Kyle Prauner (5k) collides with David Johnson (97) in their heat race. Prauner later won his eighth feature.

Prauner collects eighth win

Kyle Prauner continues to have the handle on track and the Norfolk native took home his eighth feature win of the season, his third straight.

Cameron Meyer of Pierce led the first lap, as Norfolk's Matt Haase made his move on the bottom side to lead the next six laps.

Haase had opened up a half straightaway lead before Prauner moved into the second position on lap four.

Prauner had run down Haase and was alongside of him when the first caution of the race came out.

Haase held off Prauner for one lap. Prauner would lead the final 11 laps for the win.

Sporting a new look, Todd Boulware of Jefferson used a late caution to help place second.

Boulware took Vollbrecht high in turn four, but Vollbrecht came back on the inside and got back around Boulware on the next lap.

Boulware pulled the cross-over move on the final lap to take the runner-up position.

Vollbrecht was third, Jerry Prauner of Norfolk placed fourth and BJ Haase of Norfolk rounded out the top 5.

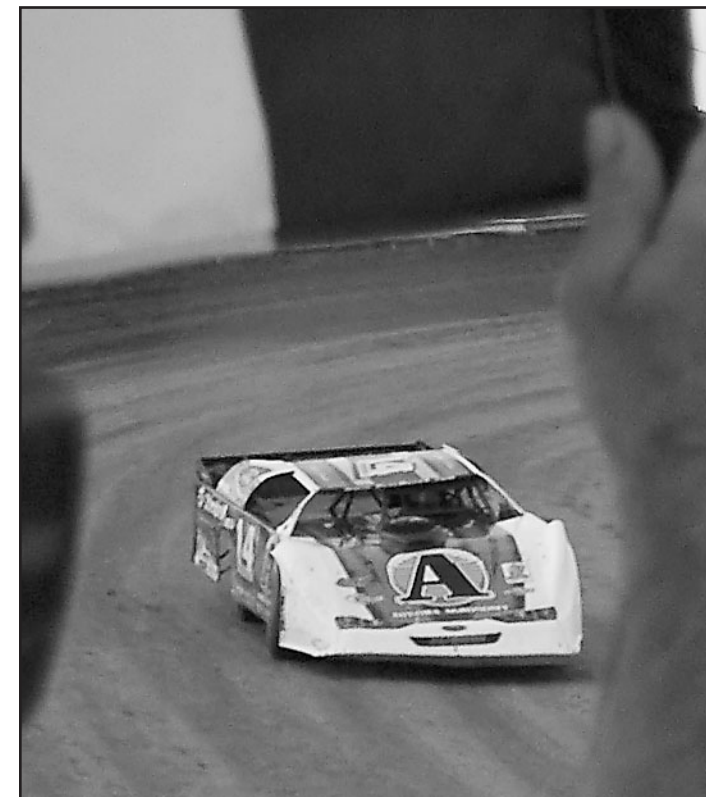

Todd Boulware (14) sported a new look and finished second in the feature.

Jerry Prauner (50) passes Matt Haase (81) during the feature.

Kyle Berck won his heat race and later won his second straight SLMR feature at the track.

Berck does it again

With the luck of the draw, last season's Super Late Model Racing series winner, pulled the pole position from the hat.

Marquette's Kyle Berck won last year's event and again won the feature, this time leading every lap.

Tad Pospisil of Norfolk came into the event leading the SLMR points. He finished fifth.

The highest Riviera regular was Mike Benson of Wakefield at the eighth position.

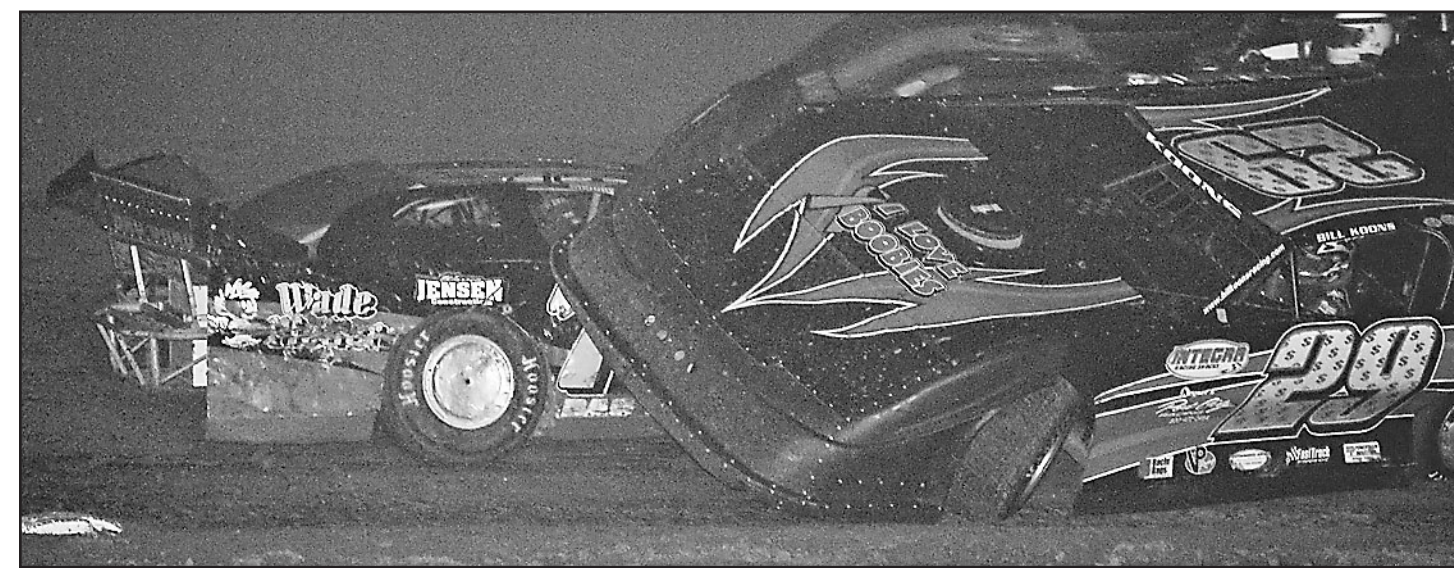

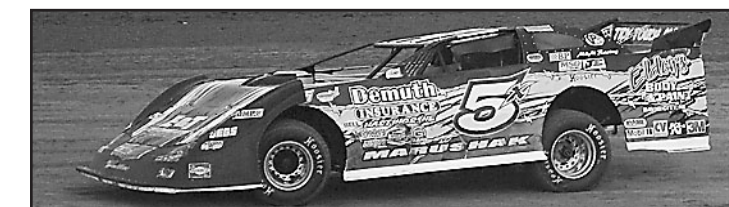

Bill Leighton, Jr. of Omaha finished second when he got the position on the final restart. He passed Mike Marushak of David City, who finished third.

Omaha's Robbie Anderson finished fourth.
