Regular Racing season begins at OffRoad Speedway

By RANDY POSPISHIL

The regular racing season and, with it, the chase for individual points championships began Saturday night at Off Road Speedway.

The feature winners in the five classes competing on a weekly basis at the track were Anthony Roth in the IMCA Late Models division, Cameron Wilkinson (IMCA Stock Cars), Nic Kimmel (IMCA Hobby Stocks), James Roebuck (IMCA SportMods) and Trent Reed in the newly renamed Pro Stock 4 division.

Roth, a Columbus racer, started on the outside of row two in the Late Models “A” feature and remained among the top five during the first half of the race while Newman Grove’s Cory Dumpert held the lead. With 11 laps left in the 25-lap race, a caution created an opportunity for Roth to get to the front. Dumpert drifted high in turn two before diving back to the inside — attempting to occupy the space between Roth and Chase Osborne — but as the cars sped down the backstretch, Roth had the lead. The final nine laps became a two-car competition for the win between Roth and the pursuing Dumpert while Nelson Vollbrecht, Devin Johnson and Osborne battled for third place several car lengths behind them. Roth held on for the win with Dumpert taking second and Vollbrecht of Stanton finishing third.

A starting position on the inside of row two contributed to Wilkinson’s victory in the Stock Cars “A” feature. The Neligh racer took over the lead just two laps into the race. Wilkinson established a substantial lead quickly with Norfolk’s Tejay Mielke also in solid control of second place. Meadow Grove driver Justin Addison outdueled Chad Bruns of Wayne to take third.

Nic Kimmel of Hoskins led all 15 laps in his IMCA Hobby Stocks feature win despite two restarts and a caution, but the end of the race became the equivalent of a photo finish. Behind Kimmel, Norfolk’s Lance Mielke came out on top of a multiple-car battle for second with Dustin Jackson, Mark Arduser, Wyatt Lehman, Joe Beller and Jace Malasek, then fell just a split-second short of overtaking Kimmel at the finish line. Jackson of O’Neill took third place.

In the SportMods class, Roebuck captured his “A” feature win by seizing the lead midway through the 15-lap race. Roebuck, in turn four, and Pierce driver Cameron Meyer, in turn two, both passed race leader Kyle Wilkinson and spent the remainder of the race navigating their way through lapped traffic. Roebuck of Genoa earned the win with Meyer taking second and Kyle Wilkinson of Neligh finishing third.

The Pro Stock 4 “A” feature began as a rough-and-tumble affair between the two cars starting side-by-side in the front row — Bentley Freeman of Norfolk and Trent Reed of Mondamin, Iowa. Halfway through the 10-lap feature, as the pair rolled into turns one and two, Freeman’s car lost contact with the racing surface and, upon regaining its traction in the middle of the curve, rolled multiple times before coming to rest atop the wall in turn two. When the race resumed, Reed maintained control of the final five laps while Kyle Reed and Zach Corder — both of Norfolk — took second and third place, respectively.

On Saturday, May 18, Off Road Speedway is scheduled to welcome the 360 Winged Sprint Cars of the Midwest Sprint Touring Series as well as the IMCA Late Models, IMCA Stock Cars, IMCA Hobby Stocks and the Pro Stock 4 cars.
