by Randy Pospishil

Drivers capitalized on starting positions at or near the front of the field Saturday night at Off Road Speedway. Winners in three of the four regular classes started on the outside of the front row, with the outlier — Cory Dumpert of York — occupying the outside position in the second row, although each had to hold off late challengers during caution restarts, especially late in the race.

Dumpert, who finished second in the previous IMCA Late Models "A" feature after starting in the fifth row, took over the lead from Zach Zentner following a caution that brought Zentner back to the pack.

Dumpert passed Zentner on the outside with 20 laps remaining and held off Zentner's bids to retake the lead for several laps before Norfolk's Tad Pospisil took over second place and the chase continued.

Three cautions — the last creating a green-white-checkered finish — gave Pospisil and Zentner opportunities on the restarts, but Dumpert held off any attempts to pass and sped to the win with Pospisil finishing second and Zentner, of Cedar Rapids, in third.

Likewise, in the IMCA Stock Cars feature, Norfolk's Ron Pettitt earned his first Off Road Speedway win of the season by leading all 20 laps — maintaining the lead with Justin Berschinger of Norfolk in pursuit for most of those — despite four cautions. The last was a green-white-checkered finish that brought Neligh's Cameron Wilkinson to his rear bumper.

Wilkinson's attempts to pass on the inside of both turns four and five were unsuccessful during the final lap, as was a late charge by Platte Center driver Austin Brauner.

The IMCA Hobby Stocks followed suit, as Albion driver Ryan Fajman stayed in the lead all 15 laps of the feature.

Norfolk's Lance Mielke, who started on the pole, chased Fajman for the initial five laps until giving way to Jason Wilkinson of Neligh following the race's first caution. Fajman crossed the finish line first in front of Taylor Huss of Fairbury, who started on the outside of the sixth row of the 20-car field. Huss joined the fray with five laps left, edging Wilkinson on the final lap to take second place and forcing Wilkinson to settle for third. In the IMCA SportMods "A" feature, Norfolk's Colby Langenberg chased James Roebuck all 15 laps, but Roebuck didn't allow Langenberg's multiple attempts to pass on the inside to be successful.

Roebuck, of Genoa, secured the win with Langenberg finishing second and Cameron Meyer of Pierce in third.

The 600 cc Micro Sprints made a return appearance at the track with Jaden Friensen of Norfolk winning the "non-winged" feature ahead of second-place finisher Greg Berry of Columbus and Matthew Laflin of Beatrice in third.

In the "winged" Micro Sprint feature, Jason Friensen of Sutton took first, Jaden Friensen took second and Evan Semerad of Malcolm was third.

On Saturday, along with a regular night of points racing, Off Road Speedway will host the 360 Sprints and the MSTs 360 Midwest Sprint Touring Series.
