But it was not an easy nine laps, Mark Arduser of Battle Creek was knocking on Buck's bumper and just before the caution came out had gotten to the inside.

Following the restart, Buck went back to work with Arduser, Larry Remsing of Norfolk and Jason Wilkinson of Neligh

Travis Birkley (78) won his first feature of the season, as he led the last 10 laps.

Birkley claims first win on perfect night

The last thing Wakefield's Travis Birkley wanted to see was a caution to come out with four laps remaining.

Birkley had a straightaway lead on the second place car of Chris Johnson of Bloomfield and well on his way to the win. However, it did not matter, Birkley took off again on the final restart and won easily pulling away from the field again.

Chase Osborne of Norfolk

led the first six laps, before Dean Wilkinson of Oakdale slipped by to lead lap seven. Wilkinson led nine laps when Birkley took advantage on the inside when Wilkinson jumped the cushion on the high side.

Johnson got by Wilkinson following the caution with four laps remaining to take second place, as Robert Osborne of Norfolk got by Wilkinson to take the white flag. Osborne was third and Wilkinson was fourth.

Eric Vansodall of Winside rounded out the top 5.

Travis Birkley receives a hug after winning the feature.
