Nelson Vollbrecht (11x) grabbed his second feature of the season.

Cameron Meyer (21) grabbed his second place finish last week after he led 14 laps in the feature.

Brandon Poessnecker (52P) won his heat race and later finished fourth in the feature.

Vollbrecht leads final three to win

The 18-lap feature may have come down to a two-lap shootout, but it was the first 16 laps that provided the most excitement.

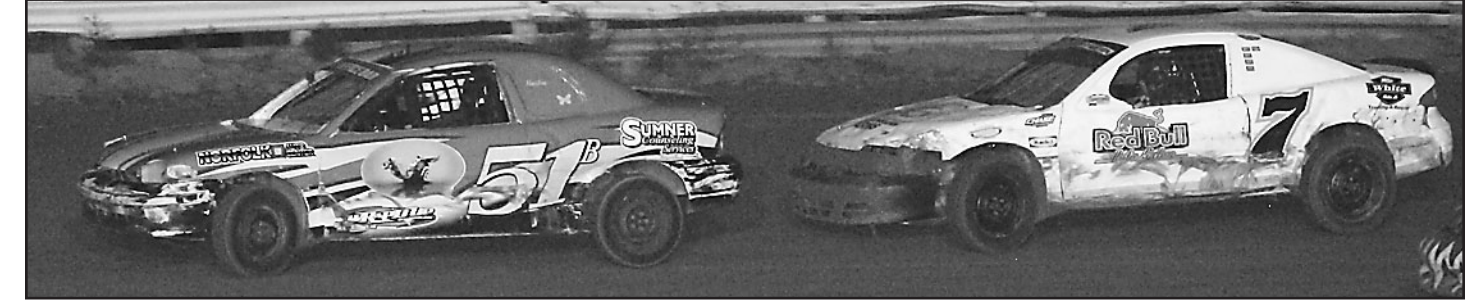

Stanton's Nelson Vollbrecht won the feature taking the lead one lap before the only caution period of the race after lap 16 was completed.

Cameron Meyer of Pierce led 14 laps and at one point led by a straightaway. But slowly Brandon Poessnecker of Atkinson and Vollbrecht closed the gap.

Poessnecker was the first to catch Meyer and a lap later Vollbrecht joined the two at the front of the pack.

On lap 16, Vollbrecht threw his car to the inside of both cars and found the grip he needed and passed both cars for the lead. One lap later the caution came out.

Vollbrecht won, Meyer took second, and Kyle Prauner of Norfolk was third. Poessnecker placed fourth and Justin Addison of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Bristol Arneson (51B) led two laps in the feature, before Lance Mielke took over the top spot to lead the final six laps for his first win of the season. Both drivers graduated from the Junior Hornets division last season.

Young Mielke victorious

It has been a while since a car has gone through the "B" feature and later won the "A" feature.

Lance Mielke did just that when he finished second to Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus in the "B" feature.

Starting 14th in the 15-car field, Mielke maneuvered his way through the field and cautions on his way to the front.

Six cautions slowed field throughout the entire race.

However, Mielke broke into the top 3 by lap four on the second restart. One lap later, leader Kandie Smidt broke giving Bristol Arneson of Norfolk the lead and Mielke second.

It would be two restarts later when Mielke drove to the inside of Arneson for the lead.

Mielke went on to win and Thomas Dow of Norfolk was second. Fluckiger edged Arneson at the line for third.

Rounding out the top 5 was Codie Mielke of Norfolk.

Codie Mielke (77) pushed in turn four and into Drew Johnson (37). Mielke later finished fifth in the feature.

Thomas Dow (30) finished second in his heat race and second in his feature.

Brooke Fluckiger (2B) scored her fifth top 5 when she finished third in the feature.
