Osborne takes second victory of the season

Locked in a battle with Dean Wilkinson of Oakdale and Doug Tomka of Stanton in the first part of the race, Norfolk's Robert Osborne took the lead with 12 laps left in the 25-lap feature to win his second of the season.

Osborne is the only driver to finish in the top 5 each night.

Jim Johnson of Plainview maneuvered through the field and by lap 18 was second. For most of the final laps, Johnson could get to Osborne's bumper through the corner, but was unable to find the grip off the corners.

won the week before, finished second for his third top 5 of the season.

Wilkinson, who led 12 laps, crossed the line third for his second top 5. Tomka led the first lap and finished fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Chris Johnson of Bloomfield.

Travis Birkley of Wakefield and Chad Jensen of Norfolk each won their first heat races of the season.

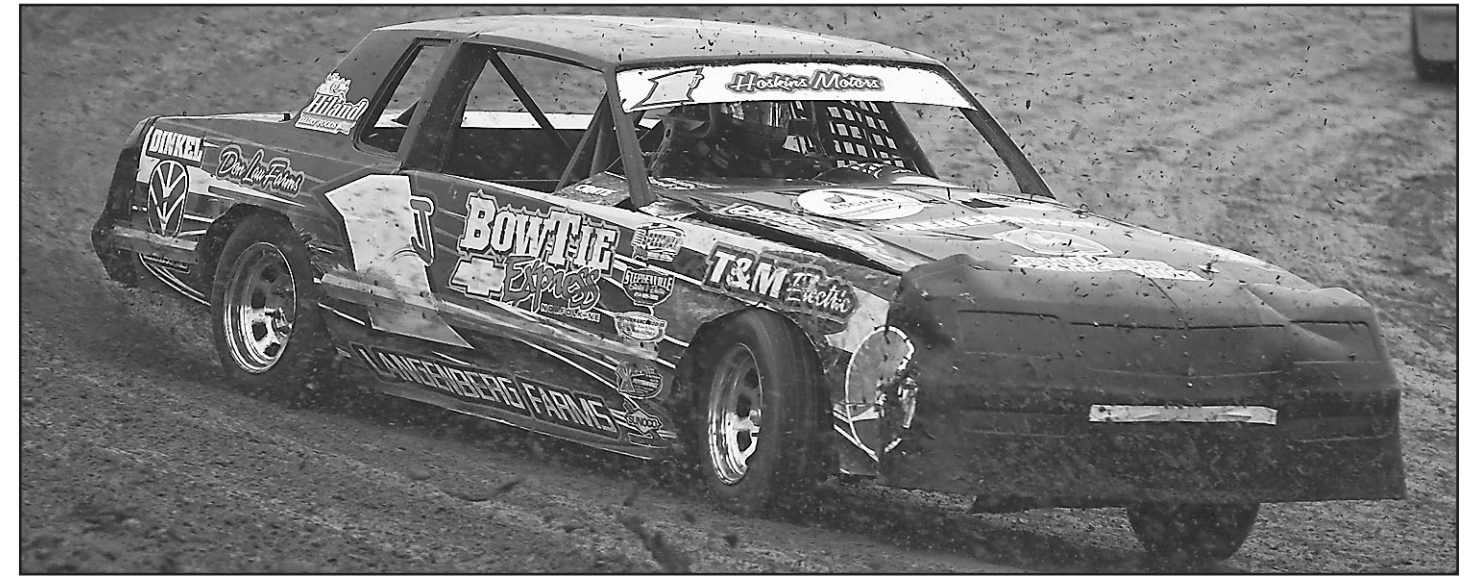

Johnson, who

Chris Johnson posted his third top five finish of the season last week, when he placed fifth. Justin Bertschinger (90) took home sixth.

Cars got stacked up at the start of the feature race, last week, which backed up the cars behind.

This is the cut line type for the words under the pictures. Now I need to check and see something.

Langenberg does it again

Norfolk's Colby Langenberg had his hands full with Larry Remsing, also of Norfolk, during the first part of the feature last week.

Remsing led the first eight laps and kept Langenberg stuck on the bottom. Remsing bobbled in turn two and Langenberg jumped out front and led the final 7 circuits.

Remsing then got caught behind lapped traffic and Tiffany

Bittner of Norfolk slid by but a caution negated the pass.

On the restart, Bittner had to content with defending track champion Jason Wilkinson of Neligh, who made the pass and a lap later was passing Remsing for second.

Langenberg won, Wilkinson was second, Remsing was third with Bittner fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Mark Arduser of Battle Creek.

Jason Wilkinson (52) leads Brent Harrill through turn four in their heat race.

Larry Remsing picked up his first top 5 of the season, finishing third in the feature. He also won his heat race.
