

Shannon Pospisil (00) won his third feature last week leading the final seven laps.

Pospisil's third victory

There was only one caution in the Sport Compact feature and it could not have come at a better time for eventual race winner Shannon Pospisil.

The Norfolk driver was stuck in a three-way battle with Ramsey Meyer of Pierce and Jayme Bargholz of Pender. The trio was throwing caution to the wind as they went sometimes four wide to work their way to the front.

The caution allowed Pospisil to line up first and three laps after the restart Pospisil was passing Riley Williamson of Bartlett for the lead on lap six.

Once out front Pospisil slowly pulled away for his third win of the season.

Meyer settled for second and Williamson placed third for his best showing for the season.

Riley Williamson (25R) posted his first top 5 last week finishing third in the feature.

Wyatt Lehman (6) won his heat race and was fifth in the feature.

Seven feature wins

There was only one caution in the 18-lap SportMod feature and that is all Kyle Prauner of Norfolk needed to win his seventh feature of the season.

Derek Sehi of Neligh led the first five laps, before Norfolk's Matt Haase slipped on the inside of Sehi to make the pass for the lead.

By this time, Prauner was making his pass for the third spot.

Haase had opened up a half-straight-away lead when the caution came out after eight completed laps.

On the restart, Prauner got the bottom side to stick and slid by Haase for the lead.

Prauner paced the field for the final 10 laps for the win. Haase distance himself from third for the runner-up spot.

Todd Boulware of Jefferson was third and Nelson Vollbrecht of Norfolk taking fourth. Rounding out the top 5 was Brandon Poesnecker of Atkinson.

Kyle Prauner (5k) takes to the track for his heat race.

Tiffany Bittner (95) picked up her second win of the season and her ninth top 5.

Tiffany Bittner will add a win to her national points. as of July 25 she was seventh nationally

Bittner takes second win

It was a rough start to the Hobby Stock feature last week and Colby Langenberg can prove it.

Langenberg ended up spinning on his side and nearly flipping when he was clipped in the right rear by another car spinning out.

Langenberg walked away and his night was done.

For Tiffany Bittner the night was just beginning as she picked her way to the front to take the win.

Jeb Dunklau of Norfolk led the first three laps before Bittner jumped out front.

Track points leader Jason Wilkinson of Neligh followed Bittner through the field and was running a straightaway back, when a caution with three laps remaining came out.

On the restart, Bittner showed no one was going to catch her, as she opened up another gap.

It was Bittner's second win of the season.

Wilkinson finished second for the third time this season and posted his ninth top 3.

Third went to Jeremy Hoskinson of Norfolk for his third straight top 5.

Gage Koch of Norfolk inherited the fourth spot when Jereme Knoell of Norfolk did not pass post race inspection. It was Koch's second career top 5 finish.

Mark Arduser of Battle Creek rounded out the top 5.

Gage Koch scores his second straight top 5 finish with a fourth place in the feature.

Jeb Dunklau (65d) led three laps in the feature.

Mark Arduser (4) suffered a flat tire in his heat race and later finished fifth in the feature.

Jeremy Hoskinson (26) and Alex Korus (18A) move through the field in the feature. Hoskinson finished third in the feature.

Nate DeSive (31K) placed eighth in the feature.

Tow truck driver Brian Koenig was kept busy including hauling off Colby Langenberg (1) when he clipped a spun vehicle, flipped up on his side and landed back on his wheels. Check out the video at dmj13.com.
