Kyle Prauner (5k) won his second feature of the season.

Prauner wins again

By this time last season in the SportMod division, Kyle Prauner of Norfolk had racked up five wins, but with a new car and different type of chassis, he has had his hands full.

Prauner returned the winner's circle for the second time this season to give him five top 5s in six nights of racing.

Joey Haase of Norfolk led the first lap before David Johnson of Monroe led the next 10.

Prauner moved into the top 3 on lap seven and challenged

Johnson for several laps before Prauner made the pass on the outside with seven laps remaining to pick up the win.

Johnson fell another spot as he was taking the white flag. Todd Boulware of Jefferson finished second, as Johnson captured third.

Justin Addison of Norfolk ran behind Johnson for most of the race placed fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Matt Haase of Norfolk.

Todd Boulware (14) finished second in the feature.

Justin Addison (26J) grabbed his third top 5 of the season when he finished fourth last week.

Tanner Uehling (58T) cruised to his first Sport Compact win after graduating from the Junior Hornets last season.

Uehling victorious

It was on lap six when Tanner Uehling's car was sideways on the track after he just made the pass for the lead. But the guy that knocked the Norfolk teen sideways, knocked him back straight and Uehling never missed a beat to win his first Sport Compact race.

The former Junior Hornet driver started on the outside of the front row and followed

Thomas Dow of Norfolk, who led the first five laps.

After Uehling grabbed the lead it was a pushing match for second as four cars went side-by-side into turn one. It was reduced to three wide on the exit of two with Kandie Smidt of Norfolk taking the position.

Uehling won, Smidt was second and Ramsey Meyer of Pierce grabbed third.

Ramsey Meyer (21r) finished third in the feature.
