins feature

Prauner takes championship

With a tough season behind him, Ben Sukup dominated the last part of the season as he won the feature last week.

The Norfolk driver had only seven top 5s in 13 nights of racing but finished the season with three straight feature victories.

Sukup started on the pole alongside Zach Zentner of Cedar Rapids. Sukup, who won the 2020 track title, pulled away after the start and re-starts and won the feature by a straightaway.

Chase Osborne finished second, which eventually tied him for the points title.

Kyle Prauner of Norfolk entered the night with a 10-point lead in the points. Osborne knocked it down to eight after the heat race, which awarded him with two points.

It was on lap 11 when Prauner flew off the exit ramp with a flat tire. A red flag was thrown to make sure no spectators were injured and check on the driver.

Stanton's Nelson Vollbrecht, who had retired from the race earlier, assisted Prauner and got him back on the track.

With the race restarting, Prauner was nearly a half a lap back when the green dropped. He was 11th at the time. In the final 14 laps Prauner managed to catch the back of the field and eventually pass two cars.

When the dust settled Osborne and Prauner were tied for the title. Prauner's three wins on the season was the tie breaker, as Osborne had one victory.

It was Prauner's first year in the Late Model, however, not his first track championship. Prauner won the SportMod title in 2015 and 2016.

For the young Osborne, it was his second straight runner-up finish in the title hunt. Osborne won the title in 2017.

The top 3 in the Late Models were Devin Johnson (3rd), Chase Osborne (2nd) and Ben Sukup (1st).

Cameron Meyer (21) and Jeremy Gnat (38) race in their heat. Meyer won the championship as Gnat was second.

Thome wins feature Meyer takes championship

Making his third appearance at the track, Robbie Thome of Spalding won the SportMod feature last week.

Pierce's Cameron Meyer locked up the championship when he took the green flag.

He finished 18 points ahead of Jeremy Gnat of Battle Creek. It was Meyer's second title at the track in the SportMods. He won the title in 2019, 10 points ahead of Thome.

Last week, Thome led all 20 laps. James Roebuck, who had won the last four nights, challenged Thome late in the feature and could not find the grip he needed to make the pass.

Thome took the win by a several car lengths over Roebuck. Third went to Colby Langenberg of Norfolk. Jonathan Jensen of Norfolk grabbed a fourth-place finish.

Meyer finished fifth, one position ahead of Gnat.

Robbie Thome (1T) won his first feature of the season at the track.

The top 3 in the SportMods were Colby Langenberg (3rd), James Roebuck (2nd) and Robbie Thome (1st).

Jason Wilkinson (52) won the feature to claim the championship as well.

Wilkinson wins feature, championship

Neligh's Jason Wilkinson found himself starting on the front row for the main event in the Hobby Stock division.

The defending and current points leader led all 15 laps to claim his second Hobby Stock title and his fourth title at the track. Wilkinson won the Stock Car title back-to-back years in 2017 and 2018.

Stephanie Reynolds of Norfolk added a different excitement to the race when she got caught up in an incident that left her balancing on the top of the turn one wall.

She was able to climb from the vehicle as the safety crew stabilized the car.

Following the red flag, Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk was Wilkinson's closest competition as a three-way battle for third place heated up.

Nic Kimmel, Lance Mielke, Wyatt Lehman and Max Andersen duked it out for several laps before Colby Kaspar of Columbus added his vehicle to the mix.

A late caution bunched the field and on the restart, Wilkinson drifted away for the win, as Kaspar edged out Pospisil at the line for second. Pospisil took third and Lehman placed fourth.

Rounding out the top 5 was Dustin Jackson of O'Neill.

Stephanie Reynolds (96R) exits her stock car after an incident in front of her put her on the wall.

The top 3 in the Hobby Stocks were Shannon Pospisil (2nd), Jason Wilkinson (1st) and Colby Kaspar (3rd).

Chad Bruns captured the championship after finishing fourth in the feature.

Wilkinson wins feature

Bruns takes championship

After a couple of bad nights for Cameron Wilkinson, the Neligh driver capped off the points season with his sixth win of the season.

The two nights, a disqualification and a mechanical problem, took him from winning his second Stock Car title to finishing second.

Waiting in the wings, Wakefield's Chad Bruns grabbed another Stock Car title, his third title at the track.

Last week, Ron Pettitt of Norfolk led the opening lap before Ryan Steckelberg of Norfolk flipped his stock car three times. Steckelberg was taken from the track by the safety crew to an ambulance.

Once racing got back started, Pettitt led once more before Bruns moved out front. Wilkinson then ran Bruns down and led the final 13 laps.

Following Wilkinson to the checkered flag was once again his brother Kyle Wilkinson of Neligh. Third place went to Austin Brauner of Platte Center and then Bruns.

Rounding out the top 5 was Derek Sehi of Neligh.

The top 3 in the Stock Cars were Austin Jackson (3rd), Cameron Wilkinson (1st), Kyle Wilkinson (2nd).
