

After a slow start to the season, Ramsey Meyer (21R) is firing on all cylinders and won his third straight feature and his eighth top 5.

Meyer tears through field

With no caution flags, Ramsey Meyer of Pierce had to use his speed to capture his third-straight feature win.

Meyer had to chase down Dustin Jackson of O'Neill, who led the first seven laps.

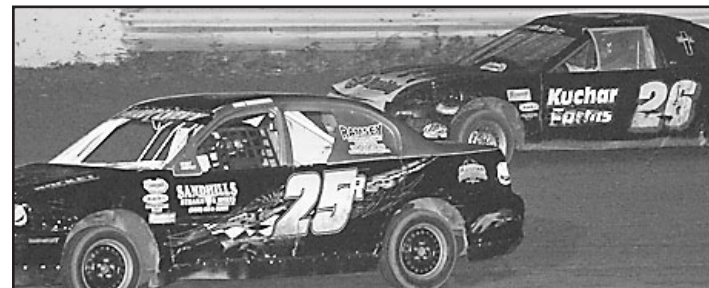

Jackson has been fast in previous weeks, but mechanical issues have been hampering him.

Meyer jumped into the third position on lap three and five laps later he was second behind Jackson.

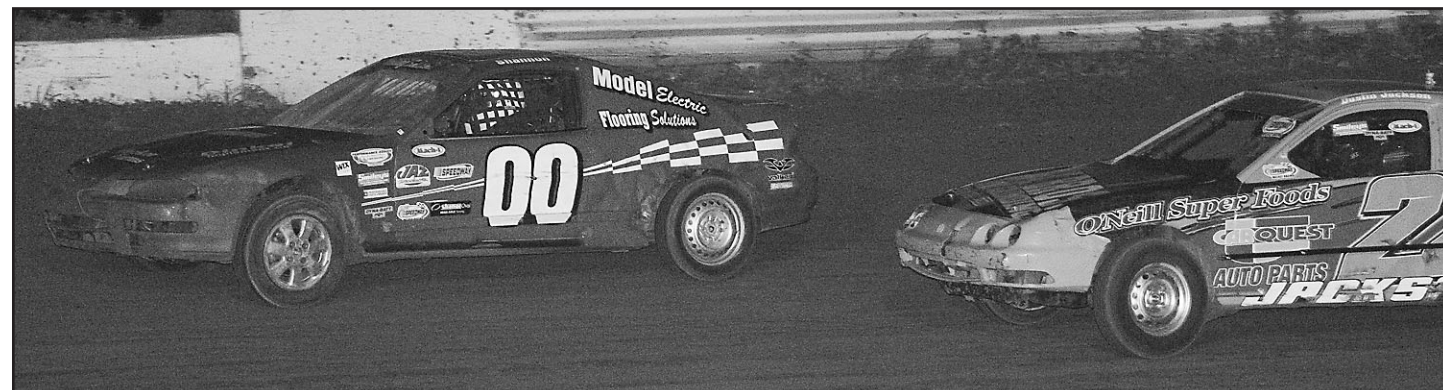

Going high Meyer made the pass for the lead with Shannon Pospisil of Norfolk hot on his heels.

Pospisil closed the gap and was knocking at his bumper with two laps remaining. Pospisil made a last lap effort, but came up short.

Meyer won, Pospisil second and Jackson was third. Fourth went to Wyatt Lehman of Norfolk and Phillip Mrsny of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

Phillip Mrsny (26) took a top 5 finish and Riley Williamson (25R) finished sixth in the feature.

Shannon Pospisil (00) and Dustin Jackson (22x) compete in the feature. Pospisil worked his way through the feature to finish a close second. Jackson got by his mechanical problems from previous weeks and finished third.

Jeremy Hoskinson (26) had a different experience on his second trip to the track. The first night he left the track early, his second night he won his heat race and the feature.

No problem for Hoskinson

Norfolk's Jeremy Hoskinson had a different experience July 3 than the Saturday before.

On June 29, his first stop at the track, Hoskinson left his heat race with no front fenders and bumper.

This time he started on the pole and never looked back as the final 10 laps went uninterrupted.

Hoskinson opened up such a large lead, when he pushed in turn four twice, he was never challenged for the lead. He still won the race by a half straightaway. The runner-up spot was a battle for most of the second half of the race between Colby Langenberg of Norfolk and Jason Wilkinson of Neligh.

Langenberg crossed second by less than a car length over Wilkinson. Fourth went to Tiffany Bittner of Norfolk, who made a run at Wilkinson on the final lap.

Rounding out the top 5 was Andrew Gehring of Platte Center.

Andrew Gehring (23R) had his best night of the season finishing fifth in feature.

Kyle Wilkinson (52) made his return to the track, after winning last year in the Junior Hornets.

Colby Langenberg (1J) finished second in the feature.

Ben Sukup drove to victory lane after winning the feature for his first victory of the season.

Sukup tops the field

It came down to a five lap shootout with Ben Sukup of Norfolk taking the checkered flags first.

Starting from the inside of the second row, Sukup watched the front row struggle in the first turn. He jumped out front to take the lead on the backstretch.

Two quick cautions kept the field bunched for the first three laps, but when the race went 18 laps, Sukup and Doug Tomka of Stanton were battling for the lead.

Tomka worked on the back bumper of Sukup, but Sukup kept the door closed.

On lap 16, Tomka did manage to get a good run on Sukup, but spun himself out to avoid knocking both cars out.

He recovered and a caution came out with five laps remaining.

Tomka took advantage of the restart and passed Sukup to lead lap 22. However, Sukup made the same move on Tomka on the next lap and regained the top spot.

Sukup went on to win, Tomka was second Rusty Glosser of Norfolk was third and Jim Johnson of Plainview finished fourth. Travis Birkley of Wakefield rounded out the top 5.

Doug Tomka (3) and Ben Sukup (101) battled for most of the 25 laps. Sukup won and Tomka was second.

Chris Johnson (71) won his heat race.

Jim Johnson (36) runs inside of Mike Benson (71) in their heat race. Johnson was fourth in the feature.

Travis Birkley (78) took another top 5 finish at the fifth spot July 3.
