Karl Brewer (13K) picked up his second feature win of the season.

Above, Brandon Poessnecker (52P) and Matt Haase (right) compete in their heat race.

Brewer returns to victory circle

Karl Brewer of Vermillion had four appearances in the feature in the two previous seasons and already this season in five starts, he has two wins.

Brewer started seventh in the 12-car field and quickly broke into the top 3 on lap four when he passed four cars in turn two alone.

Joey Haase led the first six laps before Justin Addison of Norfolk pulled out front when Joey slid up the track. Brewer then passed Haase and went after Addison.

Addison chose the high side and Brewer worked the lower side with Nelson Vollbrecht of Stanton at his bumper.

Racing side-by-side for five laps, Brewer finally got the advantage on Addison to take over the top spot just before the only caution came out.

On the restart, Brewer jumped out to small lead for the three-lap shootout. Vollbrecht tussled with Addison for second and was unable to run down Brewer.

Brewer won, Vollbrecht second and Addison third.

Fourth went to Matt Haase of Norfolk and Cameron Meyer of Pierce rounded out the top 5.

Derek Sehi (16s) won his heat race.

Kandie Haase (K2) took the checkered flag first in her heat race and the main feature.

Smidt takes third career win

It was her third career win at the track, but it has been since 2009 when she last won.

Norfolk's Kandie Smidt, daughter of legend racer Raymond Haase, pulled into the winner's circle in tears.

It was no easy task for Smidt to pull off the win. Smidt got a good start and was running second but fell back to third. Regrouping, Smidt started getting a good launch off the corners and challenge not just for second but for the lead. By lap nine, Smidt was leading the pack.

Behind her, Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk and Ramsey Meyer of Pierce and Mielke battled for the second spot.

On the final lap, Meyer and Lehman raced hard into three and four, but could not catch Smidt.

Smidt won, Lehman second and Meyer third. Fourth went to Dustin Jackson of O'Neill and Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Wyatt Lehman (6) won was second in the feature.

Lance Mielke (7) leads a group in his heat race.

Above, Ramsey Meyer (21R) and Brooke Fluckiger (2B) compete in their heat race. Below, Dustin Jackson (22x) leads Shannon Pospisil (00) and Tanner Uehling (58T).
