Boulware captures win

In the SportMods, it came down to who had the better run off the corners, as Sioux City's Greg Taylor and Jefferson's Todd Boulware squared off. the back straightway with Boulware having the inside line. Boulware took the win, but Taylor would fall one more position when Kyle Prauner of Taylor led 16 of the 18-lap feature, and at one point he led by a straightaway. Cautions bunched the field and set up the finish.

Leader Taylor worked the bottom and second place Boulware worked the top, but the pass for the win came when Boulware dove to the inside of Taylor exiting turn two with two laps remaining.

They dragged down

Todd Boulware (14) gets a big hug after his victory last week.

James Kleinheksel (7w) and Greg Taylor (55) each took a top 5 finish last week. Kleinheksel was fifth and Taylor finished third.

Pospisil won his heat race and the feature.

Pospisil does it again

The Sport Compact got off to a slow start or maybe a too quick of a start, as drivers kept jumping the start.

Four more cautions hampered the featured race before the final eight laps of the 12-lap feature went uninterrupted.

Dustin Jackson of O'Neill led a total of 5 laps, after Michael Clemens of Norfolk led the first lap.

On the final restart, Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk went to work from the third position. He downed Clemens in the first corner and passed Jackson for the lead two laps later.

Jackson never gave up and was on Pospisil's quarter panel for several laps.

Pospisil took his second win of the season. Ramsey Meyer of Pierce drove hard on the final lap to make the pass on Jackson for second. Jackson was third.

Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk took his fifth top 5 finish at fourth place.

Rounding out the top 5 was Gabe Barclay of Hubbard.

Dustin Jackson (22x) took a third place finish in the feature.
