Robert Osborne (35) slips through the crack as Travis Birkley (78), Eric Vanosdall (9) and Brad Vogt (11) go four wide during the feature. Osborne won the feature.

Osborne takes his first win of season

After three quick cautions in the first four laps of the feature, Norfolk's Robert Osborne took advantage of the early track position and picked up his first win of the 2014 season.

Osborne was sitting second behind Creighton's Mike Babcock on the final restart, when he slipped out front of the field at the drop of the green to lead the final 21 laps.

Osborne had a half-a-lap lead when he caught the back of the field on lap 16. Pierce's Bob Milander, who got caught up in an early incident, was one of the lapped cars and raced Osborne side-by-side for three laps.

During this time, Win-side's Eric Vanosdall closed the gap to a half a straight-away, before running out of laps.

Osborne won. Vanosdall, who moved into second on lap 14, finished second. Jim Johnson slid into the third position on lap 19 for third.

Chris Johnson of Bloomfield placed fourth and Ben Sukup of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Bob Milander (77B), Ben Sukup (07x) and Rusty Glosser (02) ended up the victims after another vehicle spun out of them.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) struggled the first night, but came back last week to win the feature.

Meyer back to winning

After getting caught up in an incident opening night, it was no surprise to see defending track champion and IMCA champion Ramsey Meyer of Pierce winning the second night out.

Meyer started on the inside of the second row and passed Thomas Dow of Norfolk on the second lap. The 12-lap feature was caution free as Meyer won by half-a-lap.

Drew Johnson passed Dow on lap 9 for second place. Former track champion Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk made a run at Johnson, but came up short for a third place finish.

Two past Junior Hornet drivers finished fourth and fifth.

Lance Mielke of Norfolk took the fourth position and Bristol Arneson of Norfolk was fifth in his first "A" feature appearance.

Rookie Bristol Arneson (51B) and former track champion Shannon Pospisil (00) battle in the feature.

Drew Johnson (37) took home a second place finish, as Lance Mielke (7) placed fourth in the feature.
