

Jason Wilkinson (52) takes second feature win of the season.

Wilkinson's second win

The Hobby Stock class came down to the final laps, with Neligh's Jason Wilkinson making the pass for the lead as he took the white flag.

Colby Langenberg of Norfolk led 12 of the 15 laps starting on lap two when he made a pass on Jared Relitz of Emerson.

Langenberg got through traffic passing four cars in just over a half-a-lap. Wilkinson, who followed Langenberg, made it halfway through before a caution came out.

On the restart, Langenberg took off, Wilkinson restarted fourth. By the time Wilkinson got to second, Langenberg had pulled a half straightaway lead.

Wilkinson slowly reeled in Langenberg and was on his bumper when another yellow flag was thrown.

It was a five-lap dash to the finish with Langenberg leading until the white flag lap when Wilkinson drove to the inside.

It was Wilkinson second win of the season. Langenberg was second and Mark Arduser of Battle taking third.

Jeb Dunklau (65D) spins out, as Nate DeSive (31K), Gage Koch (96) and Travis Coover (7-11) make it around. Coover later finished fourth in the feature.

Mark Arduser (4) placed third in the feature, last week. He is celebrating his 50th birthday. Inset photo was when he was two.

Jensen takes first win of season

It was about lap six into the 25-lap feature when Chad Jensen of Norfolk got his car starting to go to the front, but it would be until lap 14 following a caution when he took the lead.

Nate Behmer of Hoskins led the first four laps, before Mike Benson of Wakefield jumped out front with the right front fender sticking in the air from a first-lap incident.

Benson, Jensen and Justin Bertschinger of Norfolk battle side-by-side for six laps, before Jensen moved out front, however, another caution erased the pass and Jensen was back in second.

On the restart, Jensen went to the high side around Benson to make the pass for the lead.

Jensen pulled away from the field, as Benson and Bertschinger locked horns for several laps.

Bertschinger took second, with Jim Johnson of Plainview making a pass on Benson for third as they took the white flag lap.

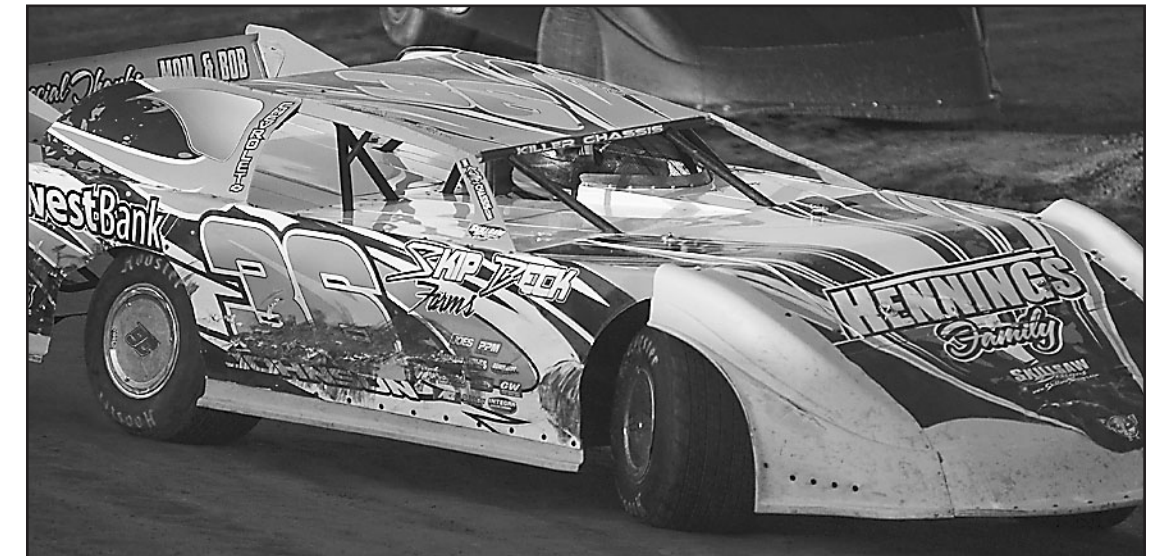

Benson finished fourth and Robert Osborne of Norfolk fifth.

Mike Babcock gets out of shape in his heat race, as Robert Osborne (35) goes high to get around.

Justin Bertschinger (90) finished second in the feature.

Jim Johnson (36) stayed in the top 5 for more of the feature, where he finished third.

Nate Behmer (07) led four laps in the feature.

A slick dry track was too much, as cars stacked up on the first lap.
