Sukup battles to the win

After a long night of racing and close battles in most of the early race, the Grand Nationals did not disappoint the crowd.

It came down to an eight lap shootout as Ben Sukup of Norfolk and Jim Johnson of Plainview exchanging the lead, before Sukup led the final two laps for the win.

However, in the first 16 laps it looked like Wakefield's Travis Birkley was going to run away with the win, but he wrestled with a lapped vehicle and ended up spinning out.

Bloomfield's Chris Johnson was locked in a side-by-side battled with Sukup for second when he had nowhere to go and collided with Birkley ended the night of both drivers.

On the restart, Sukup led two laps before Jim Johnson made the pass on the high side when hooked up with the cushion.

But as they came to take the white flag Johnson jumped the cushion and Sukup slipped back by to win his first feature of the season.

Jim Johnson took second as Robert Osborne of Norfolk placed third. Chad Jensen of Norfolk crossed the line fourth and Doug Tomka of Stanton rounded out the top 5.

Robert Osborne placed third in the feature.

Doug Tomka (3) picked up his fifth top 5 when he finished fifth last week,

Thomas Dow (30) picked up his first feature win last week as Colby Kaspar (39) took second.

Dow takes first Sport Compact victory

Thomas Dow of Norfolk has been fast all year and finally last week, Dow pulled into victory lane leading all 12 laps.

Dow started on the outside of the front row and went straight to the front.

It was a close battle for the second position with Colby Kaspar of Norfolk controlling the spot for the 12 laps.

Lance Mielke of Norfolk was the first to challenge Kaspar before Brooke Fluckiger of Columbus worked on his back bumper.

Mielke took the win and Kaspar was second by car length over Fluckiger. Ramsey Meyer of Pierce placed fourth and rounding out the top 5 was Dustin Jackson of O'Neill.

Brooke Fluckiger (2B) and Drew Johnson (37) battle in the feature. Fluckiger finished third in the race.

Ramsey Meyer (21R) finished fourth in the feature, as Shannon Pospisil (00) was seventh.

Dustin Jackson (22x) took home fifth in the feature.
