Coover victorious

Sharing a ride for the first two years and piloting the car solo since 2011, Neligh's Travis Coover has come up short of winning numerous times.

Last Saturday, Coover made the drive to the winner's circle for the first time in the Hobby Stock division.

And it was not an easy road, as the race was marred by six cautions and the longest green flag run was four laps.

Coover battle for the lead early, but caution erased a pass for the lead. Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk snuck by to lead laps five and six, but broke and spun in turn four.

Coover raced out front locked horns with first Colby Langenberg and then TeJay Mielke, both of Norfolk.

Mielke did have a run on Coover for the lead, but Langenberg gave Coover a good shove into turn three. For the final two laps, Coover and Mielke ricocheted off each other. Coover won the drag race to the checkered for his first victory.

Mielke was second by a half bumper, Third place went to Langenberg. Fourth was Nate DeSive of Verdigre. Rounding out the top 5 was new comer Roger Timperley of Tekamah.

Nate DeSive (31K) took his second top 5 finish when he finished fourth in the feature.

First time to the track, Roger Timperley (52R) placed fifth in the feature.

Chad Bruns (65) won his heat race and later finished third in the feature after leading the race.

Kyle Prauner (5K) runs his heat race and later placed fourth in the feature.

Brandon Poessnecker (52p) sported a new look.

Todd Boulware took his fourth top 5 finish last week when he finished second in the main event.
