Hoskinson takes win

There were two quick cautions in the Hobby Stock feature, as Jeremy Hoskinson came from his seventh place starting position to capture his second win of the season.

Tracy Buck of Neligh started on the pole and led the first eight laps, as Hoskinson wrestled with former track champion Jim Kimmel of Norfolk.

Hoskinson worked the low side, but found success when he moved to the high side to pass Kimmel and Nate DeSive of Verdigre three laps later.

It was a lap later, Hoskinson dove to the inside of Buck for the lead. Once out front Hoskinson checked out, winning by half a straightway.

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk took home second getting by Buck on lap 13. Buck took his second top 5 placing third. DeSive grabbed his first top 5 finishing fourth.
